HER LUCKY DAY!

Young and attractive Miss Mabel Watkins of 1614 E. Oliver St. says she was indeed my lucky day when I discovered the Lincoln Credit Shoe Store. I had been looking for a store with high style New York Shoes for the Ladies, Jarmans for the Men, and Chapman's for the Kiddies. All these shoes are nationally advertised brands. Best of all, you can open a Charge Account in a few minutes, while you wait, and take the shoes home with you. Payments are $1.00 weekly."

Baltimore Women Off to Good Start on Club Work

With Lulu Jones Garrett

Baltimore women tipped their new fall velvets above their powdered noses, tightened their waistnippers and girded themselves for the perennial battle of running their twenty-one hundred town clubs, here, this week.

The Baltimore Urban League Guild's committee got together, Tuesday night, laid plans for their One-Day Conference for Women Workers.

Samona Nixon, chairman, garnered Ruth Crawford as co-chairman, set Nov. 10th as the date, and the Madison Avenue YWCA as the site.

The conference will have as theme "Crusade for Women in Work and War"; will hold forth in workshops, luncheon and a general meeting, and will show working clothes in the glamour manner for working girls.

WIVES PLAN PARTY

The We Wives, meeting with Adelle Perman on Tuesday night set up plans for a party for their members on Oct. 27. but were chiefly concerned with pitting down new addresses for the Thomas Hawkinses and the Sherlock Bringsons, who have acquired homes in the chic Whitmore Avenue. Hattie Grayson (Mrs. William) has come from St. Albans, N.Y., and a former member of the Wives, was their guest.

LINKS MAINTAIN PROJECT

The Baltimore chapter of the Links met with Audrey Butler on Saturday, and settled upon holding their annual cocktail party.

Funds from the affair are used to maintain their project of contributing to the nursery school at Cherrydale, for children of mothers who serve in test cases to break discrimination in unions.

Guests at their session were Yvette Murphy, Eunice Hall, Verda Welcome and Pauline Watts.

Members about were Theresa Waters, president; Mrs. Butler, Etta Phifer, Mae Adams, Helen Burwell, Beatrice Butler, Florence Gaskins, Lillian Jones, Catherine Adams and Xaveria McDonald.

And come Sunday and the board of directors of the Planned Parenthood Association will hold open house in their new quarters at 1672 W. North Avenue to introduce the community education director, Mrs. Zaidee D. Koger. From 4 to 7 are the hours.

SORORS MEET

Iota Chapter of Lambda Kappa Mu Sorority held its initial meeting of the year Saturday at the YWCA.

Main business of the meeting centered about reports of conclave held in New York city. Delegates reporting were Soors Naomi Johnson and Helen Brown. Next Conclave will be held in Newark, N.J. The theme for the year is "Women in World Crisis."

With the exception of the idmiochus (this office now being held by Soror Dorothy F. Pollard) the other officers will retain their seats for the ensuing year.

Soror Vivian Alleyne, national program chairman, reviewed general program for the year. Soror Marie Streeter Harrison, basileus, presided.

POT-POURRI

Mrs. John H. Murphy, Jr. dashed off to Detroit, Mich., last week, for the wedding of Barbara Steward, Howard medical student, and Dr. Sidney Jenkins. Mr. and Mrs. George S. Howard of Brookville, Montgomery County, Maryland, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary in Howard chapel on Oct. 6, at a reception from 3 to 7 p.m. The Howard family have been farmers in this area for more than a century and a half.

Mrs. William Gargle is recuperating after serious bouts of ill health. Also with the ailing is Dr. James Mosley, dentist, who has been locked in at home since an attack on Friday.

Lottie Johnson dropped wedding preparations (she and Dr. William Moses of Detroit are to be married on Nov. 4) to dash up to New York for the recent Robinson-Turpin fight. Went along with Frances Garvin, the Roger Simpkinses and Dr. Orrin Whitings of Washington.

