Doorman at N.Y.'s Town Hall Dies

NEW YORK — Walter L. Kenney, doorman, stage attendant and ticket taker at Town Hall for the past 30 years, died Oct. 20 in Paulsboro, N.J.

Known by thousands of lecture and concert performers, he was honored Nov. 20, 1945 for having served for 25 years. At a benefit staged for his benefit he was presented flowers, gifts and money from many of the patrons.

These things were presented to him by George V. Denny Jr., president of Town Hall, on the stage of the hall.

Mr. Kenney often boasted that he had put the first key in the door at Town Hall in 1921. Among his survivors are:

His wife, Mrs. Senia Kenney of New Jersey; two sisters, Mrs. Annie W. White of Baltimore, and Mrs. Alice Jones of Virginia; a number of newhews including Dr. O. G. Walker of Baltimore, and relatives in Washington, New York and Pennsylvania.

Among the prominent persons attending his rites were Mr. Denny, Miss Dorothy Dickhart, concert manager; Elmer Carter, sole colored member of the Board of Directors of Town Hall, and members of the Trustee Board.

Funds Needed Now for NAACP's Office

NEW YORK, — An emergency appeal for funds to assist the NAACP's national office in meeting its present financial crisis was made last week to all Branches by Walter White, executive secretary. "We are faced with a dangerous operating deficit," Mr. White declared, "which threatens seriously the effectiveness of the whole national program. Implementation of the recent Supreme Court anti-segregation decisions is being impaired because of a lack of funds."

PINOCHLE SIX — Mrs. Lavinia Wallace of 2808 Denham Circle entertained the club, this week. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Tilghman, 440 Roundview Road.

Gadabouting in Baltimore
Classic, Dances, Confabs Perk Up Town's Calendar
By Lula Jones Garrett

The top drawer set will surely be out on the town tonight, and from the state of the social calendar, for the many nights to come.

The National Sorority of Chi Eta Phi, holding its fifth annual bowl here, over the week end, will get off to a fine start with Gamma chapter hosting at an "autumn ball" at Elks' Auditorium on this (Friday) evening. The Ladies of Today's barn dance will be in session at Odd Fellows' Hall the same evening; and the Silhouettes will hold forth at Morgan Hall.

ALA BONA FINITUM

Five members of this town's Beta Finitimi Club dashed 270 miles to Williamston, N.C., over the week end to out-number the parent hosts at the swank party given by Mrs. Clara Owens, school marm.

Mrs. Owens entertained her guests at canasta, pinochle, and cocktails on the eve of the general meeting which was held on Saturday.

Incidentally, this group of business and professional women have the worthy project of providing shoes for children of needy families.

Baltimoreans joining others in N.C. were French Roberts, Bernice Spruill, Beatrice Shockley, Marguerite Chamberlain and Margaret Hite.

GUARDSMEN DISCUSS CONCLAVE

On Sunday the Baltimore Guardsmen held forth at Ruth Haven on Marley Creek in Glenburnie for their wives.

Taking advantage of the warm October weather, the afternoon was spent boating, chatting and grilling an endless number of hamburgers and hot dogs on the outdoor grill.

The ladies of the party were dressed in the latest of country clothes and the bright colors seen in blend with the vari-colored foliage of the shrubs and trees which typify Ruth Haven.

As darkness descended, the members of the chapter held an informal business meeting on the lawn, laying plans for the national conclave of Guardsmen to be held in Baltimore during the Thanksgiving week end.

The convalescent guests will be entertained by a round of social events, including a formal dance to be held in the Refectory at Morgan State College and a party to be held at Biddle Hall. Delegates and guests are expected from all along the Atlantic Seaboard. Guardsmen wives have entered into the planning and are sponsoring a social event on the day of the business session. Incidentally, this is the first national conclave to be held since the end of World War II.

PLANS DINNER

The local chapter of the National Vocational Guidance Association is busy with plans for a dinner meeting to be held on Nov. 14th at the YMCA.

