A. H. Covey wants 20,000 pounds of dry-picked turkeys for Christmas. He is paying the highest market price for them.

The farmers have been receiving from $1.70 to $1.85 per 100 lbs. for milk according to grade during the month at the milk stations.

The stores of the town look especially attractive in their Christmas decorations and the supply of articles is larger and more varied than ever.

Mr. George Peacock bagged 11 partridges and 3 rabbits in one afternoon this week. Pretty good sport for one afternoon, hey?

Marshall Farnan has advised all ladies coming to Baltimore for shopping during the Christmas rush not to wear their money in their stockings.

The new hot air heating system just installed in the Lyceum Theatre, is giving complete satisfaction. The system was installed by Lofland & Culp.

The Johns Hopkins Glee Club, of Ba[illegible] will give an entertainment in [illegible] on Monday evening, Dec. 2[illegible]

The State Grange will meet in Baltimore next week. Quite a number of Grangers from Kent and Queen Annes will attend.

Contractor Frank E. Duyer and force are erecting a new freight house on Quaker Neck wharf to replace the one blown over in the river some months ago.

The creditors of Charles W. Copper, who recently closed out his meat and provision business here, will be paid at the rate of 25 cents on the dollar on their claims.

Prominent residents of Dorchester county will organize an agricultural fair association with a capital stock of $20,000, of which $8,500 has already been subscribed.

Messrs. John H. Moffett and Charles C. Ivens, of Worton were among the exhibitors at the Dover, Del., Poultry Show this week. Mr. Moffett got first prize and Mr. Ivens second.

Do not forget to attend the entertainment to be given by the pupils of the High School in the assembly hall next Wednesday evening. It will be worth patronizing.

Mr. Rumsey Anthony is having a large new hothouse, 16x80 feet erected on his farm near Chester bridge, to provide for his greatly increasing trucking business.

Mr. R. Thompson, who was injured sometime ago in Baltimore in a street car, has been in Baltimore during the week regarding a suit for damages against the company.

The drawing for prizes at Graham & Clements' hardware store will take place next Saturday afternoon. Look over your list of tickets and get familiar with the numbers.

The residence of the late John N. Dodd, which was offered at public sale by Lewin W. Wickes, attorney, last Tuesday, was withdrawn because of an insufficient bid.

Hope H. Barroll, Esq., and Mr. W. B. Copper, cashier, have been in Baltimore this week, on the trial of a case in which the Third National Bank of Chestertown is interested.

Mrs. Harry R. Graham pulled five beautiful cream roses from a bush in her flower yard on Thursday, Dec. 11th. The flowers were perfect in every respect, which is a most unusual thing for roses, especially as they had been exposed to freezing weather for several nights.

Real Estate Broker J. Waters Russell, has sold for Mrs. Myra Maslin, her property in Edesville to Miss Anna Jewell.

J. J. Gibbons, of Baltimore, has purchased the site of the Blue Mountain House, which was destroyed by fire during the summer, and will erect a handsome concrete block hotel thereon.

Mr. Willard Thomson, general manager of the Md., Del. & Va. Railway Company, has been elected a director of the Rivers and Harbors Congress from Maryland. This is quite an honor for Maryland.

Mr. John Hadaway has removed to the house corner Kent and Cannon streets, formerly occupied by Mr. James Thompson and wife. The residence on Mill street from which Mr. Hadaway and family removed, is for rent for 1914.

Mr. Frank Jarman has received his contract from Manager Jack Dunn, of the Baltimore International League team to pitch for the Orioles in 1914. Frank was a member of the team last year, and he will make Dunn a most valuable slab artist.

Owing to the high wind on Monday, the tide in the Chesapeake Bay and tributaries was said to be the lowest in 25 years. Many vessels were stranded on the shoals and steamers for river routes put back into Baltimore harbor with their cargoes in their holds.

Mrs. Wm. C. Peregory held the lucky number which drew the fine big fruit cake in Firemen's Hall. The Dorcas Society of Emmanuel P. E. Church very generously donated all the fancy articles not sold at their recent doll fair, which was greatly appreciated by the Relief Society.

Mr. John Moffett, of Worton, took his fine mare, Arliss, to the Old Glory sale in Madison Square Garden, New York, Nov. 23rd and 24th, and sold her to a Mr. Williams for $400. Mr. Williams took the mare to Berlin, Germany, where he will use her for breeding purposes. Arliss is one of the finest bred mares in the country.

Mr. Prince, next door to Mr. Rote's jewelry store, has a unique weather prophet, which came from Germany. The affair consists of a small house and two mechanical figures. When it predicts rain, a man with umbrella comes out (?); when clear weather is coming, a woman with umbrella comes out (?)

A well-known Kent county lady lost her pocketbook containing $45 in a store in Baltimore one day last week. The lady laid the pocketbook on the counter and went to another part of the store for something, when she returned the pocketbook was gone. She had to borrow a dollar to pay her fare home.

Congressman J. Harry Covington on Tuesday introduced a bill appropriating $2,500,000 to purchase the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal and convert it into a free deep water canal. A similar bill introduced by Congressman J. Hampton Moore, of Pennsylvania, failed of passage at the recent session of Congress.

Mr. Isaac Gibbs, Jr., Kent county road engineer, and Mr. W. Irving Walker, of Queen Annes, and Mr. Schnepfe, that county's road engineer, have been attending the annual convention of the American Road Builders Association in Philadelphia this week as delegates from Maryland, appointed by Governor Goldsborough.

Now is the time to get in your purchases from the handsome Christmas display which the big store is offering. Splendid assortment and big inducements.

The postoffice authorities caution all patrons against placing Christmas stamps or other stamps or stickers other than postage stamps on the address side of mail matter, as such matter is thereby rendered unmailable. Patrons are also cautioned to see that all parcels are securely wrapped, plainly addressed, and that they bear the name and address of the sender.

The heavy wind of Monday did some damage to telephone wires in the town and county, blew fodder from fodder rick, shutters from houses and blew several small boats in Rock Hall harbor ashore. There was no boat at Tolchester, and the Ford had a rough passage over Swan Point. One of our prominent insurance men became deathly seasick when the steamer round-to to go into Rock Hall.

The price of eggs is gradually declining. The supply of cold storage eggs is coming on the market gradually, which accounts for the slump. So don't be too eager to censure the cold storage man. He buys your eggs in May, June and July, and keeps the demand active, and he puts the eggs on the market at a time when they are scarce and high in order to bring the price within your means to buy.

While Messrs. Hugh McKlosky and Walter H. Hadaway were enroute from County Commissioner John Wood's shore to Love Point in Mr. McKlosky's launch to enable Mr. Hadaway's son, John, to catch the boat for Baltimore last Sunday afternoon, the launch stopped within ten minutes run of the wharf and Mr. Hadaway got left. Upon examination it was found that someone had taken the fire plugs from the engine and replaced them with old ones that were no good.

Old Kris and his children will be in Chestertown on Tuesday on the 11 A. M. train and will distribute to the children absolutely free 1,500 packages of candy, nuts, oranges, fruit and toys. Come on, boys and girls, here is your chance.

IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of my dear husband, E. A. Moffett, and daughter, Bessie, who died 13 years ago today, Dec. 6th, 1900.

The month of December once more is here,
To me the saddest of all the year,
Because it took from me away
My dear husband and daughter,
Thirteen years ago today.
In heaven they are waiting for me to come,
When life's toils are ended
And God says well done.

WIFE AND MOTHER.
