ONE more week at Annapolis from next Tuesday. Then comes the day of reckoning.

THOSE of our farmers who are interested in dairy cattle should read the article in reference to Mr. H. H. Pearson, Jr.'s, great five-year-old Guernsey cow, France, in another column, and see how she was fed.

TUT! TUT! Senator Lee has objected to the confirmation of postmasters Louder at Havre de Grace and Weer at Sykesville, both recommended by Congressman Talbott. Shades of Cæsar's ghost! The very idea of a United States Senator holding up a Congressman's appointee. Look out boys, something doing around capital towns these days.

THE State tax rate for next year will be 85 cents and possibly more on the $100. This is 4 cents higher than last year, and the way in which the Maryland Legislature has been creating useless high salaried offices for political favorites and appropriating the tax-payers' money for useless purposes, it will not be five years before the State tax rate is 50 cents.

SAY, Mr. Farmer, young one or old one, you want to read carefully that splendid article entitled "The Farmer in Public," in another column. If you are not a better farmer and a more public spirited man after reading that article, then you are past redemption, Mr. Farmer, that article is a clarion call from the heart of one of the best men in this county. It is calling you to your duty. It is bidding you wake up to a realization of your opportunities and responsibilities. Will you heed the call?

SENATOR Wm. W. Beck, Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., and Eben F. Perkins were in Washington on Monday confering with Congressman Covington and Senator Smith in reference to Mr. Perkins' candidacy for the Chestertown postoffice. The dispatch from Washington does not say that they saw either Senator Lee, Postmaster General Burleson, or President Wilson, but it is presumed that they received assurances of assistance from Congressman Covington and Senator Smith.

IT IS stated that Mr. Lewin W. Wickes did not know that he was being considered for a member of the new State Tax Commission at a salary of $3,000 a year for four years, until his name appeared in the Baltimore papers. Mr. Wickes has had his eye on the judgeship in the Second Judicial Circuit for some time, and it is intimated that another Chestertown lawyer wants to round out his political career on the bench. Hence the very "brotherly" recommendation of Mr. Wickes for the State Tax Commission, which position we do not believe is suited either to Mr. Wickes' judicial temperament or ability.

THE more than probable appointment of former Congressman Joshua W. Miles as Collector of Internal Revenue for the District of Maryland by President Wilson, is attributed to the strong endorsement of Senator Blair Lee. Mr. Miles and Senator Lee have been close personal and political friends for years, and there is no question of the fitness of Mr. Miles for the office. It is understood that Senator John Walter Smith was not consulted in reference to this appointment. It is also quite probable that the President will send to the Senate the name of Mitchell Digges, of Southern Maryland, for Naval Officer, which will be a second blow to the Smith faithful. Senator Lee now has the chance to do something for the people of the State of Maryland, and we hope he will accept the opportunity.

TAKES ANOTHER MAN.

Senator Beck has taken Mr. Thomas Maslin, of the Seventh District, to Annapolis for the remainder of the session. The Kent county representatives have played their part in the "Economy" farce to perfection. We understand that there was considerable opposition to Mr. Beck taking Mr. Maslin to Annapolis this winter, and it is said that a delegation of influential Democrats in Chestertown exacted a promise from Mr. Beck that he would not take Mr. Maslin. Mr. George Byron who had been promised a place at Annapolis, was turned down with the statement that the only place available was a $1.50 per day job, and yet on the strength of it Mr. Maslin was taken at the usual $5 per day.

MARYLAND LEGISLATURE.

Mr. Shallcross on Monday night introduced a bill relating to the shooting of wild fowl.

A number of Eastern Shore counties, including Kent, agreed upon an anti-shipping bill prohibiting the shipment of more that a gallon of whiskey or a keg of beer once a month to any one person, this week, and the joint bill was introduced simultaneously in the Senate and House. This is the bill that was agreed upon at a recent public meeting in the court house here, and it has the endorsement of the Anti-Saloon League. This bill, so far as Kent is concerned, is the result of the public resentment of the anti-soliciting bill which the Organization faction proposed to be the fulfillment of a promise made to the temperance element in the county, which latter bill Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett and other prominent citizens publicly declared was not worth the snap of a finger so far as its effectiveness is concerned.

Senator Maloy, of Baltimore, introduced an amendment to the Tax Reform Bill creating a State Tax Commission, when it came before the Senate on Monday night, increasing the pay of the members of the commission from $3,000 each to $6,000 for the chairman and [illegible],000 each to his two associates. The [illegible] of the secretary was also increased [illegible],400 to $3,000 annually. This is [illegible]mission upon which Lewin W. [illegible]sq., of Kent, has been named.

