Union, Sunday school 1.30 P. M.; preaching at 2.30.

Our Uptown Merchants.

The TRANSCRIPT is going to give our uptown merchants this little Christmas gift. They don't advertise their business but they show their friendship in many other ways to the paper and we are very glad to throw this "crumb" in their way. They ought to advertise, not only for the sake of their own business, but for the general benefit of the community, because every one of them carries a large and varied stock, and they always sell at reasonable prices.

Have you seen Wm. C. A. Thompson's Christmas display? He carries a full line of all kinds of toys, as well as Christmas confections, fruits, nuts, etc., and also dry goods, boots, shoes and provisions. He will attend promptly to all orders and give you quick service.

E. E. Hudson has a splendid assortment of good things for Christmas, as have also Wm. E. Ringgold, Mrs. Blyman and Mrs. Horn, and when it comes to meats, poultry, sausage, etc., Hadaway Bros. carry a full line. Then there is Messrs. J. Polk DeCorse with a general line of staple merchandise and Owen B. Crow, whose fine toy display always attracts a large trade, and his varied stock of provisions and dry goods is always full and complete. And if you want your home to look pretty inside or out Needles Bros. can do the work to your taste.

If you want to give a fine set of harness, lap robe, blankets or sleigh bells for a Christmas present, you can get them at Walter T. Bramble's big harness store. He has a splendid assortment, and also all kinds of poultry feed and remedies.

Frank D. O'Leary, the Queen street merchant, has a splendid assortment of Christmas confections, fruits, novelties etc., besides provisions of all kinds. See Leary for the substantials.

Mueller, the Court street merchant, is headquarters for Christmas toys of all descriptions. He says they are good and cheap, and there are some funny ones there too. See him.

If you want fine candies, fruits, nuts, grapes, etc., as well as cigars and tobacco, pipes, [illegible] etc., go to [illegible]'s. He has [illegible] fine assortment. Lewis [illegible] on Cross [illegible] beefsteak [illegible] morning. [illegible] "Uncle [illegible] patronage.

Importance of Healthy Kidneys

Chestertown Readers Should Learn to Keep Their Kidneys Well.

The kidneys have a big work to do. All the blood in the body is coursing through the kidneys constantly to be freed of poisonous matter. It is a heavy enough task when the kidneys are well, but a cold, chill, fever or some thoughtless exposure is likely to irritate, inflame and congest the kidneys and interrupt the purifying work.

Then the aching frequently begins and is often accompanied by some irregularity of the urine—too frequent passages, sediment or retention. Thousands testify to the wonderful merit of Doan's Kidney Pills, a remedy for the kidneys only, that has been used in kidney troubles 50 years. You will make no mistake in following this Chestertown citizen's advice.

Mrs. A. A. Sparks, High St., Chestertown, Md., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and they have given highly satisfactory results. I strongly recommend this remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
