CLOTHING

for the INTERNATIONAL TAILORING CO. has instructed me to cut prices on one hundred and sixty good patterns from their large line of Fall and Winter Stock.

Cuts than are cuts, and to the early Spring purchasers, we say: Come look at the magnificent display of All-Wool Imported and Domestic Fabrics now on display. Twenty-five per cent. less than you can obtain same quality and service for. Compare and see.

The Reason? It's the same, no stock to carry, no large rents and general upkeep.

Respectfully,

W. E. Moody,

Authorized Representative of the International Tailoring Co., New York, Chicago and London.

SAL-VET.

The great majority of the sickness and fatalities in stock is due to causes arising from indigestion and worms. These enemies are subtle and insistent and are likely to begin their ravages and eat up your profits before you suspect anything is wrong. Therefore, to get the best results, prevention is the thing to be accomplished.

The one remedy which leading stockmen agree is not only a preventive of worms and indigestion, but also a remedy, is SAL-VET, a worm destroyer and stock conditioner, which costs so little, and is so easy to give, that it is rapidly replacing all other remedies everywhere.

It stimulates the appetite and aids digestion. It is an effective tonic and blood builder. It rids the stomach and intestines of worms, and better still, it prevents infection by these parasites. It is put up in handy size packages, and we have them in stock from 10 lbs. to 100 lbs., all sold with the manufacturer's guarantee.

CLOVER SEED.

Nice stock of new seed now here and the prices are in keeping with the times. The price is much less than last year. See our stock before you buy, and perhaps we can save you some money, and we guarantee to give you pure seed.

Stole $22.90.

Some one entered the bedroom of Mrs. Edward Robinson on the Barroll farm on Sunday night about midnight, stole a pair of pants belonging to her son, Lee, hanging across the back of a chair not two feet from her bed where she lay sound asleep, took them down on the side porch and got $22 90 out of them, and not a soul in the house heard the thief when he entered or when he departed. He left the pants and one of his kid gloves lying on the porch floor. The money represented Lee's earnings during the season from the sale of muskrat hides, and was the proceeds of a check which Mr. Marcus Asher had given Lee on Saturday. Lee had the money in his pants pocket on Saturday evening and all day Sunday, and from the circumstances connected with the case, it is evident that whoever got the money knew that Lee was carrying it and knew where he usually kept his pants. Lee and his father were asleep in an adjoining bedroom and Mrs. Robinson and her little son, Edward, were in the room which the thief entered. Mrs. Robinson had not been sleeping very soundly since the terrible windstorm on the Sunday night previous, and she said that when she did fall asleep she slept very soundly. The thief evidently knew all about the money being in Lee's pocket, because he did not touch anything else in the house, not even a pocketbook containing money lying on the buffet in the dining room, nor Lee's gold watch lying on the dining room table. This is one of the boldest robberies perpetrated in this town for years, and emphasizes the great importance of the Town Commissioners appointing additional night watchmen to protect the tax-payers' property. Constable John T. Jester has the glove, which is a good kid glove, costing about $1.50. It is the only clue which the officers have to the thief. The thief entered the dining room door which had been accidentally left unlocked, went through the front hall up the front stairs into Mrs. Robinson's room, walked close around her bed, got the pants from the back of a chair within two feet of the sleepers and went out the same way he entered. No one but a person familiar with the surroundings could have done a bold thing like that without being heard.