[illegible]n College gets an appropri[illegible],00 a year for the next two [illegible]ce's road bill was defeated [illegible] on Thursday.

[illegible] reports have been made in [illegible]n the following bills intro[illegible]egate Shallcross:

[illegible] wild fowl.

[illegible]ock Hall for $10,000 to establish an electric light plant.

To empower the Governor to appoint an additional Police Justice for Kent county, presumably at Rock Hall.

An unfavorable report was made on Mr. Shallcross' bill to pension Frank A. Schreck at $12 per month.

Senator Beck's bill to refund $2,461.60 to the School Commissioners of Kent county for tongers licenses paid in error, was reported favorably. The amount of this bill as originally stated by the Baltimore papers was $24,000. Senator Beck's sewer bill for Chestertown has been reported favorably in the House. His purse net bill has been made the order of the day for next Tuesday.

The bill providing for the election of United States Senators by the people, known as the "Mass Vote" was defeated in the Senate by a vote of 16 to 9. Mr. Beck voted and argued strongly against this bill.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

ANSWERS SEVENTH DISTRICT DEMOCRAT.

EDITORS OF TRANSCRIPT—DEAR SIRS: For the benefit of the Seventh District writer in your last issue and others, I will state that I worked the roads in lower Quaker Neck for A. C. Loud because he could not get a Democrat to mend a bridge or fill a hole, much less haul shells. Now I have hauled, with the assistance of a few Democrats and Republicans, ten thousand bushels of shells without pay and made no charge for small jobs. Therefore I think it very natural the Road Engineer should call on me to haul shells when there was a small sum to be made, which I appreciate.

Yours for good roads,
HENRY BROWN.

POULTRY NOTES.

[Written for THE TRANSCRIPT.]

Well, the ground hog saw his shadow and the poultry have felt the effects. The late severe winter will be the cause of the farmers having late hatched chicks, more especially those depending on the hen for incubation. The best results can only be obtained by giving the little chicks extra attention and feeding. By not neglecting them through the summer months they may be pushed to maturity in time to make winter layers, although some pullets of the heavier breeds lay at 6 months, the best layers rarely start before 8 months. They have at that age developed and matured enough to stand the strain that heavy egg producing causes. Pullets should not be fed condiments to produce early egg records without full maturity in the pullet.

Poultry houses should be built on dry sloping ground. They should be at least 15 feet deep, facing south with an open space along the south side to allow plenty of sunshine to strike the floor space during winter weather. Seven feet high in front and 5 feet back makes a good height to allow a person to walk around comfortably, and yet be warmed some on cold nights by the body heat of fowls. The roosts should be on a level to prevent over crowding on a particular roost. The shed roof or one slant is at present considered best. Many old houses may be made to conform to this principle, as its the principle that counts. Plenty of fresh air, sunshine, no drafts. Fertility of the eggs depends on a great deal more than the number of females mated to one male, as most persons think cleanliness in buildings and vessels used for food and drink, isolation of sick birds and not afterward as breeders, plenty of exercise by feeding in deep litter during the winter months and when confined to small runs; all these play an important part in producing a high per cent. of strong, healthy, livable little fellows.

Some one has well said the poultry trade calls for 5 G's.—Grit, Grains, Greens, Grubs, and Gumption.

We bear a great deal of intensive poultry culture raising so many thousands of chicks in a wagon body or some such space. The farmer doesn't have to do that. Free range after the first few weeks of the chick's life means health, size, vigor and constitution with the minnimum of color.

A woman cannot make a success of poultry without some outside assistance from a man, either her husband or hired help. Some of the work is too arduous. The husband rarely refuses to assist when the poultry is placed on the dining room table or objects to being benefited by the money obtained from the sale of some; so why not help with the labor a little.

We hope to see developed in this county a poultry association. This would be an organization for the benefit of the poultry raisers and should receive the support of every person interested in poultry. The show that will be held will prove an eye opener to a great many. The shows are awaking to the utility side of poultry as well as the fancy. And in fact the utility is the side most practicable to the farmer. What good is the first prize hen if she can't fill the egg basket.

