LOCAL MATTERS

Library not Ready.—Owing to the paint on the floor not being dry, the Public Library will not be opened until Tuesday. We gladly make this announcement at the request of the management.

Prof. Hacker Resigns.—Prof. Hacker, instructor in French and German at Washington College, tendered his resignation to the Board of Visitors and Governors and left for his home on Thursday afternoon. His classes will be taken for the remainder of the year by the other members of the faculty. Prof. Hacker succeeded Prof. Theodore Pete at the beginning of the school term last September.

Powell Peacock Buys Fast Pacer.—Edger Clark has traded his fast pacing horse, Billy Barnett, to S. P. Peacock, receiving in exchange Proems King, a fast pacer, and a three-year-old colt by Barnett B., 2.06¼. Oliver A. Titlow, a well-known horseman of Reading, Pa., has accepted a position as assistant trainer for S. P. Peacock of Middletown and arrived there on Saturday. Mr. Peacock and Mr. Titlow will move their string of trotters and pacers to Chestertown soon.

Celebrated 82nd Birthday.—Mr. Wm. J. Elliott, one of our oldest and most highly esteemed citizens, quietly observed his 82nd birthday on Sunday. He was confined to his bed with the grippe but is improved. Mr. Elliott was employed by the late J. K. Aldridge until the latter's death, and has been with the new firm, Lofland & Cup, since its establishment. He works six hours a day and is enjoying pretty good health for one of his advanced age. His many friends extend congratulations and wish him continued health.

Maryland Day.—Maryland Day will be appropriately celebrated in the local schools as follows: The grades from the Custom House will celebrate the day on Tuesday afternoon, March 24th, beginning at 1.30 in the High School assembly hall. Parents and friends of these children are invited. The other grades will celebrate Wednesday, the 25th, in their various rooms at 1.30 P. M. The 7th grade and High School will conduct exercises in the assembly room at 1.30 P. M., the 25th. The speaker of the day, appointed by State Supt. Dr. Stevens, will be the Rev. James L. Nichols, of Centreville. The public is cordially invited.

The Fish Hawk Came Back.—Expressman John E. Matthews has been very watchful of the actions of a fish hawk which every spring, on St. Patrick's Day, makes its appearance in its nest in a dead tree on the farm of Mr. John Comegys along the railroad near Black's Station. For the past 17 years that hawk has returned to his nest on St. Patrick's Day. Mr. Matthews offered to wager a ten-cent cigar with some of the train crew that the hawk would return on St. Patrick's Day, and not before. Everybody kept a close watch, and sure enough on Tuesday, St. Patrick's Day, the hawk appeared. It seemed so remarkable to mail clerk Schimp that he declared some one had placed a "stuffed" hawk on the tree to fool the people. But he was the same hawk or the offspring of the same hawk that has been returning to his nest on St. Patrick's Day.

There is an outbreak of smallpox among the colored population of Starr, Queen Annes county. Lillian Rochester, a colored school teacher is quarantined in Baltimore with the disease. Citizens of Queen Annes are alarmed because the disease has been allowed to run its course without being discovered.

BRIEF ITEMS OF INTEREST

Pomona Grange will meet at Fairlee, Tuesday, April 16.

Mr. Jacob F. Thompson, agent, received six 1914 Model Ford Cars last week.

There is a prospect for a fine building boom in Chestertown during the spring and summer.

A change in the schedule of the Chester river line will become effective March 30th. See next issue.

A well-known poultry raiser living near town has lost nearly all of her chickens from that dreadful disease, limberneck.

St. Patrick's Day was as mild and as balmy as a May morning. But the ground was too wet and cold to plant sweet peas.

Mr. E. Mueller has just received a pen of fancy white crested Black Cornish chickens which are the first of the kind in the county.

To-day is the first day of spring. Good bye to old winter. Hail to the robin and blue bird. The daffodils are blooming and the tink-tanks are tinking.

Washington College second team basket ball quint defeated Easton's Y. M. C. A. team at Easton last Friday night. Score 15 to 2.

Mr. Owen C. Smith, in Queen Annes, near Chester bridge, has lost 20 of a herd of 23 fine hogs from cholera. This is a severe loss to Mr. Smith.

Henry C. Neff has purchased from Miss Ella Naudain the 115-acre farm on the stone road from Middletown to Townsend. The price is said to be $10,000.

The last day of winter—March 20—gave us the heaviest snowstorm of the year. If we could only get our hands on that pesky little ground pig, we'd twist his tail until his holler got tired.

Mr. A. M. Culp will erect for Mr. William Collins, in the near future, a number of small houses on the vacant lot opposite Mr. W. W. Hubbard's row of houses in "Santiago."

Mr. George French has 25 little chicks hatched from 28 eggs. They are a cross between the Buff Rock hen and a Rhode Island cockerel. This mating is sure to produce a heavy laying strain.

