"The Best Possible Newspaper!"

What sort of a paper is it? In the first place, it must be a Home Paper—the Woman's Friend and a part of her daily life. And it must be a NECESSITY to the Business Man. It must not only tell what is happening in the world, but it must go farther and tell WHY it is happening AND WHAT IT MEANS.

The Best Possible Newspaper has a staff of correspondents covering the world field of the Associated and United Press, scouring the earth for vital human facts. It has fashions and art, books and music, literature and politics at its right hand. It has the markets for the farmer, the merchant, the broker.

The world has never seen an age of greater constructive significance in politics, in science, in society. Every move in the field of action is a topic for discussion in cities, villages, hamlets, at cross-roads. And the Best Possible Newspaper must equip its readers for intelligent understanding of all these things.

That is precisely why it is the simple truth that for your purposes, and for the purpose of the whole South, THE BEST POSSIBLE NEWSPAPER IS

Massey Items.

If you want to keep in style in Massey you better have the grippe.

Mr. E. T. Massey is having an insurance office built in town and is also having the store house kept by Mr. Malsberger enlarged.

We are to have another fine store opened the first of April under the new hall, which will be a very large store.

Miss Margaret Huey has as her guest her cousin, Miss Pauline Huey, of Seaford, Del.

Mr. Taylor Medford spent Sunday with his parents at Marydel.

Mr. Raymond Newnam substituted as clerk at Lewis last week for Mr. Holmes, one of the Massey operators for ten years, and everyone hated to see him leave, yet we have learned to like the one that filled his place as well.

Miss Mabel Clough and Miss Mary Wilkins are both sick at their homes.

Mr. John Price, of Colorado, has been visiting friends out of town.

Our little town is very quiet, but will wake up after Lent with quite a few parties, and the first on the list will be the minstrel repeated on Easter Monday by request.

The funeral of Mr. James Donahoe on Thursday was as large as was ever seen in Massey.

Mr. E. T. Massey spent Friday in Philadelphia.

Mr. T. C. Roe spent Thursday in Chestertown.

Mrs. Andrew Woodall, of Galena, spent Monday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Roe.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Maslin entertained a few of their friends at a turkey dinner on Sunday in honor of their 37th wedding anniversary.

Warwick Items.

Mr. Henry Duryea spent part of last week in Philadelphia.

Mr. Tomlinson had a catsaract removed from both eyes on Friday of last week, at Wills Hospital, Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. George Merritt dined at Judge Merritt's Thursday.

Mrs. J. R. Price spent Wednesday at the M. P. parsonage.

Sewing Circle which met at Mrs. S. E. Gunkel's on Wednesday, has begun its spring campaign of making and selling aprons and dust caps. In about a year this busy bunch have made about 181 aprons, 95 dust caps, five shirt waists, a number of clothes pin bags, and pieced and quilted two quilts. Total amount of sales $60 with a jolly good time and plenty of good things to eat.

The last Aid Society meeting of the conference year was held at the parsonage March 20th, with a fairly good attendance considering the bad roads.

Mrs. Joseph Smith, who has been confined to her bed the greater part of the winter, is able to be up again.

Miss Clara Blackbourn and Miss Katie Evans, of Wilmington, spent Sunday with Chief Judge R. B. Merritt.

Last week Mr. Fred Robinson moved from Sassafras neighborhood to his own farm near Mt. Pleasant. The farm he left will be tenanted by his son.
