Samuel Matthewses Observe Anniversary

With Lula Jones Garrett

By ODESSA WILSON
(Substituting for Mrs. Garrett who is on vacation.)

Elegant affair of the week was the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary celebration of the Samuel Matthewses held at the Odd Fellows Hall here last Sunday evening.

The hall was artistically decorated for the occasion with palm and colorful autumn flowers. The lace-covered gift table, which had as a centerpiece an attractive six-tiered anniversary cake, was literally laden with the oodles and oodles of gifts of silver. Rivers Chambers' band supplied the music.

WEARS WHITE VELVET

Mrs. Matthews, the former Florence Davenport, received her guests in a white velvet off-shoulder gown, matching gloves and a white velvet muff adorned with an orchid.

Receiving with her were Mrs. Gladys Britt, Mrs. Grace Jones, sister of Mr. Matthews whom he hadn't seen for 37 years; Miss Isabelle Brown and the Matthewses' two likeable children, Samuel, Jr. and Barbara.

Farther residents of Wilson Park, Md., and Mrs. Matthews have lived at St. Albans, L.I., since 1945. They conduct a successful restaurant in Jamaica. They were hosted by the Robert O. Thompsons of Wilson Park during their stay here.

Seen among the more than 300 guests were:

The Samuel Dumocks, Milton Morgans, Ernest Berrys, James Foremans, Wm. H. St. Albans, Jr., Johnsons, Summerfield Hessons, Jack Maddens, Oliver Parsons, Frank Wrights, William Diggineses and Frank Robertses.

Miss Marie Williams, Inwood, L. I.; William Smiths, John Ewings Mrs. Julia Turner, Mary Perry and Alice Ewing, all of Washington.

A group of friends got together for a farewell party for Mrs. Blanche W. Pettiford at her Whittier Ave., home recently.

OFF TO CALIFORNIA

She and Warrant Officer Pettiford left by plane for Fort Ord, Calif., where he will be stationed after having served 22 months in Korea. They will roost in Monterey, Calif.

Blanche, who was given beautiful gifts by her friends and guests, snacked and dined with them until the wee, wee hours.

Among the guests were:

Her itinerary also includes a week end in Chicago for a series of conferences with sorority officials there and a meeting in Boston (Nov. 5-10) of the Women's Division of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Housewife Tells Smart Idea

"My idea is this:" says clever Mrs. Edmonia Peguese of 1931 Lombard Street, Philadelphia: "to always insist on Carnation Evaporated Milk when I buy. I never take just any brand I see on my grocer's shelf. Years ago my doctor recommended Carnation — and am glad he did."

Do you think all evaporated milks taste alike? Then do this: taste Carnation just once. Then see what you think!

Once you've tried Carnation, you'll never be satisfied with ordinary brands again. Get Carnation today — and see.

CRAZY ABOUT BASEBALL!

MRS. DORIS BROWN

She teaches Sunday School at the Penna. Avenue AME Zion Church — and she just loves baseball!

"I think I'm almost as 'crazy' about baseball as I am about the beautiful clothes I buy at HENDIN'S" — says Mrs. Brown who lives at 1819 Appleton Street. "Everywhere I go, I get compliments on my clothes and people ask me where do they come from!"

"For instance, the other day I was in a downtown store to buy a hat, and the salesgirl asked me where did I get such a lovely dress? Of course I told her it came from HENDIN'S — because that's the only store where I've been buying everything I wear, except my shoes and hats, for the past three years!"

If YOU will visit HENDIN'S just once — and see the stunning Coats, Suits, Dresses, Sportswear and Accessories we have for this Fall and Winter, you too, like Mrs. Brown, will buy everything you will wear at this outstandingly smart fashion store. And remember, you can always