A slight fire on Pier 16, Light street, the Tolchester Steamboat Company's pier, in Baltimore, on Saturday created some excitement but no damage. A barrel of oil caught fire but soon burned itself out.

Ex-sheriff William H. McKee has purchased from the other members of the stock company their interest in Star Bingen, one of the finest racing sires in this section of country. Sheriff McKee has something to say about this fine animal in another column.

Mr. Gilbert Jarman, son of Dr. and Mrs. G. Allan Jarman, well-known in Baltimore automobile circles, has joined the sales forces of the Schall-Crouch Auto Company, 1914 N. Charles street, Baltimore, agents for the Paige cars, the fine automobile for which Mr. Chas. W. Kibler, Jr., is the local agent. This car has won a conspicuous place in the automobile world, and large numbers are being sold and delivered. Mr. Kibler will begin a second advertising campaign of the car in the TRANSCRIPT April 1.

Milford Smith, colored, was slashed with a razor by Wallace Cann, also colored, Saturday night in "Santiago," from the corner of his eye to his jaw and Dr. Dodd was compelled to take ten stitches to close up the wound. Cann was arrested in Millington on Tuesday, brought down on the train and lodged in jail. When taken to jail, Smith claimed Cann was only playing with him when he cut him, wherefore a warrant was issued for disorderly conduct for a number implicated.

Frank Jarman, the former Washington College star pitcher, is doing brilliant work at Fayetsville, the training camp of the Baltimore International League team. Jarman's pitching against the Philadelphia National League team at Wilmington, N. C., last Monday was brilliant, and he will be a member of the regular pitching staff.

Mr. A. L. Sparks has a beautiful desk on exhibition in his window. The desk was originally an old mahogany dolcemer, which was sold by Mr. Prince to Dr. E. G. Clarke, of Washington College, who had Mr. Fritz Jette remodel the old musical instrument. Messrs H. F. Jefferson & Bro. had a somewhat similar piece of work on exhibition last week made by the same party.

Contractor Walter T. Pippin is remodeling the Odd Fellows room in the old TRANSCRIPT building, and installing the four new switchboards and other telephone improvements preparatory to its being occupied by the Telephone exchange. When these improvements are completed, the Telephone company promises more modern and efficient service, all of which has been previously given to the public by the TRANSCRIPT.

The contestants in the piano contest at A. L. Sparks' big department store are nearing the "wire," and it is difficult to name the winner. Several are so close that only a length separates them. See the following figures: No. 72, 5,099,580; No. 36, 4,870,940; No. 25, 3,680,900; No. 21, 2,917,175; No. 94, 2,721,795; No. 30, 1,980,130; No. 52, 1,947,480; No. 18, 1,740,800; No. 6, 1,514,320.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

Mrs. Clifton L. Jarrell arrived home from Baltimore last Saturday. We are very glad to state that Mrs. Jarrell is very much improved in health.

Miss Nannie Gale returned from Salisbury and Baltimore on Saturday.

Mr. William Ford, superintendent of the county home, was in town on Tuesday for the first time since the automobile accident on the public road at Mr. Lewin U. Skirven's farm gate, referred to heretofore in the TRANSCRIPT. Mr. Ford called to see many of his friends who were delighted to see him looking so well, though he is still weak. Mr. Ford is one of our oldest and best citizens and has a host of friends in the county.

Mr. J. Kennard Aldridge was housed several days this week with a heavy cold. We are glad to state that he is very much improved.

Mr. Paul Comegys, the hustling Millington hardware and farm implement man, has two carloads of carriages and buggies just in, ranging in price from $35 to $135, also 20th century manure spreaders and a fine line of farm implements. See him about them.

Miss Marguerite Skipper, of the Peabody Institute, Baltimore, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Skipper, over the river.

Mrs. Charles DeVere Drayton, of Washington, D. C., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Eliason.

Worton Grange Notes.

Well, you who think the little town of Worton is asleep, may just sit up and take notice, or you can just visit us any Monday night, and you will soon be convinced that we are still on the map.

Last Monday night, although the roads were not ideal, O, no, not by any means, quite a large number were out to enjoy the good times.

Next Monday night, all the members are requested to be on hand, as an interesting tomato meeting will be held. Several of our own brother grangers who "know how" to grow tomatoes, and Bro. Wm. Clendaniel, of Kennedyville Grange, are expected to be present to give us a talk. So if you miss this you will indeed miss a great treat both intellectually and socially, and the ladies will serve ice cream and cake at the close of the meeting.

Several of our popular members have been on the sick list the past week, namely—Sisters Florence Jewell, Isabelle Williams, Sarah Williams and Lucy Crewe and Bro. Thos. Bryan. Hope they will all be able to be out next Monday night.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

MRS. MARY GUION WESTCOTT.

