LOCAL MATTERS

Omission.—Because of a rush of advertisements, we are compelled to omit our communications this week.

Kelley Trial December 9th.—December 9th has been set by Federal Judge Edward G. Bradford as the time for taking up the case of George D. Kelley in the United States Court. Mr. Kelley is under indictment on ten counts, charging him with having made false reports while cashier of the People's National Bank, Middletown, Del.

Wedding Announcement.—The marriage of Miss Daisy Nicholson to Mr. Carey W. Reinhart is announced to take place quietly in the presence of only the immediate families, on Tuesday morning, November 25th, at 8.30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Nicholson, on Fancy Farm, near town. No cards.

Damage Case Compromised.—The case of Harry R. Richardson vs. the Board of County Commissioners of Kent county which has been pending in the courts for the past two years, has been compromised by the commissioners agreeing to pay to Mr. Richardson the sum of $100 for injuries to a valuable horse on the public road near Lankford.

Will of Late Silas Weller.—The last will and testament of Silas Weller was admitted to probate in the Orphans' Court on Tuesday. It bequeathes $1000 absolutely to his widow; $250 to each of his sons, Louis H. and James W. Weller, $100 to his grandson, Elmer Weller. The other children and grandchildren are each given one dollar. The residue the will directs the executor to invest in mortgages at 6 per cent., the income therefrom to be paid to the widow. At her death the residue is to be equally divided among his sons, Messrs. Louis H., James W., Jacob and Charles S. Weller. The will is dated May 15th, 1911, and is witnessed by Messrs. Sidney P. Townshend and Denny Hoffecker. Mr. Charles H. Jefferson is named as executor, and he has been granted permission by the Orphans' Court to till the farm in 1914, which the deceased had rented from Mr. Thos. W. Eliason.

Sells Mercantile Business.—Mr. M. Kramer, who for many years has conducted a very successful clothing and furnishing business in Rock Hall, but two years ago purchased a large shirt factory in Baltimore, and removed to the city, has sold his business to Mr. J. M. Blaustein, who has made a big success of the business as Mr. Kramer's manager. Mr. Blaustein has been with the people of Rock Hall long enough for them to know the man and his splendid business methods. He is known everywhere as one of the most reliable merchants in this county. We feel sure the people of lower Kent will give Mr. Blaustein his just share of their patronage. He is advertising a great closing-out sale in this issue comprising a page of seasonable articles at cut prices. Watch the TRANSCRIPT from now until Christmas for the news from Kramer's. Mr. Blaustein assumes complete control January 1.

¶While enroute from Galena to Newark, Del., last Saturday to witness the game of foot ball between Washington College and Delaware, Mr. Edmund Hurtt's machine in which he and Mr. Jesse Ireland were riding turned turtle. In leaving the State road the auto ran into a sand heap, causing the car to turn over. Mr. Ireland was thrown clear of the machine, but Mr. Hurtt was pinned under the car and injured, one of his ribs, being broken, we understand.

¶Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Robinson have purchased at private sale, Mr. Arthur Pope's, residence on College avenue.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

¶B. C. Sutton, Black's wise merchant, will pay 50 cents a dozen for eggs next Wednesday.

¶Messrs. Needles Bros. are painting the home of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Reed in attractive colors.

¶Mr. E. A. Corey, of near Fairlee, has a 13-months-old heifer that has a fine calf by her side one month old. She is a Jersey.

¶Mr. C. Kent Lambert has installed a big new boiler and furnace in the Voshell House, to increase the heating capacity.

¶Mr. James Brice and Mr. Charles D. McCleary have been appointed appraisers of the estate of the late Silas Weller.

¶Our county merchants are offering 40, 42 and 50 cents per dozen for eggs next week. Read their advertisements and see for yourself.

¶Mr. Wm. E. Moody has disposed of his Krit touring car to Mr. Julian T. Power, of Millington. The car was delivered on Tuesday.

¶The first entertainment to be given during the winter under the auspices of the Federated Club, will be given in Firemen's Hall to-night.

¶Mr. W. A. Prince has purchased the Elite Laundery and shoe shining business from Mr. Fred S. Russell, and will give same careful attention.

¶Mr. E. A. Jones, of Warwick, has purchased the meat market business of Mr. George Echenhofer in Middletown, Del., and has taken possession.

