WILL CONTEST LEE'S SEAT

Republicans in Senate Say His Election Was Not Valid.

Preparations to contest the seating of senator-elect Blair Lee, of Maryland, on the ground that his election was not valid, were being made by Republican members of the Senate in Washington last Friday. They claimed that his name was appended to a regular ballot without special provisions being made by the legislature as required under the Maryland law.

At the same time Democrats were preparing to fight to seat Lee immediately and the disbursing clerk of the Senate notified Senator Jackson, whom Lee was elected to succeed, that until the contest was decided neither Lee nor Jackson would receive salary.

Besides the issue of its validity Lee's election has other complications. He is the first senator to be elected by direct vote where there was a contest, and owing to the vague wording of the direct election amendment to the Federal Constitution there is a question as to whether he is entitled to a seat or must wait until January, when his predecessor's term would have ended under the old method of legislative appointment.

Lee is needed by the Democrats at this particular time because of the currency crisis and the insurgency of Senators Reed, Hitchcock and O'Gorman against the administration currency bill. Jackson refuses to recognize any question except the validity of the election.

Celebrated Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Duyer celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary quietly at their home in Chestertown Monday.

Both are healthy, but Mrs. Duyer is, in action and looks, about twenty years younger than her actual age. Her eyesight is nearly perfect, never having to wear glasses and being able to read the smallest print, and she is engaged at this time in making a quilt.

Mr. and Mrs. Duyer were married during the winter of 1852, and when they went on their wedding trip north, the Susquehanna river was frozen to such an extent as to make it impossible to navigate. The railroad company was compelled to lay tracks accross the Susquehanna river on the ice.

Mr. Duyer is 82 years old, while Mrs. Duyer is 78.

Mrs. Duyer was before marriage, Miss Rose Hyda, and came from England when a child. She lived in Church Hill before marriage, her mother being postmistress of that place.

We wish them many years of life and health and happiness.

Rev. H. Robin... in Georgia.

The Dublin, (Ga.) Courier-Herald of October 21 last, says:

"One of the pleasantest welcome services to new pastors in the city that has been held here in some time was held here Sunday evening in the First Methodist Church at which Rev. W. F. Mott, new pastor of the Christian Church, and Rev. Herbert W. Robinson, newly-installed rector of Christ Episcopal Church, were formally welcomed to this city. All of the churches united in a welcome to the new pastors, there being no night meeting at any of the other churches in the city."

Mr. Robinson was until recently rector of Shrewsbury Parish, this county. His many friends here are delighted to know that he is so pleasantly situated in the sunny South.

Rural Route Statistics.

The result of the count of mail of all classes, as carried by the rural route drivers of Chestertown postoffice during the month of October, showed a total of 36,011 pieces for 4,249 pounds, the postage amounting to $432.79.

Mr. Charles E. Wood, rural route No. 3, was in the lead, carrying 12,437 pieces, 1,468 pounds, postage $160.85.

Mr. Thomas Willis, rural route No.2, 8,438 pieces, 1,121 pounds, postage $98.99.

Mr. D. B. Kendall, rural route No. 1, 7,828 pieces, 866 pounds, postage $81.76.

Mr. Fred S. Russell, rural route No. 4, 7,298 pieces, 854 pounds, postage $91.09.

Young guineas weighing 1½ pounds are selling for 62½ cents wholesale. This fowl is becoming quite a delicacy among those who like grouse or pheasant. One of our farmers living near Lankford while cutting wheat last June found a guinea's nest with 20 eggs in it. He took them to the house and set them under a Plymouth Rock hen. Twelve eggs hatched, and after carrying them for a time the old hen weaned them. The guineas took a fancy to an old rooster on the yard, and they have shown such a fondness for the old fellow, that they have almost worried his life out, and rather than sacrifice the rooster the farmer is obliged to sell the guineas.

An editor who started about 20 years ago with only 55 cents is now worth $100,000. His accumulations of wealth are owing to his frugality, good habits, strict attention to business and the fact that an uncle died and left him $99,999.