Mrs. Mary Guion Westcott, widow of the late Charles T. Westcott, died in Baltimore Thursday evening, March 19, at eight o'clock. Her remains will be brought to Chestertown this (Saturday) evening on the train. Funeral services will be held at St. Paul's Church Sunday at 12.15; interment in St. Paul's cemetery. She is survived by five children—Capt. Charles T. Westcott, U. S. M.; John G. Westcott, of Kent county; Mrs. Raymond Williams, of Baltimore; Mrs. Russell Wilson, of Washington, and Miss Ferebe Westcott, of Baltimore. Mrs. Westcott was a niece of the late Rev. S. C. Roberts. She was a native of Newbern, N. C., where she leaves many relatives. She was for many years a resident of Chestertown, where she made many warm personal friends.

CAPT. WASHINGTON L. WOODALL.

Capt. Washington L. Woodall, for many years a prominent figure in shipping circles, died shortly after midnight on Monday, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Sudler Wiest, near Millington, in his 78th year. Capt. Woodall had never known a day's sickness until two weeks ago when he was taken ill while a guest in the house of his daughter. He is survived by his widow and five children: Mrs. Edward Stevens, of Sudlersville; Capt. Washington G. Woodall and Mrs. David Kendall, of Chestertown; Mrs. Sudler Wiest, of Millington, and Mr. George Woodall at home. The remains were brought to Chestertown Wednesday and rested at the home of deceased's son, Capt. Washington Woodall, High street. Funeral services were held Thursday morning at 10.30; Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham officiating; interment in Chester cemetery. Undertaker Chas. L. Dodd had charge of arrangements. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Samuel Sparks, George B. Westcott, Wm. E. Moody, Frank H. Howard, Wm. H. Lambert and William Vansant.

MR. CHARLES H. FLEMING.

Mr. Charles H. Fleming, of Aberdeen, died suddenly on the evening of March 12th. Mr. Fleming had not been in usual good health for several months, yet he was able to attend to his duties as agent for the P. B. & W. R. R. Co. Mr. Fleming and wife had just returned from a call on their neighbor across the street, and upon reaching home, he dropped lifeless to the floor. It will be recalled that his brother the late B. F. Fleming of this town met with a similar fate last summer, while fishing on Chester bridge. Mr. Fleming is survived by his widow Mrs. Ella Fleming, and two daughters, Mrs. Ramoth Mitchell, of Wilmington, and Mrs. J. F. McFadden of Perryman, Md. He was a consistent member of the M. E. Church as also trustee, and a member of Aberdeen Lodge A. F. & A. M. Funeral services were held from his late residence on Monday last, in charge of the Masonic Fraternity, and interment in the Grove cemetery at Aberdeen.

WALTER F. TOLSON.

Walter F. Toulson, a merchant of Millington, died at his place of business on Tuesday, March 17th, at 1 o'clock P. M., of heart affection. Mr. Tolson had worked in various gristmills in the county and a few years ago was very badly injured in the machinery of the mill which he was operating, and since then had been in a crippled condition and suffered much from rheumatism. Since the bad weather of February and March he grew much worse and became shut-in and his decline then became rapid until the end came on Tuesday. His remains were taken to the undertaking rooms of J. L. Smith, from which they were buried on Friday, March 20, at 10.30 A. M., in Millington cemetery. Mr. Tolson is survived by his widow, who was Miss Mayme Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Phillipps, of Millington and son, Mr. Harry Tolson, of Philadelphia.

MRS. ROBERT JOINER.

Mrs. Robert Joiner, wife of Mr. Robert Joiner, a well-known farmer of near Melitota, died Thursday, aged 45. The deceased was before marriage, a Miss Pennington, of this county. Besides her husband she leaves nine children. Funeral services will be held to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon at 1 P. M., conducted by Rev. H. B. Jester. Interment will be made in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers will be: Messrs. Harry Stavely, John L. Deputy, Wm. B. Plummer, J. Raymond Bowers, William H. Cooper and Harry Rash. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd will have charge of the funeral arrangements. The deceased has a sister, Mrs. Wm. H. Kelly, in Locust Grove, and two brothers, Messrs. Herbert and William Pennington, Wilmington, Del.

JAMES DONAHOE.

The death of Mr. James Donahoe, one of the best known residents of the First District, living in Massey, is noted in the Massey items. Mr. Donahoe was sick only a week, and after an operation at a Baltimore hospital, he seemed to be improving. He was taken worse and died on Monday. For many years Mr. Donahoe was a farmer, but of late years was engaged in the grain buying business. He was a brother of Mrs. Thomas J. Donahoe, of the Almshouse Board, and was highly esteemed by all who knew him.

WILLIAM MILBURN.

William Briscoe, aged 24 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Milburn, died at the home of his parents, 21 West Hayward Avenue, Arlington, Baltimore county on Saturday. Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

PAUL WORKMAN.

