RITUALISTIC CEREMONY:

Church Guild Adopts Mrs. Rachel Taylor

Mrs. Rachel Taylor, dean of Methodist women, and mother of Metropolitan Methodist Church, was adopted by Wesleyan Service Guild No. 1, and the Guild was named for her during ritualistic services at the church recently.

More than 50 years ago, Mrs. Taylor started Women's Day, which is an annual service in all Methodist churches today. She was also the first president of the Stewardess Board.

The Rev. Kelly Jackson read the adoption ceremony, and the honoree was presented a Guild pin by the president, Mrs. Mae Fortune.

Musical Program

A musical program preceded the ceremonies, with Mrs. Dorothy W. Thomas as mistress of ceremonies.

Said Mrs. Thomas:

"We know Mrs. Taylor as aspiless; she fits into every age group in our church, as befits her depth of religion; her time has been devoted to prayer and the church.

Herman Thomas, basso, sang "Without A Song" and "Bless Thy House" "Smilin' Through," the "Lord's Prayer" and "The Rosary" were sung by Marshall Waters, tenor.

Mrs. Anne Wallace, dramatic soprano, sang Marion McCrite and "The City Called Heaven." As a special request, she sang "Let Us Break Bread Together." Mrs. Taylor requested Mr. Thomas to sing "Lord, I've Tired."

In accepting the adoption Mrs Taylor said, "Any honor which has been bestowed on me tonight, I owe to my Maker. I never attempt anything without going to Him in prayer first."

The Guilders who participated in the ceremonies were

NAACP BOARD APPROVES YOUTH GROUP DIRECTOR

NEW YORK. — A constitutional revision providing that one member of the national board of directors from the association's youth councils or college chapters was ratified last week by the board.

AFRO Column Brings Relatives Together

The AFRO's "Looking for Someone" column brought two more relatives together the week Mrs. Penola Whitefield, 2514 Madison Ave., called the office excitedly on Wednesday to say that her husband was the one sought by the Rev. Timothy Farmer of Preston, Md., who had asked the AFRO to locate his cousin, Ned Whitehead, whom he thought was living in Baltimore.

Now the Whiteheads are searching for his only son, Nathaniel, who might be somewhere in Georgia.
