Chest, YMCA Pleas Made at Clerics' First Session

The speeches of civic officers and a rousing sermon by the Rev. B. J. LaGrange of St. Mark's Methodist Church in Glen Burnie, highlighted the season's first meeting of the Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance Thursday afternoon at the Pennsylvania Ave. AMEZ Church.

W. H. Kindle, executive secretary of the Druid Hill YMCA, outlined the Community Chest and YMCA membership drives.

He told the alliance that the Community Chest goal for this year is $2,127,000, and invited all ministers to become general members of the YMCA.

Better Race Relations Plan

Dr. George Murphy, a trustee of the Community Chest, appealed to the ministers to promote better relationships between the races by making citizens understand that by supporting the Community Chest they help themselves.

The alliance also was briefly addressed by the Rev. Leslie Weber, chaplain at Spring Grove Mental Hospital, who appealed to the group not to neglect the sick in State mental institutions.

Living in Hate Age

In his address to the group, the Rev. Mr. LaGrange reminded them that:

"We are living in an age when everybody is teaching everybody else to hate somebody. War in Korea will not cure the evils of our age—man must get his heart set with God."

The Rev. H. J. Bryant of Bethel AME Church presided over the meeting and the Rev. John Hammond of Mt. Pisgah CME Church, was the secretary.

Mrs. Ida Franklin led the group in singing.
