'Touch' Football Leagues Open In East Baltimore

The two-hand touch football season for the Intermediate League in East Baltimore got under way last week at P. S. 139, and the Junior League victory were marked the official opening of the Junior and Intermediate leagues.

In the Junior League the Warriors, the Bond Bombers defeated the 49ers, 19-6, on three touchdown passes from quarterbacks Paul Roberts and the Bugged Sters, the Sopersets defeated the Eastsiders and the Dare devils are listed. The five games, on the receiving end of two of Intermediate League teams are the Steelers, the Toppers, the Wolves, the third.

On Tuesday, the Bond Bombers met the Sunshowers and the Old Town Ramblers. The losers' lone score came after a blocked punt was recovered in the opening contest, the Top- in the end zone by Joseph Batson.

In the Senior League the Warriors, the Bugged Sters, the Sopersets and the Junior League victory were Paul Roberts, Vincent Reed, Alfred Graves, Robert Taylor, Sam Miller, Rupert Corry, Jerry Williams, Oliver Pitts, Clyde Marshall, Robert Hawkins, Paul Roberts, Vincent Reed, John Taylor
