These Baltimoreans Saw Morgan Beat Va. State 1

The victory march of the Morgan State College Bears brought this enthusiastic reaction from John S. Clash. Mr. and Mrs. Solomond G. Rose and Rose Frazier Jr., all of Baltimore who saw their team beat Va. State 14-7 in Petersburg on Thursday.

Seaman Denied Bail in Murder

BEL AIR, Md.—Charged with cutting his attractive wife to death as she drove their car, last Saturday morning, Lloyd James, Jr., merchant seaman, was ordered held without bail for action of the Harford County grand jury, following a police court hearing on Wednesday.

According to testimony at the preliminary hearing the throat of Mrs. Aileene James, 34, was "cut clean through" and "just her backbone was holding the head on the body."

The slaying occurred on Trimble Rd., about a quarter of a mile from the James home at 31 Battle St., Edgewood. State troopers, investigating a report of an automobile in the ditch, found Mrs. James slumped over the wheel of the car.

Tracing the registration of the car, they went to the Battle St. house where they found James asleep, his clothing covered with blood.

Jealousy Believed Motive

Lt. E. W. Reith, commander of the Bel Air State police, said jealousy was the motive for the slaying—The Jameses were returning home after making a round of Baltimore night spots, the lieutenant said.

He described the Jameses as "very intelligent people . . . not the kind you would expect to get involved in a case like this."

Oft and oft my thoughts do wander.
To your grave so far away.

Seven Fined $34 for Littering Back Alleys With Trash, Refuse

Fourteen persons charged with littering back alleys in the Northwestern District with trash and refuse were tried before Magistrate Harry A. Kaufman Tuesday and Thursday in Housing Court.

Co-operating with Sanitation Officer Walter S. Faulkner and Bureau of Sanitation Inspector Frank Grob, Judge Kruger dismissed five defendants who were found innocent of the charges. He gave fines totaling $34 to seven.

Miss Louise Johnson, one of the dismissed defendants, stated that she was just a roomer at 1202 McCulloh St. and was not responsible for the disposal of the trash that was taken from her waste basket daily.

Others blamed trash men, animals, and neighborhood children for scattering trash from their baskets.

Woman Transferred Trash

One white defendant, Mrs. Lillian Ramer, 1622 Bolton St., was fined $5 and costs because she deposited her trash in a colored neighborhood.

Others fined were Mrs. Alberta Thompson, 1202 McCulloh St., $5 and costs (fine was suspended); Mrs. Dorthy Mayete, 1230 McCulloh St., $2 and costs; Miss Anna C. Newton, 1508 McCulloh St., $2 and costs.

Mrs. Ruth B. Smith, 208 Meechen St., $5 and costs (her husband, Silver Smith, was dismissed) Miss Mary Smith, 1415 Madison Ave., was fined $5 and costs; William Zalnek, white, 1622 Futaw Pl., $5 and costs; and Paul Rogers, 309 W. Lanvale St., $5 and costs.

Those Dismissed Lists Filed

Those dismissed were Miss Johnson, Raymond and Florence Carpenter, 1229 Druid Hill Ave.; Ruben Frederick, 1401 McCulloh St. and Mr. Smith.

Mrs. Cora Jefferson, 1230 McCulloh St., did not appear; and a warrant for her arrest is being issued. Mrs. Grace Murray, 1432 McCulloh St., was released on collateral for appearance next Tuesday.

In Memoriams 1

WALLACE—In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Raymond, who departed this life December 2, 1949.

A light is from our household gone.
A voice we loved is stilled.
A place is vacant in our home.
Which never can be filled.
Sweet is the memory of our forgotten.
Though on earth you are no more.
But in memory you are with us.
As you always were before.
MRS. JOSEPHINE WALLACE and DAUGHTERS