Incidentally, local president, Velma McEwen tells me that the group has been asked by the national office to evaluate the Central YMCA as regarding admitting women to be.

ANENT THAT CLASSIC

You MUST know that Baltimore is getting ready for its first charity football classic. And MUST mean, what with the top flight ticket salesmen that the Frontiers Club and their smart little wives have turned out to be.

Pace setter in the ticket selling deal is genial Dr. Maurice Doles, who quietly and quickly let his fellow members know just how close behind him with impressive sales records are Drs. Laurus Butler, Louis Harmon, George McDonald, Miles Conner, also Chorles W. Jones and Charles Covington.

Hear tell that the 50-yard line seats on both the Morgan and Wilberforce sides will be jammed with folks who want to be seen. Others, more football minded, are seeking seats with an eye to seeing the game, the first for collegiate teams in Memorial Stadium.

But what pays up interest in the pre-game goings-on that the club is having in the Stadium Administration building. Dr. Evan A. Gilkes, heading this committee of arrangements, will be assisted by William H. Kindle, Howard Cornish, Ernest Johnson and Charles Jones.

ALUMNI MAKES PLANS

The General Alumni Association of Morgan State College is busy whipping up an enticing home coming program for November 11.

At a social - business meeting held Wednesday in the club room of Dr. Charles B. Campbell, the plans for the day were drafted.

Registration of Alumni will begin at 10 a.m. A conducted tour of activities. Following the game, various school organizations will entertain returning groom alumni. The AKA's will hold forth with their annual homecoming tea. The Omegas will have a smoker in Holmes Lounge, while the Sigmas and Zetas will entertain in the Christian Center. The Deltas will set up in Truth Lounge and the Men's Dormitory Council in Baldwin Hall.

A dance will be sponsored that night by the Student Council. The Kappas will stage an exhibition and social at a place to be designated later.

Dinner will be served at cost in the campus refectory.

Following the business session the group entertained Dr. and Mrs. Martin D. Jenkins at a social. Clarke Davis is president of the organization.

Present at the meeting were: Dr. and Mrs. M. D. Jenkins, Dr. and Mrs. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Edwards, Dr. Greene Spaulding, Dr. Luther Harden, Dean George C. Grant, Miss Nancy Lewis, Mrs. Edith H. Davidson, Frank Ellis, Prof. Howard Cornish, Milton Dugger, Edward N. Wilson, Harris, Wilbert Walker, Mrs. Vivian F. Burnett, Osborne Dixon, Sterling Johnson, Mrs. Genevieve Kaiser, Mrs. Katie M. Carter, Mrs. Rosena Lewis, Frank Owens, Mrs. Susie Clarke, Lemuel Leeper, and Simon Carter.

MORGAN CO-EDS RUSHED

Out on Morgan State College campus the past week-end parties were the order of the day with two of the sororities, Alpha Kappa and Delta Sigma Theta, both holding gay affairs.

Alpha Delta chapter of the former sorority had its party in Morgan Christian Center on Friday, with a flock of souvenirs and refreshments for their guests. The lives (pledgees), abetted by their "big sisters" provided most of the entertainment including a version of "A Naughty Boy," a poem of mixed voices. There was also singing and interpretive dancing.

Alpha Gamma chapter of Delta Sigma Theta's gala affair was also in the Center, and attended by college freshmen, members of the Pyramid Club (pledgees) the college chapter members and a number of members of the graduate chapter, Epsilon Sigma. There were music, canapes, dainty cakes, etc. to enliven the evening.

On Thursday evening a number of relatives and friends of the H. FRISBYS FETED

Russell Frisbys descended on their newly acquired Mosher St. home for a surprise housewarming arranged by his parents the Herbert R. Frisbys, Sr.

The Rev. John T. Colbert, of Grace Presbyterian Church, was on hand to bless the home.

