Floyd Bivens Wins In Marine Tourney

PARRIS ISLAND S.C.—Marine Private Floyd Bivens, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bivens, 713 Roundview Road, Baltimore, Md., fighting in the 1950 Parris Island boxing tournament here Saturday, scored one of the knockout highlights of the evening's program.

Matched with Pvt. John Peterson of Donbo, Pa., the Baltimore lad was the winner of his bout by one of the most amazing knockouts ever witnessed in the squared ring here when he punched his opponent practically out on his feet during the first two rounds of their bout.

Groggily answering the bell for the third round, Peterson collapsed after 53 seconds without Bivens landing another blow.

A graduate of Douglass High School, Private Bivens enlisted in the Marine Corps at Baltimore Corps Recruit Depot.

August 29, 1950, for a period of three years. He is receiving his basic training here at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot.

Clippers Trip Md. Aces, Play Pioneers on Sunday

Quarterback Hank Hollaway scoring a pair of touchdowns and passing for two scores, paced the 46er Clippers to a 30-0 victory over Maryland Aces Sunday night before 500 fans at Prince Georges Stadium, Md.

With the Clippers having stalled on the Aces's 12 5 and 10-yard stripes in the first period, Hollaway led a brilliant offense in the second quarter. He tossed 16 yards to former Armstrong end, James Bassett, who went all the way, and a 30-yard pass completion, Midway the same quarter. It was Hollaway bootlegging it 65 yards for the second score around the Aces' left end.

The Aces, Hymie Noone and George Miller made short gains through the 46ers line, but lacked a sustained drive. As halfback Ronald Atkins, former Armstrong star, was injured in the final session.

2 Clippers Injured

First-sided, Edward Iser, after having made one gain of 25 yards, called back, slipped around the Aces' left end for 65 yards and a touchdown. Hollaway completed a 30-yard toss to Paul Watson for a TD, and then passed 15 for the final score, ended faithful.

Aces were numerous in the stir as Earl Telfair, Clippers's halfback, left the game with a pulled muscle, and Hymie Noone with a head injury.

The Clippers outgaining the Aces on the ground and in the air, rolled up 432 and 155, respectively to 85 and 50, respectively for the latter eleven. On the otherhand the Clippers more rougher drew 165 yards in penalties to 10 for the Aces.

The undefeated Clippers will make—their third start against the Pioneers, Sunday, on the Ellipse, beginning at 2 p.m.

Honeychile May Fight Graziano

PHILADELPHIA

Clarence (Honeychile) Johnson, local welterweight, is among the fighters being considered as a possible opponent for Rocky Graziano, former middleweight champion, in the windup of a boxing show at Convention Hall on Monday night, Nov. 13.

Promoter Herman (Muggsy) Taylor, who is returning to the fight game after a three-year layoff, said the manager of the hard-hitting New York Italian has given him "blanket authority" to match Graziano with the "most suitable opponent."

AFRO Official Takes Part In Ceremony

The Division of Amateur Sports of the Bureau of Recreation, honored a Sports Award Night for members of sports last Friday, at Chuck Webb Memorial Center.

One hundred team representatives attended the ceremonies to applaud the awarding of thirteen trophies and 150 certificates to municipal sports champions in softball and baseball.

S. Edward Smith, former Wisconsin University and Big Ten hurdle star and holder of several speed records, and present personnel and public relations manager of the AFRO-AMERICAN Newspapers, who was guest speaker, delivered an inspirational talk on opportunities in sports. Mr. Smith emphasized the need for wide participation in organized sports not only because of its character building values but also because of its expanding economic values.
