Aaron Perry Faces New Rap on Robbery Charge

WASHINGTON

A continuous trail of crime, rapidly overshadowing his brilliant performance as one of the District's best fight prospects, doggedly follows the footsteps of Aaron Perry, former local middleweight boxer.

Out under bond awaiting trial on a previous robbery charge, the youthful-looking Perry was re-arrested on Thursday, with a companion, and charged with robbing participants in a dice game early last Tuesday.

According to police, Perry, 24, and Charles V. Turner, 23, of the 2200 block of 12th Pl., N.W., were arrested after having been identified by dice players who were backed up against a wall and robbed at Red's Social Club, 1354 Wallach Pl., N.W.

Armed Holdup Charged

The 10 patrons, who lost more than $200 at the point of a pistol and a knife, identified the pair in a police line at headquarters on Thursday, police said.

Police were told that Turner used a 32-calibre pistol while Perry wielded a knife. To gain entrance to the club, both Perry and Turner were said to have used membership cards. After gaining entry, they ordered the participants to line up against the wall.

After they had been identified in the police lineup, United State Commissioner Cyril S. Lawrence placed Perry and Turner under $10,000 bond each.

Both were indicted on July 24 on charges of housebreaking and robbery in connection with the July 2 holdup of Maurice K. Lewis, owner of a store at 4805 Georgia Ave., N.W. The bond for Perry and Turner was set at $10,000 each, but later was reduced to $2,500 in Municipal Court.

Each man made the lower bond and were out awaiting their trial.

Can Be Jailed 15 Years

According to police, if convicted on the July 2 charges of housebreaking and robbery, the pair could receive from six months to 15 years in the reformatory and a lighter sentence for the breaking charge.

This likely would be in addition to a sentence for the latest robbery, though Perry and Turner are found guilty of having stayed ahead of the law. Perry is two arrests this year on a series of tangles with the law. In March, 1949, he was convicted for an assault on an automobile dealer, according to police records.

Back In Income Taxes

Prior to that, he fought a losing encounter with the late LaVern Roach at Griffith Stadium, and the Internal Revenue officials accosted him for back income taxes amounting to a reported $20,000.

How much of that amount he has paid to the Government is not known.

During World War II, Perry ran afoul of military officials at Fort Meade where he was stationed when he went AWOL. He was discharged shortly after being found wandering aimlessly in Rock Creek Park, apparently an amnesia victim.

Cpl. Capps Promoted Air Force Sergeant

RICHMOND

Cpl. Linwood O. Capps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Linwood C. Capps, 2019 N. 13th St., was recently promoted to the grade of sergeant in the United States Air Force.

Sgt. Capps, a former post office employee, is a motor vehicle operator for the 56th Fighter-Interceptor Wing at the Selfridge Air Force Base in Michigan. He joined the service in 1949.

Tourists Pay Tribute to St. Lawrence Navigator

Man Fleeing Foe Stabbed to Death

WASHINGTON

Bleeding from multiple stabbing wounds in the chest and shoulders, the fatally wounded body of John Clinton Staples, 33, of the 1400 block T Street, N.W., was discovered by police at approximately 6 p.m. on Tuesday in the basement of a building in the 1300 block of S St., N.W.

Staples was pronounced dead by the coroner who was immediately summoned to the scene. The cause of death was determined to be stab wounds with a sharp instrument at the hands of an unidentified assailant.

The AFRO learned that Sta
