LOCAL MATTERS

Postponed Sale.—The sale of Mr. John Piser's personalty has been postponed until Friday next, February 27th. The property is on the "Draper Farm," two and one-half miles west of Middletown.

Fractured His Hip.—Mr. Henry C. Chase, a former well-known and prominent resident of Chestertown, but now holding a lucrative position in the Public Library, Washington, D. C., fell on the icy pavement of the Capitol City last week, fracturing his hip. His many friends here regret exceedingly to hear of the accident, and trust that he may soon be well.

Can't Chestertown Do the Same?—The Havre de Grace Republican says: "General Murray Vandiver headed a delegation before Ways and Means Committee, this week, asking that $10,000 for maintenance, and $3,000 for building be appropriated for the Havre de Grace Hospital." Can't the influential people of Chestertown do the same thing? Senator Beck is a member of the Senate Finance Committee, and Mr. Howard Turner is a member of the Ways and Means Committee of the House. If Chestertown ever had a better opportunity to get an appropriation for a hospital, we scarcely know when it was.

Amusements.

The sensational rural comedy drama, "Joshua Simpkins," will be produced at Lyceum Theatre, Chestertown, Tuesday, Feb. 24. The play contains an interesting and intelligible plot, but it is not allowed to interfere with the fun, which is said to be in abundance. During the run of the play some startling scenes and situations are seen, the principal of which is said to be the sawmill in the third act, shown in complete operation, cutting up real timber. The saw used is the genuine article, the same as usually seen in large country sawmills. The play abounds in good bright comedy and many splendid specialties are introduced.

The last entertainment in the series of delightful winter Chautauqua entertainments given under the anspices of the Federated Club will be given this evening in Firemen's Hall at 8 o'clock. Mr. Gilbert Eldridge, one of the finest impersonators on the American stage will be the attraction.

A musical comedy will be rendered in the Lyceum Theatre next Thursday evening by local talent for the benefit of missionaries. The cause is a worthy one and deserves patronage.

¶Mr. Rumsey Anthony, the popular Queen Annes trucker, has been quite successful during the past year in growing cabbage seed for New York planters. On a very small tillage last year Mr. Anthony cleared $156. He will grow an acre for the same firm this year.

¶Mr. Marcus Asher was acquitted on the charge of giving a drink of whiskey to a man by the name of Meekins in his place of business, before Justice Kendall yesterday. The testimony showed that Meekins was annoying Mr. Asher, and in order to get rid of him he gave him a drink of vinegar.

¶The stable and outbuildings on the James Lee farm near Barclay, Queen Annes county, were destroyed by fire together with their contents about seven o'clock on Tuesday evening. The reflection was plainly visible in Chestertown. Mr. Lee formerly owned the farm adjoining the lands of Mr. Wm. S.