Guest included:

Which Milk is Best for my Baby?
Ask your Doctor about Carnation's extra advantages!
The doctor knows best! And 8 out of 10 mothers who use Carnation Evaporated Milk for infant feeding say, "My doctor recommended it." For Carnation has important advantages over ordinary milk:
1. EASIER TO DIGEST. Carnation is heat-refined, homogenized and completely uniform.
2. DOUBLY SAFE. Carnation is not only pasteurized, but also scientifically sterilized after it's sealed in the can.
3. VITAMIN ENRICHED. Every pint contains 400 units of Vitamin D—the "sunshine" vitamin that helps build strong bones and sound teeth.
Your baby deserves these extra benefits. So ask your doctor about Carnation—the milk every doctor knows!

86 YEARS YOUNG!
MRS. RACHEL CLARK
1251 W. Lafayette Ave.
"I have never in all my life seen such a lovely store where the clothes are so nice and the salespeople so courteous and patient!"
HENDIN'S has received many fine compliments from hundreds of people—but no words have ever pleased us more than these from kindly Mrs. Clark—who visited us for the first time a few weeks ago.
Though 86 years old—her spirit is youthful. She is an ardent worker for the Mt. Pleasant AME Church—and still loves to sew for her family.
Mrs. Clark was for 58 years, the wife of Henry Clark of Owings Mills, Md., who died 10 years ago. Five of her nine children are now living—and among HENDIN'S family of happy customers are several of her grandchildren.

NOW IN CANS!
Cooked . . . Ready to Serve!
Means Odorless Preparation!
No Work . . . No Fuss!
Just Heat and Serve!
CHITTERLING HORS D'OEUVRES
CONTENTS: 1 can each of Krey Chitterlings and Krey Hog Maws. Batter made of 1 egg, 2 tablespoons canned milk, 1 teaspoon paprika, dash of pepper (red) and salt.
Open and drain contents. Cut Chitterlings into small pieces, fold liver and over with fingers until a ball is formed. Pin together with 1 or 2 toothpicks but remove when done. Dip into batter, then flour and fry in deep fat, turning when browned. Drain off grease on a paper towel, arrange on toothpicks as you see here or some attractive idea of your own. Cut the Maws into strips. Batter and fry likewise. Goes best with carrots and celery sticks, deviled eggs, radish roses, parsley for beauty.
CHITTERLING CASSEROLE A LA BARBECUE
CONTENTS: 1 can Krey Chitterlings, 1 can Krey Hog Maws, 6 oz. Barbecue Sauce, 2 cups Hot Potato Salad
Open cans, drain contents. Cut into smaller pieces if desired. Combine and arrange as near around the edge of your two-quart casserole as you can. Make a cup out of a piece of foil (Reynolds Wrap), scallop to make it attractive. Spoon hot potato salad into this. Pour Barbecue Sauce over Chitterlings and Maws, trying not to get any in the salad. Bake in a hot oven, 425°, 35 to 40 minutes. Take out and garnish with parsley and hard-boiled egg slices. Then serve.
CHITTERLING FILLETS
CONTENTS: 1 can of Krey Chitterlings, 1 can of Krey Hog Maws, 2 tablespoons canned milk, dash of cayenne pepper, 1 tablespoon paprika, 1/4 teaspoon salt.
Open 1 can each of Krey Hog Maws and Krey Chitterlings. Drain, cut pieces and fat. Cut into desirable pieces. Dip into batter and roll into bread crumbs or flour and paprika mixture. Then fry until brown. Serve with Cole Slaw, Spaghetti, Egg Muffins—and if you like something "hot" along try Banana Peppers.
Everybody's having "Chittlin' Parties"—they're all fun and no work—with Krey Chitterlings and Krey Hog Maws all cooked and ready to serve—in cans. All you do is heat and serve—it's that easy! Chitterlings are extra delicious cooked the Krey way—to retain all the natural juices. Your first taste will tell you why Krey "Chittlin' Parties" are sweeping the country. Get several cans of Krey Chitterlings and Krey Hog Maws at your grocer's today! The whole family will love them!