Mr. Arthur Joiner received a message from Philadelphia this week stating that his nephew, Paul Workman, had died very suddenly. Paul was employed on the railroad, and the message failed to state whether or not his death was due to an accident or from natural causes.

Mr. Trenchard Faithful, a well known resident of Queen Annes, died Tuesday.

Senior Class Play.

The senior class of the Chestertown High School scored Friday night at Assembly Hall in an interesting two-act comedy, entitled, "Handy Andy." Mr. Harry Rouse, as "Handy Andy," played in the title roll and made a hit with the audience. About forty dollars was realized, which will be used for expenses incurred by the program and invitations of the graduating class. Prof. Mark Creasy had charge of the affair, which proved a marked success. The cast of characters was as follows:

Mad Nance	Florence Hill
Fanny	Eva Kelley
Andy	Harry Rouse
Squire Egan	Floyd Brown
Squire O'Grady	Charles Ford
Edward O'Conner	Edgar Meginnis
Murphy	Allie Blyman
Dick Dawson	Albion Bailey

Simon	Stewart Price
McQuade	Barber Bartley
Ooney	Rebecca Davis
Instrumental Duet	Elsie Whiteley
	Edgar Meginnis
Violin Solo	Merritt Twilley

Bazaar Committees Busy.

Mrs. J. Hydie Thompson, chairman, and her assistant, Mrs. J. E. Ferguson, have completed the full list of committees for the big bazaar to be held in Firemen's Hall, April 14, 15 and 16, and these committees are busily engaged in planning for one of the most elaborate bazaars ever held in the town. The people of the town and county are responding finely to the appeals of the managers for co-operation and assistance, and you are asked to talk about the bazaar, work for its success and get your neighbors and friends to patronize it liberally. In our judgment there is nothing needed more urgently in Chestertown than an Old People's Home and Emergency Hospital, and it makes no difference if there are a few "knockers," they may be the first to experience the benefits of such an institution. Let everybody do what he can. Let the whole community get interested in the movement. You can't get a thing like this in a short while. It takes time. It will come. It must come for it is so badly needed. For goodness sake, let's wake up and do something for Chestertown.

The following is the list of committees:

Any other lady in the town or county whose name does not appear in this list will please understand that you are a member of any committee upon which you desire to serve, and you are urged to help make the Relief Bazaar a great financial success.

Our Merchants' Interests.

The Beehler & Ogden Motor Co., of Baltimore, show a photo taken of the beautiful new Krit touring car in this issue which is certainly all they claim for this sturdy machine. It's a rare combination of beautiful lines and staunch construction. Mr. Moody, of Chestertown, and Mr. Power, of Millington, each have one and will be glad to show you the advantages it possesses above cars selling near the price.

Mr. W. E. Moody announces in this issue that the large and well-selected assortment of domestic and imported fabrics for spring and summer of the International Tailoring Co., are now ready for inspection, ranging in price $12.60 the suit with a very gradual rise up to the finest imported cloths. Call at his office and examine the production of this tremendous plant.

Mr. E. Thomas Massey has for sale a 1914 Overland car, two large for his insurance business. It is in good condition and can be bought cheap. Write or phome him about it.

Beginning March 21st, the Tolchester Line begins its spring scedule. The boat will run every day from Tolchester as will be seen by the add in this paper.

Landreth's fine garden seed are sold by the Stam Drug Company. They are among the best.

Davis & Satterfield's own make of farm wagons and dearborns need no special mention. The large number they sell is a sufficient recommendation. They have a few left which you can buy right. Also all kinds of poultry feeds.

Special tailoring opening at Brown Bros.' to-day. The celebrated Haas clothes and beautiful samples from which to select your spring suit.

The BLAZER is the favorite this spring. Ask C. C. Jones, the exclusive shoe man about it.

Read about H. F. Jefferson & Bros. spring opening and their excellent Wednesday bargains. They are rich and valuable.

The Big Hub Store, Millington, announce in this issue their annual spring opening. The latest and newest styles in ladies, men's and children's clothing are offered in rich profusion at low prices and the assortment offered is as good as you can find in the city. Look at the offerings in their big adv. on page 2.

Read Kilbourn's change of advertisement in this issue. Important information for all purchasers.

Abe Cohen's big change of advertisement on page 3 is worth reading. There are bargains which you can't afford to overlook.

Confer with Medders & Co. Still Pond about clover seed and Eclipse Spray pumps. He has just received another large box of fancy Toledo seed. This seed tested highest at Chestertown and Galena granges, which placed their orders with Medders.

CANDIDATE FOR COMMISSIONER.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for re-election as Town Commissioner of Chestertown in the approaching town election to be held next April. I obligate myself to labor for the interests of the town as faithfully as I have tried to do during my term now closing. I ask the support of all tax-payers.
