U.S. Vatican Ambassador Opposed by Church Heads

WASHINGTON

Leaders of the National Fraternal Council of Churches, USA, Inc., went on record here recently at a special meeting at its headquarters, 318 Third St., S.W., as opposing the appointment of a United States ambassador to the Vatican.

The churchmen held that sending an official representative of this government to the seat of the Roman Catholic Church in Rome would violate the principle of separation of church and State.

The Rt. Rev. William J. Walls, of Chicago, bishop of the AME Zion Church, president of the council, presided at the meeting which was attended by prominent churchmen.

Highlighting the day-long session was the launching of a nation-wide membership campaign under the direction of the Rev. George W. Lucas, of Dayton, Ohio, executive secretary.

Dr. J. M. Bracy, chairman of the executive board, heads the campaign, assisted by Mrs. Bertie Derrick of Washington, associate director, Washington Bureau, and secretary, and the Rev. R. W. Coleman of New Orleans.

Another special committee meeting will be called during October. Bishop Walls announced, to plan for the annual meeting next January.

Questions and suggestions as to ways and means of carrying out the program of the general church were discussed, the churchmen reaffirming their faith in a combined leadership to execute the council's program.

A luncheon was served by Mrs. Sarah L. Thomas, chairman of the Washington hospitality committee of the women's department of the council; the Rev. John Z. Horton, secretary of the Baptist Ministers Conference, and Mrs. Derrick.

Among those present were:

Dr. W. H. Jernigan, chairman, Washington bureau of communication consultant; Dr. J. H. Jones, Methodist, treasurer; Dr. J. F. Wardell, secretary, Washington bureau; Mrs. Dr. Smallwood E. Williams, assistant secretary; Dr. S. Douglas Greer; Dr. John S. Williams, Newport News, Va., pianist, National Baptist Convention; Dr. L. Q. Brown, presiding elder, CME Church, Washington; Dr. Frank M. Reid, pastor, AME Church, Washington; Dr. William H. Borders, president, Georgia State Convention, Atlanta.

Dr. J. Clement Hoggard, AME Zion Church, Yonkers, N.Y.; the Rev. James Wacter, AME Zion Church, NYC; Dr. Frank Townsend, secretary, Sunday School Publishing Board, Nashville, Tenn.; Dr. Franklin Walker, president, Ohio State Convention, Cincinnati.

Dr. C. T. Murray, assistant chairman, Washington Commission, and council vice-president; Dr. J. H. Rudolph, president, Baptist Ministers Conference.

Night Schools Offer Adult Trade Courses

Registration for courses planned to meet the needs of men and women desiring to acquire a trade will be held at local Vocational Evening Schools next Wednesday and Thursday.

Suit for $1500 Filed Against Finance Co.

WASHINGTON

A damage suit for $1500 was filed in District Court last week by George E. Taylor, of 2321 15th St. S.E., against the Metro Finance Co., Inc., 13th and K Sts. N.W.

The complaint, through his attorney, Foster Wood, alleges that he purchased an automobile and had it financed through the company.

He complains the company on May 3 last called his residence and informed his landlady that he was in arrears in his payments, and the car was seized the next day.

Mr. Taylor denies that he was in arrears in his payments on May 3 and contends that he had made all previous payments on time.

853rd Om. Unit Co. to Leave for Training

The 853rd Quartermaster Service Company, an organized reserve unit which assumed active duty on Sept. 11, will leave on or about Sept. 25, for an undisclosed training center.

Initially alerted for active duty, the company is commanded by Capt. Samuel T. Daniels, who was promoted to his present rank two days before the unit assumed duty.

Roughly 80 percent of the men in the outfit are veterans of World War II, many of them having seen action on overseas fields of duty.

Captain Daniels, a teacher at School No. 117, is married to the former Miss Gladys Wise, who also teaches school. They have a three-year-old son, Samuel Jr.
