THE RELIGIOUS WORLD.

Rev. Dr. W. J. Graham, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, preached a strong sermon on Sunday evening upon the theme—"Two Boy Brought up in the Same Family and What Became of Them." Every young man in this town who is wondering why he is no more successful in life than he is should have heard the sermon. It put a discount upon the young man who spends his Sunday evenings on the street corners and in restaurants, and was a plain and fearless statement of conditions in our town on Sunday evenings which the the town authorities should not allow.

Union Thanksgiving services were held in the Methodist Episcopal Church on Thursday morning. Rev. Dr. Graham, pastor of Christ M.P. Church, delivered the sermon, which was a great one; and a combined choir from the two churches rendered special music under the direction of Mrs. Merrick Clements.

Rev. W. E. Habbert, one of the most prominent ministers of the Wilmington M. E. Conference spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Turner, at Worton. Mr. Habbert occupied the pulpit in St. James' M. P. Church last Sunday morning and delighted the congregation with a fine sermon.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Dr. W. R. Graham, pastor. Regular services on Sunday, Nov. 30th., and preaching by the pastor at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. Subject for the morning sermon, "Courtesy and Courage of True Friendship." Subject for the evening sermon, "The Good Son of a Bad Father;" Sabbath School 2.30 P. M. Christian Endeavor service 6.45 P. M. Mid-week service, Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

Do not forget the Dorcas Society supper and doll fair at Emmanuel P. E. Parish House Wednesday evening next.

The Thanksgiving services was held in the Kenneydville Presbyterian church Sunday, Mr. Clews preached an interesting and helpful sermon and the choir rendered two appropriate selections. A large congregation was present.

Mr. Clews will continue his sermons on the Lord's Prayer next Sunday. The topic for Nov. 30th. will be "Lead us Not Into Tempation".

OUR DEATH RECORD.

MRS. MARGARET A. STEPHENS.

Succumbing to heart failure, superinduced by an attack of acute indigestion, Mrs. Margaret A. Stephens, relict of William W. Stephens, died suddenly at the home of her only daughter, Mrs. John S. Constable, 328 East Twentieth street, Baltimore, Saturday morning. For sometime past Mrs. Stephens had been in rather poor health, and although 70 years old her condition was not considered serious. She had been moving about the house all during the week in her usual manner and was in good health until Friday night, when she was seized with pains about the heart due to indigestion and expired the next morning. Mrs. Stephens was a native of Kent County, having been reared in Worton, and received her education in the public schools of that section. She lived in Kent until the death of her husband about 20 years ago, when she went to Baltimore and had since made her home with her daughter, the nearest relative surviving her. She was an aunt of Messrs. Edgar P. and James G. Beck. The funeral services took place Monday afternoon, and were conducted by Rev. Thomas O. Crouse, of North Baltimore Methodist Protestant Church, with which the deceased had been closely identified for many years. The remains were brought to Chestertown Tuesday morning by train and interred in Chester cemetery. Rev. Dr. Graham conducted the services at the grave. Undertaker Chas. L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements. The pallbearers were: Samuel Vannort, John P. and R. G. Nicholson, J. Walter Skirven, Edgar P. and James G. Beck.

COL. JOHN GILPIN.

Col. John Gilpin, aged 75 years, died at his home, Partridge Hill, near Elkton, Monday morning after several weeks' illness. He was born near Elkton and was a son of the late John Hollingsworth and Margaret Whann Gilpin. At the outbreak of the Civil War he enlisted in the Confederate Army, joining Dement's Battery. For many years he operated the Gilpin brick yards in Elkton. He is survived by two brothers, William R. and Henry H. Gilpin, and one sister, Miss Margaret Gilpin. His funeral was held Thursday afternoon, with burial in the Gilpin burying grounds near Elkton. The deceased was a brother of the late Dr. Charles P. Gilpin, of this town, of whose estate he was administrator.

Foot Ball Notes.

The foot ball season at Washington College closed last Saturday with a hard fought game at Oriole Park, Baltimore, between Washington and St. John's, old rivals, for gridiron honors, in which St. John's won by the score of 13 to 6. Both teams played an aggressive game, but the victory went to the superior team. The local squad did not reach Baltimore until 12 o'clock by Tolchester, and the trip may have had something to do with Washington's defeat, as had they been able to go to the city Friday, they would have had a good rest before donning their [illegible].
