NATIONAL & STATE BANKS

ONE of the most vital and important regulations of the National Banking Law is that which controls what is known as the "LEGAL RESERVE." It requires that 15 PER CENT. OF ALL DEPOSITS shall be kept on hand.

The following statement of the deposits of three banks of Chestertown shows what reserves these banks held at the time of their last sworn statement, January 13th, 1914:

	Deposits.	15 % Reserve.	Reserve Held	Per Cent.
Third National	$635,280.85	$95,292.13	$122,542.84	19.20
Chestertown Bank.	409,231.15	61,384.67	33,683.68	8.23
Kent Savings	349,451.40	52,417.71	34,141.27	9.80

After reading the SWORN STATEMENTS published last week, and the above exhibit, which do you think is the STRONGEST and SAFEST bank in which to transact your banking business? The THIRD NATIONAL BANK cannot make as much money for its stockholders by adopting the policy of keeping on hand such a large RESERVE, but we KNOW it is better banking. Over $100,000 on hand with which to meet immediate demands. Think of the above while doing your banking. Your business solicited. Interest paid on all Savings Deposits.

We Have No Borrowed Money, No Bad Debts.

Very respectfully,

THE THIRD NATIONAL BANK

of Chestertown, Md.

COME GET 'EM! DON'T

GO GET 'EM. No occasion to go to the city for reductions in for the INTERNATIONAL TAILORING CO. has instructed me to cut prices on one hundred and sixty good patterns from their large line of Fall and Winter Stock.

Cuts than are cuts, and to the early Spring purchasers, we say: Come look at the magnificent display of All-Wool Imported and Domestic Fabrics now on display. Twenty-five per cent. less than you can obtain same quality and service for. Compare and see.

The Reason? It's the same, no stock to carry, no large rents and general upkeep.

Respectfully,

W. E. Moody,

Authorized Representative of the International Tailoring Co., New York, Chicago and London.

TO KEEP HUSBAND AT HOME NIGHTS.

Mrs. Jesse Hurd admitted to the State's Attorney and Deputy Sheriff James Bolton last Friday afternoon that the alleged attempted assault and robbery at her home on Saturday night, February 7th, was nothing more than a scheme she had devised to keep her husband at home at night. There was a suspicion that there was something of the kind surrounding the case from the first, though rumors had tracked the robber's blood-stained tracks down College avenue and Cannon street to Twilley's lane; the robber's hat had been found in the Hurd home; and a hole had been found in a straw stack on the Jarrell-Wickes farm where the robber had spent the night. It required the services of a Baltimore detective to ferret out the mystery, and as soon as he got to work on the case he told the officers of his suspicions. The blood was sent to Baltimore and found to be chicken blood. As soon as Mrs. Hurd was told that the blood was found to be chicken blood, she admitted to the officers that she had killed a chicken, smeared its blood on the floor and around the premises, went out in a wood shed, got an old hat that originally belonged to one of Mr. Daniel Woodall's boys, all covered with cobwebs and showing no evidences of having been worn for several years, laid it on the table in the room where the alleged attack occurred, and when her husband returned from town about 12 o'clock at night, she showed him the evidences of the attack, and the husband got frightened and notified the police.

In explanation of her action Mrs. Hurd stated that her husband had been in the habit of going to town every night and leaving her alone in the house, and she resorted to a feigned attack in order to frighten him into staying home at night. It was a very slick trick on the part of a defenceless woman, but they say that when the reaction set in upon her husband, he got as mad as a hornet. But it seems to us that when a wife resorts to such unusual methods to keep her husband home at nights, where he ought to be, that the husband should have sufficient regard for the ingenuity of his wife as to stay home.

A Tribute to Mrs. L. M. Corey.

WHEREAS, It hath pleased our Heavenly Father in His unerring wisdom to remove from our midst our beloved sister, Mrs. L.M. Corey, who since the early days of the order of Patrons of Husbandry, was an active member both in county and State. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That Fairlee Grange, No. 249, has lost a worthy and faithful and devoted member; a noble veteran of the order, as she was not only our oldest granger, but was a charter member and zealous worker of old Fairlee Grange, No. 8. Be it also

Resolved, That we declare our appreciation of her influence for good in her self-sacrifice for humanity in her noble principles for temperance and right, and in all phases of her Christian character, and that it was a privilege for having been a granger with her. Be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the near relatives and a copy be sent to each of the county papers and to the State grange paper, and a copy be inscribed on the pages of our minutes.

Respectfully submitted,
LINDA MORRIS,
LENA M. ANDERSON,

SAL-VET.

The great majority of the sickness and fatalities in stock is due to causes arising from indigestion and worms. These enemies are subtle and insistent and are likely to begin their ravages and eat up your profits before you suspect anything is wrong. Therefore, to get the best results, prevention is the thing to be accomplished.

The one remedy which leading stockmen agree is not only a preventive of worms and indigestion, but also a remedy, is SAL-VET, a worm destroyer and stock conditioner, which costs so little, and is so easy to give, that it is rapidly replacing all other remedies everywhere.

It stimulates the appetite and aids digestion. It is an effective tonic and blood builder. It rids the stomach and intestines of worms, and better still, it prevents infection by these parasites. It is put up in handy size packages, and we have them in stock from 10 lbs. to 100 lbs., all sold with the manufacturer's guarantee.

CLOVER SEED.

Nice stock of new seed now here and the prices are in keeping with the times. The price is much less than last year. See our stock before you buy, and perhaps we can save you some money, and we guarantee to give you pure seed.
