A State-wide Lord's Day Conference under the auspices of the Lord's Day Alliance of Maryland, will be held in Baltimore, Dec. 1 to Dec. 7. Hon. Joshua Levering, of Baltimore, is the president of the organization which is doing so much good in bringing about a more sacred observance of the sabbath. A fine program has been arranged and some of the most prominent men in the country will deliver addresses.

Dr. Robert Watt, District Superintendent, will visit Pomona charge and hold quarterly conference at Bond Chapel on Saturday, November 29th, at 3 P. M. He will preach at Bond on Sunday morning, Nov. 30.

Preaching at Mowbray Chapel tomorrow at 3 P. M. and Sunday school at 2 P. M.

Capt. Alfred Price, the noted evangelist who had been holding a successful revival on the charge, left on Monday. Capt. Price left a splendid impression with the people of Quaker Neck, and there is scarcely a home on the charge that has not felt the soul-stirring effect of his fine sermons.

After painting and extensive repairs, the M. E. Church of Johnstown, Earleville, was reopened for worship on Sunday, Nov. 16. Rev. J. A. Arters and Rev. W. F. Dawson, former pastors, assisted the pastor, Rev. G. L. Hardesty.

Work on the new Betterton Church is progressing rapidly. The corner stone will be laid on Sunday, Nov. 30th. The Still Pond congregation will be asked to worship with the Betterton people on that occasion. Rev. Dr. Barrett has kindly consented to preach and assist in all services. Many people of this county and elsewhere have a special interest in Betterton because of its amusements during the summer months. We trust they will likewise interest themselves in her religious life by being present at the corner stone laying and helping in the finances. Further notice will appear in next week's papers. Order of services for to-morrow, Nov. 23rd: Still Pond—Sunday school 9.30 A. M., preaching 10.45 A. M., Epworth League 7.30 P.
