LOCAL MATTERS

A Flattering Call.—Rev. Frank K. Little, son of Rev. Dr. F. T. Little, formerly of this town, who has been assistant rector at Old Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church, New York, for the past two years, has received a call to become rector of a Protestant Episcopal Church in the same city, of which young Vincent Astor, the heir of the late John Jacob Astor, the multi-millionaire, is a member. Mr. Little's rise to prominence in the church of his choice has been rapid, and his many friends here are delighted to hear of his success.

Killed by a Fall From House.—Mr. Elwood Taylor, a well and highly respected plasterer and brick mason residing in Church Hill, fell from the roof of a new building to the ground at Price's Station, on Tuesday afternoon fracturing his skull from which he died in about five minutes after being picked up. Mr. Taylor was one of the most industrious and hard working men in Queen Annes. He had just finished the chimney of the building and had gone on the roof again to see that everything was all right, when he fell. The deceased was well and favorably known in Chestertown, having plastered the home of Mr. Robert Moffett, and having done other jobs. He married a daughter of Mr. George W. Chambers, of this town, and leaves a widow and two children.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

The Water Board has had the fire plugs in the town painted red.

Mr. James Brice has an abundance plum tree in bloom in his side yard.

Mr. John Schauber lost three valuable mules very suddenly this week from unknown causes.

There is a new photographer in town. He has a studio in the Bordley building over the clothing store.

It is reported that hogs sold at Oliver Miller's sale this week for as much as 21 and 22 cents a pound on the hoof.

George Yorker, one of the oldest and most respectable colored carters in Chestertown, died on Monday.

Thanksgiving Day was observed by the closing of the public schools, the banks and public offices and by services in the churches.

The annual meeting of the School Commissioners and county superintendents of the State will be held in Baltimore city December 4th and 5th.

Mr. Arthur Bacon has taken charge of teh machine shop near the cemetery, formerly conducted by Messrs. Matthews and Joiner.

The teachers and pupils in the Chestertown High School are preparing to give an entertainment in the Assembly Hall of the school on the evening of December 17th.

Wesley Watson, a respected colored man, formerly of Broad Neck, was killed while working on the railroad at Media, Pa., last Monday. His remains were brought to Kent by train and entered in the colored cemetery in Broad Neck.

Mr. James Thompson won the ... some hammerless $25 gun that Mr. W. S. McDonnell gave away last week. A number was given with every cigar, the holder of the lucky number being given the gun.

Mr. E. C. Converse, of New York city, who recently purchased Mulberry Point, on the mainland, near Spesutia Island, for $50,000, and who has not yet quite completed the handsome bungalow he is having erected thereon, entertained a number of his friends there one night last week.

Owing to the fact that several of the churches had made arrangements for holding their Christmas treat before the idea of a community Christmas tree was advanced, the committees in charge of the matter have decided to abandon the idea this year, but an early effort will be made next year for the union celebration.

The second of the series of winter entertainments given under the auspices of the Federated Club, will be held in the Lyceum Theatre next Wednesday evening, December 3rd. The attraction will be Ora Samuel Gray, one of finest lecturers and entertainers on the American platform. The first in the series of the Winter Chautauqua was a delightful entertainment. The second will be even better.

Mr. Fred H. Russell, superintendent and manager of the Chestertown Electric Light Co., has a large force of workmen engaged in building a sea wall on one side of the electric light plant and otherwise repairing their wharf property. The recent high tides have been causing much inconvenience at ... lighting plant by washing away ... lumber and anything else that ... in its path and Mr. Russell hopes to hold the water in check by means of this improvement.

Mr. William Newnam, the popular music store man, has had a big run on his fine grade of pianos during the month. He delivered three on Thursday of last week, one on Friday and another on Monday. He sold two on Wednesday, Nov. 12th, in ten minutes by telephone, and on election night he sold two more in an hour and a half. Last week he had an inquiry from a gentleman from the First District who read his adv. in the TRANSCRIPT, and the gentleman has promised to buy. Looks like Old Kris is going to be kind to somebody.

The corn crop throughout the county is way below the average this year, though there are some farmers who have a fine yield. The average yield will be below 40 bushels. It is reported that Mr. E. B. Pennington, Sr., will have an average yield of 98 bushels per acre from a large tillage. His men one day this week lofted 304 bushels of corn from 3 acres. Mr. E. B. Pennington, Jr., of near Kennedyville, it is reported will have a yield of between 60 and 70 bushels per acre, while Mr. Adam F. Huey, County Treasurer C. S. Hurlock, and others around Massey expect 70 bushels per acre or better.

The entertainment given by the combined dramatic talent of Lynch M. P. and I. U. P. E. Churches in Lynch hall last Tuesday evening drew a packed audience, which was charmed with the splendid performances. All the characters in the two plays were taken by amateurs, but they were as good as professionals. The ladies sold enough chocolate and ice cream and cake to pay the expenses and leave admission price clear. The entertainments will be repeated in Weer's Hall, Kennedyville, on Tuesday evening, and in Fairlee Grange Hall Thursday evening. Come to Chestertown, we'll give you a good house.

Mr. Wm. M. Hurlock, of near Kennedyville, brought to our office on Wednesday a curiosity in the shape of one of those army worms, which played havoc with the farmers corn and wheat fields last June, in the First and Second Districts. Mr. Hurlock found the worm in his corn field. He placed it in a small medicine bottle, and in about two days and a half the worm developed a pair of wings about twice the lenghth of the worm. The wings developed seemingly from the corners of the eye, and we believe Mr. Hurlock's experiment has divulged the secret of their sudden coming and going.

Valuable Stones.

...Sunday Sun contained an interesting description of a necklace which one of the popular daughters of Hon. Champ Clark, speaker of the House of Representatives, has recently had made of a number of rare stones, known to the people of Virginia as "Angel Tears" or "Fairy Stones," and which were found at Patrick Springs, Va. The article reminded Sheriff and Mrs. William H. McKee, of the fact that they have in their possession 17 or 18 of the stones which were gathered by the late Miss Elmer Rasin, sister of Mrs. McKee, when she visited Patrick Springs some years ago. Both Mrs. McKee and her sister had been wearing one of these stones on their necklace. The perfect stones are in the shape of a cross, while others are shaped liked a malt... cross. They are of a brownish cast, ... and are washed in a certain kind of oil ... in order to make prominent their color ... and fine points.
