Beauty Culturist Unit Endorses Greenfield

William Greenfield, candidate for the City Council from the Fourth District, received the endorsement of the Beauty Culturists week.

W. C. Flippen, public relations director, said Mr. Greenfield is the only Fourth District candidate the group will support in Tuesday's primary elections.

Mr. Greenfield, an attorney, was Gubernatorial campaign last summer, and is at present magistrate of the Northern police court.

He is also supporting Walter J. Dewees, former Northwestern police station magistrate,

Mrs. Warsoma's Will Cites Beneficiary for Every Item

A will, written in ink and on ordinary letterhead, disposing of her possessions down to the last dress, was left by Mrs. Martha Warsoma and probated in Orphans Court, this week.

The document was dated Oct. 18 1950; and witnessed by Misses Louise Washington and Elizabeth A. Jordan. Mrs. Warsoma, a former city

Sisters to Inherit

Mrs. Warsoma left her home at 258 Robert St. to her sisters, Mesdames Evelyn B. White and Edna B. Newton, jointly. She said that she preferred that they keep the house and share the income, but that they may sell it if they like.

A $100 death benefit of which Mrs. White was made beneficiary was designated to aid with funeral expenses.

Mrs. Newton also inherited her sister's fur coat, diamond engagement ring and any clothing that she desired. To Mrs. White also went living room furniture, piano, a diamond ring and diamond earrings.

Two other sisters, Mrs. Nannie W. Brown and Mrs. Marion C. Beasley, were given the ground rent on 1118 Proctor St., $200 each, and clothes not selected by Mrs. Newton.

St. James to Benefit

Mrs. Warsoma left $100 to St. James P.E. Church—and ordered that a chancel light be purchased and placed in the church in her memory. Other cash gifts included $200 each to nieces, Miss Edna E. Brown and Miss Blondine Khan and $50 each to Mrs. Evelyn S. Reason and Roderick Hill.

Mrs. Louise E. B. Harris and children, Mrs. Felicia A. Berraud, Mrs. Norma J. Wright and George E. Harris Jr., were given property at 442 W. Biddle St., share and share alike.

Household Wares Distributed

The will distributed household furnishings as follows:

Electric refrigerator, Mrs. Louise B. Harris; six green wine glasses, Miss Emma E. Bright; gold - trimmed cake plate, Miss Edna E. Brown; three gold-trimmed wine glasses, Mrs. Edna Brown; four gold-trimmed luncheon plates, Miss Blondine Khan; Spinet desk, Miss Carrie Taylor; bedroom furniture, Miss E. B. E. B. Harris; two lamps, Miss Norma Wright; remainder of furniture, linens, china to Mrs. China Dean.

Other items of jewelry went to: Miss Elizabeth Jordan, amber necklace; Miss Natalie Plummer, onyx earrings; watch, Miss Norma Wright; pearls, Miss Adelaide Johnson and any remaining jewelry to be divided between Misses Barraud and Khan.

See the camera! It was a gift and it cost plenty, but my snapshots were very disappointing. Couldn't seem to get good focus. Then I began suspecting my eyes, and consulted the optometrist at Kay Jewelers, 7 W. Lexington St. Sure enough, the difficulty was corrected with a pair of new glasses. Now, with this new camera, and corrected vision, I'll really enjoy this camera, because practically every picture is good enough to win a prize!

Two Jailed in Jewel Theft; Gems Gone

Arrested in connection with the theft of $2,000 worth of jewels that never were recovered, two men, this week, were sentenced to two years each in the House of Correction.

Judge Emory Niles withheld sentence temporarily from two others in the case which was cracked by detectives John Johnson and Lt. Clarence German.

The four were rounded up by the officers after a watch taken in the theft was pawned and traced to Eddie Ned, 32, of the 400 block Seagull Ave. The jewels had been taken Feb. 10 from the car of a jewelry salesman that was parked in the 1400 block W. Lafayette Ave.

Those sentenced are Walter Campbor, 20, and David McDowell, 21. Held for later sentence along with Ned is Harry Anderson, 33.

CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN PLANNED BY LEAGUE

"Don't Be a Litter-Bug" is the slogan used by the Women's Civic League, Inc., in its Litter-Bug Campaign, which is connected with the Bureau of Sanitation, hopes to educate the public, in making Baltimore the cleanest city in the nation.

The campaign will start April 10, and will run four weeks. The posters will be found in all public buildings.

All women's clubs and civic organizations have been asked to join in the campaign. Mrs. James W. Foster is chairman.

Money Uproots 3 Marriages

Money, the so-called root of all evil, was the root of the majority of divorce suits in circuit courts, here, this week.

A veteran charged that his wife disappeared with savings he had sent to her while he served abroad; another husband told the court that his wife left with the rent money, and a wife said that her mate hit her on the head with a bottle when she wouldn't give him the money she had worked for that day.

Benjamin Barnes, 811 Whatcoat St., was the ex-service man who said that Mrs. Ellen Barnes left with money he expected her to save while he was in the Army.

They were married on May 6, 1940. He said that he came out of the Army the first of July, 1946. When he asked about the money a first time, he said, Mrs. Barnes told him that she didn't have it with her then. Upon a second inquiry, he said, she left and he has not seen her since.

Wanted Wife's Earnings

Mrs. Amanda R. Thornton of 2100 Waldo Court won a divorce and custody of a 7-year-old daughter from Earl Thornton of 641 E. Monument St.

Mrs. Thornton testified that her husband came in on the morning of Jan. 1, 1948 and demanded the money she had worked for that day. When she wouldn't give it to him he struck her on the head with a bottle, she said. J. Howard Payne was attorney for Mrs. Thornton.

Rent, Wife Missing

Henri Freeland, 1131 N. Fremont Ave., who said that his marriage lasted a mere 6 months from Aug. 6, 1941 to Feb. 13, 1942, added that he knew of no reason why Mrs. Mary V. Freeland should have left him.

All he knew, he said, was that he gave her money to pay rent and when he returned from work she and the rent money were missing.

THE WINNING TEAM

THOS. D'ALESANDRO, JR. MAYOR

J. NEIL McCARDELL CITY COMPTROLLER

They Gave You a Quarter Century of Progress in Four Years!
VOTE FOR THOMAS D'ALESANDRO, JR., FOR MAYOR!
VOTE FOR J. NEIL McCARDELL, FOR COMPTROLLER!
NEXT TUESDAY, MARCH 27
You have a good, business like, progressive administration of the City's Business today! Vote to keep it. Don't take a chance on having the clock of progress set back twenty-five years!
Re-elect Mayor D'Alesandro and Comptroller McCardell. Their administration has given you more than 625 miles of newly paved streets—smoother and cleaner streets than you have ever known before. Their administration has given you the best garbage and trash collection in the history of Baltimore. A housing program that has been acclaimed as a model for the nation—the famous "Baltimore Plan."
Vote from the record. Re-elect D'Alesandro and McCardell—the men who have given you four years of progressive, business like management in City Hall, and who stand ready to give you the same kind of splendid administration for the next four years.
