Blow, Arrest Follow as Couple Meets

When an estranged couple met outside of a baby doctor's office, Wednesday, to keep an appointment, the net results were a punch in the mouth for the wife and the arrest of the husband.

The husband, Richard Evans, 28, of the 2000 block of N. Carrollton Ave., told Magistrate Thomas L. Fitzpatrick in Northwestern police court, Friday, that he must have "lost my head," during an argument with his wife.

The doctor testified that the wife, Mrs. Alice Evans of the 400 block E. 22nd St., rushed into his office, pursued by her husband, who struck her.

Reminding Mr. Evans that he would not tolerate a second beating Magistrate Fitzpatrick levied a $1 suspended fine.