This very fact that the first prize bird of a few years back was bred for feathers and beauty, neglecting entirely her egg producing ability, was the reason why so many progressive, intelligent farmers had no faith in thoroughbred stock and clung to the old mongrel with every color of the rainbow, but would produce a few eggs. But to-day uniformity of a product increases its value. Therefore, we need a flock of uniform producers which mongrels can never fill.

The people of the county are not taking up the advantages the parcel post offers. Many city people are paying a price for cold storage eggs that would pay the farmer a good profit should he ship for that price. No doubt they would willingly pay more for the guaranteed fresh product.

Classifies High Schools.

Senator Harrison, of Worcester county, has introduced a bill dividing into two groups the high schools receiving State aid. The first group must show an enrollment of 80 pupils, and employ at least four teachers for regular high school work, exclusive of instructors in special courses, high school course to be four years, salary of principals not less than $1200, and each assistant $500.

Second group requirements are 35 pupils, two regular teachers, three year's course of study, principals' salary $1,000; assistants $500. Provision must be made for manual training, or an agricultural or commercial course as may be determined by County School Commissioners.

Pomona Items.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Bond M. E. Church met at the parsonage last Monday evening for a special meeting to elect new officers for the conference year.

Mrs. William J. Maslin has been very sick the past week, but we are glad to report her improving at this writing.

Mr. W. F. Woodmender is but very little improved.

Mrs. O. B. Rice and niece, Little Miss Elizabeth Cook, are visiting relatives this week in Baltimore.

Mr. A. H. Covey and Mr. W. C. Townsend spent the first of the week in Baltimore on business.

IN THE CHURCHES.

Mr. Robert G. Nicholson has been elected delegate and Mr. Samuel Mann alternate to represent St. James and Lynch M. P. Churches at the annual session of conference in Milford, Del., April 1. There is a unanimous request for the return of the popular pastor, Rev. H. B. Jester and his good wife.

The entertainment given by the dramatic and musical talent of the Kennedyville Presbyterian church at Galena last Friday, March 12th, was a splendid success. There was no standing room and everyone present was pleased beyond words. It must have taken a great deal of time and patience to work the plays and music up to such a pleasing degree of perfection. But as Mr. Clews says, "I have a faithful, loyal and devoted band of followers who do not shrink from sacrificing their time and energy to the work, and who refuse to quit until their object is attained namely, the building of the manse." Mr. Clews is now arranging to give the entertainment at Lynch and Betterton. Mr. Bowers, of Lynch, has very kindly promised to attend to the seating capacity.

Next Sabbath an offering for Sustentation and Home Missions will be taken in the Presbyterian churches of Georgetown, Kennedyville and Worton. The text will be Matt. 5; 14, 16. "Ye are the light of the world. Let your light shine."

Chestertown M. E. Church.—Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., Pastor.—Services next Sunday, March 22, as follows: 10.30 A. M., preaching by the pastor. 2.15 P. M. Sabbath School and Pastor's Bible class; 7 P. M., Epworth League song service, 7.30 P. M., preaching by the pastor, followed by altar service.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Dr. W. R. Graham, pastor. Services on Sunday, March 22, and preaching by the pastor at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. Morning subject, "Vicissitudes of Life" Evening subject: "Demonism of the Past and the Present;" Sabbath school 2 P. M.; Christian Endeavor service 6.45 P. M. Mid-week service Thursday evening 7.30 o'clock.

Mr. F. V. Rhodes, of the Baltimore bar, will be present and make an address in Emmanuel Church, next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. William J. Vannort's Sunday school class will give a Luncheon in the vacant room under the Lyceum Theatre next Wednesday evening March 25th. Luncheon served at 5 o'clock. Country ham, cured by one of Kent's most experienced farmers, will be on the bill of fare, as well as salads, pickles and fine Maryland biscuits. Mrs. Vannort wants all of her friends to patronize the class supper.

Communion services at both Salem and Union churches at 10.45 A. M. and 3 P. M. All members are requested to be present.

Rev. G. A. Morris, now stationed at Trinity, Somerset county, will ask for a change of appointment at the approaching session of conference which meets in Milford, April 1, on account of the condition of his wife's health. We are glad to state that Mrs. Morris is recovering from a recent illness. If their is to be a vacancy in Kent, Bro. Morris, why not come back and set some hens?

To Boom Queen Annes.

For the purpose of forming a county-wide association to co-operate with the Southern Settlement and Development Organization, a rally of Queen Anne's farmers will be held in Centreville March 26. W. Irving Walker, president of the Rich Neck Farmers' Exchange, has issued the call for the meeting and has named the following delegates:
