PRICE IS NOT

a proper tape line with which to measure value.

A good many folks are attracted by advertisements of [illegible] price, value for $8.98 class only to find that the value was mainly in the mind of the ad writer and not in the quality of the merchandise.

At the live store we measure value by quality and by quality in and from other leading manufacturers we mean pure wool, perfect style and superior workmanship.

We are concerned mainly in the service the clothes we sell will give the customer, and when we finally come to the question of price there is no argument, no excuse to be made on either side, for whether you pay $7.50 or $22.50 the same quality standards obtain; at $7.50 you get a full $7.50 worth; at $20, $22.50 you get a corresponding increase, a full measure of value, service and satisfaction.

To-day we'll specialize on a new lot of full length, shawl collar Overcoats in Worombo, French Mensterworth Meltons at $10.00

They'll be really worth inspecting.

We Also Carry a Full and Up-to-Date Line of Tri-County Produce Exchange.—Farmers of Queen Annes, Caroline, and Talbot counties met in Easton on Saturday and organized a tri-county Produce Exchange. The committee on organization is: M. B. Nichols, Milton Campbell, Herman Windfohr, William H. Kemp, Joseph B. Seth, George C. Moore and James Dixon, of Talbot county; W. Irving Walker and William McKenney, of Queen Anne's county; and Irving Saulsbury and J. Spencer Lapham, of Caroline county. The object of the exchange is to secure better prices on commodities bought and sold. What a great opportunity the farmers of Kent county are missing. There could be no better development of the Grange movement in this county than merging into a Produce Exchange, and living up to the principles of the exchange.

A Sad Experience.—For the benefit of those of our farmers who persist that there is no efficacy in inoculating hogs against cholera, we relate the following sad experience which one of our farmers had this year. It had been the farmer's custom every year to inoculate his hogs, and by so doing he had not lost a single hog in all the years that he used the serum. This year he failed to have his hogs inoculated, and he lost every one of them except one or two. Now, Mr. Farmer, an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. If the farmer above mentioned had lost none of his hogs in all the years that he used the treatment, and lost nearly every one in the year he failed to use it, does it require any argument to convince you of the wisdom of the serum? Try the process this year, and see how it works.

Officials Take Office.—[illegible] elected county officials took [illegible] office before Clerk of the Court James T. Dixon on Tuesday and assumed the duties of their offices. Messrs. T. Benj. Crew, re-elected, and Mr. John C. Wood, elected in the place of his brother, Mr. Charles D. Wood, took their places as members of the Board of County Commissioners. The board reorganized by electing Mr. W. Fletcher Melvin president and Mr. Samuel Hicks clerk. Sheriff Wm. E. Brown assumed the duties of his office and named Mr. James C. Bolton, of Chestertown, as his deputy.

Farm Buildings Burned.—The stable and barn on the Bradshaw farm in the Fifth District, tenanted by Mr. John Newcomb, and owned by Smith Bros., of near Edesville, were destroyed by fire of an unknown origin on Friday evening together with 20 bushels of wheat saved for flour, the tenant's share of this year's corn crop, several tons of hay and some long fodder. The loss is about $3,000 with $300 insurance in the Kent Mutual.

A farmer near Chewsville, Md., has a cow that has given birth to twin calves five consecutive times.

TIME TO ACT

Don't Wait for the Fatal Stage of Kidnes Illnes. Profit By Chestertown People's Experiences.

Occasional attacks of backache, irregular urination, headache and dizzy spells are frequent symptoms of kidney disorders. It's an error to neglect these ills. The attacks may pass off for a time but generally return with greater intensity. Don't delay a minute. Begin taking Doan's Kidney Pills, and keep up their use until the desired results are obtained. Good work in Chestertown proves the effectiveness of this great kidney remedy.

Mrs. Albert Raleigh, Cannon St., Chestertown, Md., says: "One of my family suffered from kidney trouble. There was sediment in the kidney secretions and the passages were too frequent. He had pains through his back and at times was dizzy. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally procured from Toulson's Drug Store and they made him well."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