¶The State Christian Endeavor convention will be held in Associate Congregational Church, Baltimore, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next. A splendid program has been arranged.

¶A prominent farmer living in Queen Annes, near Chestertown, has a flock of 325 fine Indian Runner ducks. It is a beautiful sight to see them. Who can beat it?

¶A strong South wind caused an unusually high tide on Sunday. All the water front yards were submerged and a part of the playgrounds was under water.

¶The cold breath from the snowclad hills of Western Maryland caused quite a fall of temperature in the Garden of Eden. What a fortunate people we are, anyhow.

¶The pungy "Plan" belonging to Capt. John Crouch, which was blown ashore in Long Cove a few weeks ago, was pushed off on Sunday, Nov. 9, after much work on her.

¶Eggs have been retailing in New York markets during the week at 75 cents a dozen. It is reported that they are likely to be 7 cents a piece before Thanksgiving.

¶Many of the farmers of this and Queen Annes counties will attend the affiliated Horticultural meetings in the Fifth Regiment Armory, Baltimore, beginning next Tuesday.

¶Mr. J. S. Kreeger has quite a novelty in his window on Cross street in the form of a stork pointing out automaticly some splendid rings, each with a different month stone.

¶The loud reports, as of the firing of a cannon, which have been heard during the week, were caused by the use of dynamite in blowing up stumps by Mr. Walter Wright in his lawn.

¶Owing to an accident to one of the Tolchester Company's steamers there was no boat to Tolchester either going or coming Wednesday and yesterday. Regular schedule will be run to-day.

¶Messrs. Graham & Clements have sold this week two fine cars, one a model 37, 1914 five passenger Buick touring car to Mr. Claude F. Parks, and a 1913 Buick roadster to Mr. Clifton L. Jarrell.

¶Mr. Wm. Walter Chapman, local representative of the well-known firm of E. S. Valliant & Son, of Church Hill, has taken a desk in the office of Mr. Thos. G. Wroth, in the TRANSCRIPT building, where he will be glad to see his business friends.

¶A defect in the boiler of the "Joppa" caused the Chestertown boat to be about three hours late Saturday. The defect was noticed before she left Baltimore, and consequently it was 2 o'clock before she left the city.

¶Mr. Arlington L. Sparks will every Wednesday and on each purchase, give four votes instead of one in every department to his store. This is also true at the stores of Messers. J. T. DeCurse and Vansant & Newsome.

¶Quite a number of Chestertown people have received a very "endearing" letter from "your ever loving Edith", post marked, Hotel Continental, Paris, during the week. Look out for something to follow and don't get caught.

¶The Charles W. Copper property, High and Kent streets, consisting of the cement block store and dwelling occupied by Hadaway Bros., and two dwellings on Kent street occupied by colored tenants, was sold at public sale by Wm. W. Beck, trustee, on Tuesday to Mr. George W. McWhorter for $905.

¶Mr. Wm. A. Hyland, the popular Galena farm implement and machinery man is improving his shop by the erection of a substantial addition. The front of the building will be of glass for display purposes and he proposes to have one of the most up-to-date machinery and implement plants in the county.

¶Weather prophets who pin their faith upon "nature signs" say we are to have an extremely cold winter. Judging from the condition of the week now closing in which snow has fallen and frost has gotten as far South as Florida, there are some of us who are beginning to think that there is something in these nature signs.

¶Do not forget the big Ladies' Matinee to be held at Radcliffe Park next Wednesday, for the benefit of the Emergency Hospital and Old People's Home Fund. This is a most laudable undertaking on the part of the Woman's Relief Society, and the people of the entire county should patronize any entertainment the society may give for the purpose of raising funds.

¶Mr. Harry R. Graham, of the firm of Graham & Clements, while cranking his car at Tolchester on Thursday afternoon had his right arm broken by the flareback of the crank pin. He had been to the beach to carry a part of Washington College foot ball squad, and was compelled to drive his car home with his left hand. His father, Dr. Graham, set the fracture.

¶Miss Cora Adelaide Zimmerman, daughter of Mrs. Wm. T. Zimmerman, and Mr. Marshall Armstrong Carlton, both of Roland Park, Baltimore, were married on Wednesday at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. Strobel, 302 Club Road, Roland Park. An elaborate reception followed the ceremony. Miss Zimmerman is very well-known in Chestertown where she had been a guest of Mrs. R. F. Parks and other friends.