As proud as can be are the Earl Andersons (Palestine) who have named their new baby Lynn Adell. She arrived at Provident Hospital on Thursday. Weighed in at 5 pounds. Mom and babe are doing fine at the Windsor Avenue home. And Dr. and Mrs. Henry Welcome are staying close to the heartfields. Reason: evening getting thoroughly acquainted with their brand new seven-year-old daughter.

The all-star show, sponsored by Virginia Manning assisted by Miss Lucy Mae Jones of Adams Chapel Lounge, Friday night, went off with a bang. Featured Thad Brown and his orchestra. Benefited the Provident Hospital Fund Campaign.

BANFIELDS HONTS

Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert Banfield entertained on Saturday evening for Mrs. Magdalene Boegler, deputy mayor of Speyer, Germany; Dr. Roso Marie Wussow, economist in the German Labor Department, Hamburg, Germany and Mrs. Miriam Carp of New York.

Mrs. Boegler and Dr. Wussow are studying working conditions in this country under sponsorship of the Women's Bureau of the Department of Labor.

Meeting the guests were:

Mr. and Mrs. Houston Jackson, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Redding, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. T. Camper, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Milford, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Parks.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Murray, Dr. and Mrs. Theodore Harris Jr., Mrs. Lydia Mussenden, Mrs. Berenice N. Nappen of Old Greenwich, Conn.

Linwood Koger, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phillips, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Lerner, Mrs. William Watts, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Shuger, and Dr. T. W. Anderson.

PHI DELTAS MEET

On Saturday Gamma Chapter of Phi Delta Sorority held its initial fall meeting at the YWCA with Barbieu Delores C. Hunt presiding.

A sketch of the year's program was presented. Plans were begun for an American Education program during American Education Week. Honoree for the evening were Soors Louise Jones, Amy Weaver, Alice Hazzard, Augusta Smith, Elmira Collins, Frances Lockwood, Carrie Johnson, and Ines Redmond.

Soors present were:

Bessie Anderson, Alberta Briggs, Mary Brooks, Sadie Bryant, Soors Ethel A. Clarke, Elmira T. Collins, Dorothy Cooper, Bertha Cross, Beatrice Fatio, Edna Finney, Ida Harmon, Delores C. Hunt, Mary B. James, Carrie A. Johnson, Louise G. Jones, Frances B. Lockwood, Della W. Macer, Frances L. Murphy.

Sorors, Katherine Nelson, Elaine J. Nickens, Melba E. Rawlings, Ethel Shuger, Mae Adams, Helen Burwell, Beatrice Butler, Florence Gaskins, Lillian Jones, Catherine Adams and Xaveria McDonald.

And come Sunday and the board of directors of the Planned Parenthood Association will hold open house in their new quarters at 1672 W. North Avenue to introduce the community education director, Mrs. Zaidee D. Koger. From 4 to 7 are the hours.

Police Chase Is Result of Father and Son Act

A father and son act which started in an Edmondson Ave. tavern and wound up with a 65-mile-per-hour police chase, Tuesday night, resulted in five charges placed against two men by arresting police.

Witnesses testified that Herbert Foote Sr., 32, 1400 block Argyle Ave., and Herbert Foote Jr., 32, 900 block N. Payson St., were in the tavern bar interfering with the patrons.

Foote Sr., is reported to have remained inside the entrance of the bar, while Foote Jr., accosted a patron, William H. Jackson, 600 block N. Calhoun St., who testified he had never seen the man before.

Threatens Patrons in Bar

The father was quoted by Wallace Goldman, operator of the bar, as saying, meanwhile: "If anybody puts his hands on my son, I'll break his brains out."

Police called by Goldman, found the father and son attempting to get into a car parked in front of the tavern. When Goldman ordered the street arrest, the men jumped in the car and sped away.

