PERRY—MCFEELY.

Miss Frances Louise, daughter of Mrs. Frances Spencer McFeely and the late William Harper McFeely, became the bride of John Wilkinson Perry, son of John Mackey Perry, of Readbourne, near Centreville, in St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, Centreville, at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening, the Rev. A. B. Conger, the rector, performing the ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her elder brother, William James McFeely, a member of the Baltimore bar. She was attended by Mrs. M. Worthington Bordley, her sister and a bride of a few months, as matron of honor. The groom was attended by Julian Edgar Bryan of Baltimore, as best man, and the ushers were: Philemon B. H. McFeely, brother of the bride, and M. Worthington Bordley and William McKenney, Jr., all of Centreville; Louis E. Skinner, of Swarthmore, Pa.; S. Scott Beck and Allan G. Harris, of Chestertown. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Perry left by automobile for Wilmington to start on a lenghty tour through the North and South. Mr. and Mrs. Perry will reside at Spring Garden, the home of the Perry family for four generations.

The Reverened and Mrs. Thomas O. Crouse, of Baltimore, announce the engagement of their daughter, Charlotte Hammond, to Mr. Henry Stuart Wells. Mr. Wells is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bier Wells, of Linden avenue. The wedding is expected to take place early in the new year.

Advertises for Husband.

Encouraged by the matrimonial advertising activities of Frederick county folks who seek life partners, a Queen Anne's county widow has started a publicity campaign for a husband. Her advertisement reads as follows:

"Husband Wanted—Widow, 35 years old, good housekeeper, would marry sober, industrious man of good moral habits who will furnish a good home. A middle-aged, good-looking man of mild temper preferred. In the event the gentlemenn is not seeking matrimony, would take position as housekeeper for farmer. Lady is goodlooking, industrious and would make a willing and enthusiastic mate.

The wi... y said: "I want a man to help me face the world. I've had two husbands and two happy homes and ...tired of single blessing." The w... stated that she had advertised for a husband once before, but none of the 40 applicants pleased her fancy.

To Market and Back

with the same load is often the fate of the farmer without telephone service. When he takes a load into town he runs the risk of having to sell at a low price or haul it back.

With a telephone on the farm, he can secure prices and make the sale before starting.

The telephone has saved the farmers in your section many useless trips to town.

Why not let it do the same for you?
