The Transcript.

R.H.COLLINS, T.D.BOWERS
EDITORS.

THE TRANSCRIPT extends best wishes to Sheriff Wm. E. Brown for a successful term.

THE Anti-Saloon League headquarters committee has decided to drop local option and advocate a prohibition amendment to the State constitution. It also agreed to leave Wm. H. Anderson decide as to his acceptance of a call to New York.

NOT every county in the State can boast of a brother, and a twin at that, succeeding a brother on the Board of County Commissioners. Yet that is Kent's proud distinction, and we are sure that John C. Wood will make as efficient a commissioner as his twin brother, Charles D. Wood has done. Both boys are among the county's best citizens.

CONGRESS was enthusiastic over President Wilson's message. It was great. But that is not strange. President Wilson is a great man, and he has the courage of his convictions. His recommendations to Congress are all in the interest of the people, and while some of the ideas expressed are somewhat new, they are the result of close contact with the sentiment of the people, from the brain of one who knows the people's needs.

MR. CHARLES D. WOOD, president of the Board of County Commissioners, and Sheriff William H. McKee retire from office with the esteem and confidence of the public. They have made most efficient officials, and have proven faithful in every respect to the trust reposed in them. Deputy Sheriff Adam Startt also retires with he... He has been a valuable man to Sheriff McKee, and has been loyal to his obligations.

A WORD TO OUR COUNTRY FRIENDS.

We are not so sure that our friends the country and county towns understand fully that they should be just as greatly interested in the establishment of an Emergency Hospital and Old Peo...'s Home, as are the people of Ches...own. The benefits to be derived ... such an institution are as much ...e benefit of the people of the en...nty as they are for the residents ...rtown. We are glad to note ... Woman's Relief Society has ...admirably in creating an in... ...e part of all the newspapers ..., as well as of the commun...erally. We feel sure that we ... the unanimous sentiment of the ...ety when we extend an invitation ...very town and locality in the county ...feel that this great movement for ...nity which these noble ladies here ...augurated, is just as much a ... of their work as it is of the society here, and for this reason we urge every locality in the county to devise some plan for raising funds with which to establish and equip this most needed institution. We respectfully suggest that the granges of the county could arrange an entertainment or supper for the benefit of the fund, and the splendid dramatic talent of Lynch, I. U., Worton, St. Paul's, Millington, Galena, Rock Hall, Betterton and Still Pond could arrange during the winter to have something that would be the means of raising quite a nice fund by the opening of spring. The Relief Society is arranging to hold a big bazaar and supper for three evenings next week, and it is hoped that they can at least raise $1,000. The TRANSCRIPT wants the people of the county to feel that we are one great big community, all pulling together for the establishment of an institution that will prove a blessing to suffering humanity. We confess that our public pride is touched in this matter. When we read in the Easton papers that the citizens of that wide-awake town are preparing to raise $40,000 to build a larger and more convenient hospital than they have at present, we felt that it would be a reflection upon the public spirit of our community to balk at the establishment of a Hospital and Old People's Home here. So let everybody in the county feel a personal interest in the matter. Let's get busy and help the Relief Society to raise the necessary funds and it will not be many months before the institution will be established. The Relief Society has over 100 members at present, each of whom is deeply interested in the success of the work they have undertaken, and the TRANSCRIPT is going to help all it knows how to do, because we know the blessing such an institution will be to our beloved old folks and invalids.

DANGER OF PAMPERING COWS.

A writer in the Pennsylvania Farmer has the following article, which in view of the greatly increased interest in dairy cattle in Kent county, may prove interesting:

"An enemy of improved dairy cattle is the man whose zeal and enthusiasm causes him to overdo his duty toward his stock. When animals get so highly devoloped and delicately organized that sunshine and outdoor life is denied them, disease and degeneration are sure to overtake them. Extremes are to be avoided. Neither the hot house nor the stormy outdoors in cold weather is a fit place for healthy stock. In recent years the tendency has been decidedly toward too much stable life for dairy animals. There is imperative need of a change which shall use the sun, air, grass and outdoor exercise in securing and maintaining that superb vigor which immunizes animals against disease.

"It is well enough to assist nature in caring for stock, but in his misguided zeal the dairyman too often sets nature's ways aside. Modern barns are as a rule too close, too warm and too 'comfortable.' Inadequate ventilation is a common fault, inaccessibility of light and sunshine an equally serious one. Animals that are kept closely confined is such warm, stuffy barns will inevitably decline in vigor and the power to transmit constitutio... strength to their progeny.

"Many who advocate the close st... ling will accuse the writer of here... yet I have the courage of my conv... tions backed up by experience and clo... observation among the better class ... dairymen, and it is my judgment th... the greatest need of the dairy busines... both from a productive and a repr... ductive standpoint, is a more common ... sense method of herd handling. 'On... swallow does not make a summer.' Neither does one year's results estab... lish a fact. If we are working for on... season's results alone, the more quie... we keep the cows the greater will b... the profits. I do not claim that cow... giving milk need much exercise. Th... cow, in her natural state, if she ha... plenty in food, eats, drinks and lie... down in order that she may complet... her further work of digestion.

"Every thoughtful student of phys... ology and hygiene understands the ben... eficial effects of pure air and a bath in the health-giving sunshine. Fresh air purifies the blood, and the purer the air taken into the lungs the more thorough and complete will be the purification. Cows are not so much unlike human beings after all. Give them a light, warm and properly ventilated stable and plenty of fresh air and outdoor exercise on pleasant days, and feed them a proper diet and they will be healthy and immune from the diseases so common among dairy herds."

WHISKEY AT THE ALMSHOUSE.

MESSRS. EDITORS: Naturally remarks under the heading of "Whiskey at the Almshouse" reflect on the trustees. As we are totally responsible for the doings at that institution, I take this means of letting the public know that my conscience is clear so far as whiskey is concerned. I have frequently agitated doing away it, and at the November meeting I said that I would flatly refuse to sign another warrant for whiskey. Furthermore, I am heartily in accord with any suggestions to the interest of tax-payers, as I am serving strictly in their interest.

An "Everybody-go-to-Church Day" has been inaugurated in Wilmington, Del., which gives every indication of success. It would be a splendid idea to inaugurate such a day in Chestertown. Just suppose that for one Sunday at least that everybody in Chestertown, white and colored, attended church. What a beautiful sight it would be. Let's try it. Probably if you go once, you would like to go again.

Rev. I. G. Fosnocht, aged 65, one of the oldest ministers in the Wilmington M. E. Conference, died at his home in Smyrna, on Wednesday. Mr. Fosnocht was stationed at Millington last year when his health failed, and he was compelled to relinquish his duties and remove to Smyrna. He leaves a widow and one grown son.

The farmers train will be at Massey on Monday morning at 8.15. It is loaded with good advice to the farmers. Any one may go up on the morning train, hear the lectures and return in time for dinner.