Police testified in Northwestern police court, Wednesday morning, that they chased the men approximately 8 blocks before finally forcing the car to the curb. When it was searched, a loaded .32 calibre revolver was found on the floor.

Junior Assaults Prisoner

At the police station, Foote Jr., in a cell with another prisoner, Leroy Winfield. Shortly afterwards, police testified they heard Winfield screaming, and when they rushed to the cell, the police saw Foote Jr., kicking the man.

Three charges were placed against Foote Jr., and Magistrate John Berry fined him $25 and costs on disorderly conduct, disturbing a police officer, and carrying a knife, and fined him $25 and costs for assaulting Winfield.

Two charges were filed against Foote Sr., reported by police to have once been convicted of murder, and Magistrate Berry fined him $25 and costs on disorderly conduct, and $25 and costs for carrying the gun.

WASHINGTON

FOOD CHAIN STORES

Food chain stores are nothing new, discloses a representative of the National Association of Food Chains, which held its 18th annual meeting here this week.

Even 200 years before the era of Christ, it appears, a large chain of stores was established throughout China by an enterprising merchant named Ou Lo Kass.

Evidence has also been found in the buried city of Pompeii that chain stores existed in ancient Rome.

A. and P. Started in 1858

And quite early in the history of our own continent the Hudson Bay Company set up a chain of trading posts that still survive.

The food chain as we know it today, though, started in 1858, when two New England dealers in harness and leather goods decided to go into the tea business.

They began selling tea and coffee at cut-rate prices as a mail-order house, buying high quality goods in quantity, selling them in quantity and cutting out the "middleman in between" costs whenever they could.

2200 Kroger Stores Today

The dealers called themselves the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company and within 10 years they had 11 little red stores selling tea, coffee, and spices. Pretty soon they began adding other items of widespread use and by the beginning of the 20th century there were more than 200 A. and P. stores.

Other concerns using the chain store buying and selling methods also got under way, among them the Jones Brother Tea Company which opened a small shop in 1872 and now, known as the Grand Union Company, has some 300 stores.

In 1882 22-year-old Bernard Kroger opened a modest store in Cincinnati, calling it the Great Western Tea Company. Today it is the Kroger Company, with about 2,200 stores across the country.

$12 Billion a Year for Food

In the U.S. today there are 86 different types of chain stores, but to most of us a "chain store" means a food-chain store, such as Safeway, Food Fair or Giant. Together they sell about $12 billion worth of food to the public each year.

The average food-chain store in the U.S. today has from 10,000 to 25,000 square feet, costs from $200,000 to $350,000 to stock this store with from 4,000 to 8,000 food and non-food items. And the average staff includes from 30 to 50 men and women.

WEEK-END EVENTS

A variety of events fill the week-end calendar for Washingtonians who get about.

Friday between 3 and 5 p.m., open house will take place at the Welfare Building which has moved from Indiana Ave., to the premises of old Cardozo High.

Walker Post Induction

Friday at 8:30 p.m., friends of James F. Walker Post 26 of the American Legion are invited to attend the installation of new post officers at Garnet-Patterson Junior High School at 8:30 p.m.

Succeeding affable Douglas Richardson as commander is Theodore Curtis Hall, well known for his helping hand he has lent to many veteran with hospital problems.

Del Marco Models Saturday

On Saturday at 8:30 p.m. the glamorous Grace Del Marco Models of New York City will appear in a fashion show at the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA.

Bill Howard, whose "hats by appointment" are in in feminine headgear, presents a showing of his Fall and Winter creations, Sunday afternoon, in the Cimarron Club. Admission is by card only.

Climaxing the week end, on Sunday comes that music festival for the benefit of the National Opera Foundation of Griffith Stadium. It's set for 8:30 p.m. and in case of rain will be presented Monday night, Oct. 1.

Freedmen's Lists 35 New Students

Freedmen's School of Nursing revealed this week that there are 35 new students from 14 states enrolled in this year's preclinical class.
