Blind Singer Sentenced For Narcotic Addiction

Cornelius Uncles, well-known blind singer and newsstand dealer, was sentenced to two years in the House of Correction, Tuesday, for possession of heroin capsules.

The 30-year-old Uncles was arrested by Sgt. Joseph Carroll who said he "didn't have the heart" to bring the man in on other occasions when he might have.

Uncles told Judge Joseph Sherbow he has been an addict for over a year, and had acquired the habit when singing in nightclubs.

He has been blind for 15 years, and at the time of his arrest, was operating a newsstand at Fremont and Edmondson Aves.

Judge Sherbow asked the probation department to inquire as to whether there will be room for Uncles at the Federal hospital for addicts at Lexington, Ky.

Jackson Gets 2 Years

Others sentenced in dope cases Tuesday included Philip Rice, 23, of the 1200 block Laurens St., two years in the House of Correction; and Leroy Jackson, 21, of the 1900 block Druid Hill Ave., three years.

Rice was said to have been carrying several herein capsules in an empty fountain pen when arrested in the 1000 block Pennsylvania Ave.

Sgt. Carroll described Jackson as a peddler who purchased narcotics in Washington.

The youth reportedly told officers that he sold heroin to support his own habit, but in court, Jackson denied making any sales. He was said to have been using nine capsules a day.

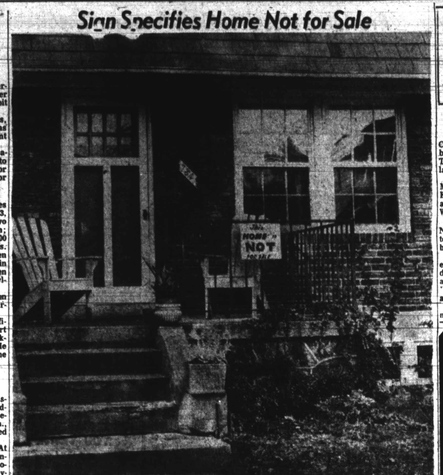
Sign Specifies Home Not for Sale



With so many homes in the West Baltimore area bearing "For Sale" signs as the exodus continues in that direction, many white property owners find it necessary to post signs reading "This Home is NOT For Sale." This one is in the 700 block Whitmore Ave.

Woman Extradicted for Flim-Flam Questioning

A New York woman is being extradicted to Baltimore, this weekend, for questioning in connection with flim-flam conspiracy charges pending against two detective lieutenants.

The woman has been identified as Juanita Hemphill, also of Cleveland, O., one of seven persons with whom the officers are charged with conspiring to allow flim-flammers to operate.

Authorities here revealed that a separate flim-flam charge, dating back a year ago, is pending against the woman.

One Officer Retired

The accused officers are Lt. Henry Sherry and Lt. Joseph Bucher, who is now retired. Both of them were members of the flim-flam squad which has the task of tracking down confidence men who work the old drop-pocketbook game on gullible victims.

Sherry and Bucher, in addition to conspiracy, are charged with receiving $2,212.50 in bribes from Oakey Jackson of Cleveland, another accused flim-flammer under charges in Baltimore.

The two officers were said to have conspired not only with the Hemphill woman and Jackson, but with a Weston (Sonny) Taylor, Rosalie Schley, Charley Lord, Lula Howard and Beulah Little.

Victims Fast-Talked

In the game of flim-flam, two fast talking people usually work together in a downtown shopping area where they convince a victim that one of them has found a purse containing a large amount of money.

The two agree to split their "find" with the victim if he or she "can show good faith" by putting up money of his or her own.

Usually the deal ends with the victim drawing life savings out of the bank, and handing the money over to the confidence workers who suddenly disappear into the downtown crowd.

11 Prisoners Win Paroles

Eleven prisoners, two women and nine men, have been granted paroles by Gov. Theodore R. McKeldin after being approved by the director of Parole and Probation.

Those given their freedom are:

Mrs. Ruth Allen who was sentenced Jan. 27 to not more than two years in the Maryland State Reformatory for Women for operating a disorderly house and violation of narcotic laws;

Manslaughter Conviction

Mrs. Cora Dorsey Portee who was serving 18 months in the Women's Prison for manslaughter; Joseph M. Williams who was convicted in Prince George's County, Oct. 30, 1950 on a larceny charge and sentenced to two years;

Stewart Wilson who was up for 18 months on a larceny count and violation of probation; Joseph Stanley Brown, of Cecil County, serving not more than a year for larceny;

Kenneth Dawson

Kenneth Dawson, sentenced Jan. 19, Circuit Court, Talbot County, not more than 12 months, Md. St. Reformatory for Males for breaking entering; Philip Dorsey, sentenced March 1, Criminal Court, Baltimore, not more than one year, Md. St. Ref. for Males, larceny. Harold G. Dorsey, sentenced March 5, Magistrate's Court Howard County, one year and three months, Md. House of Correction, larceny;

Raymond Gibson, sentenced January 29, Criminal Court, Baltimore, to not more than three years, Md. St. Ref. for Males, robbery with deadly weapon; Cornelius Merrill, sentenced Feb. 27, Circuit Court, Howard County, 18 months, Md. House of Correction, carrying concealed weapon.

Service Guild to Spark Youth Program

The Rachel Taylor Service Guild met October 8th at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Lillie M. Jackson. There were twenty two members present. Interesting reports were brought back to the group by delegates who attended the Conference at Harpers Ferry in August.

Extensive plans were made for the year's activities. The group decided to make the youth program on Friday nights interesting in order that our younger people can recreate in a well supervised manner.

Big Aerial Battle Over North Korea

By RALPH MATTHEWS SR.
(AFRO Correspondent in Korea)

SOMEWHERE IN KOREA—(By Cable)—One of the toughest aerial battles of the Korean campaign, Tuesday, saw Lt. Dayton W. Ragland swing into action.

Lt. Ragland, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dayton E. Ragland of 2004 E. 27th St., Kansas City, Mo., is a member of the Fourth Fighter Wing Squadron.

His was one of the 33 United Nations planes which swooped up to engage more than 100 Russian-built MIG's over MIG alley.

When the smoke had cleared, eight of the MIG's had been shot down and five badly damaged in a running fight. Only one of the United Nations planes was damaged.

Red fliers are getting more numerous and more aggressive every day, Lt. Ragland and his comrade told this correspondent.

More than 1100 of the Russian planes, flown by Chinese pilots, have been sighted over North Korea since Sept. 1.

In the last eight days of aerial warfare 62 enemy planes have been destroyed and 215 have been damaged.

Tobias Gets Senate Group's Approval

BULLETIN

The Senate Sub-Committee on Foreign Relations late Thursday voted 3-0 for confirmation of Dr. Channing Tobias's nomination as alternate UN delegate.

WASHINGTON

Dr. Channing H. Tobias told the Sub-committee on Foreign Relations in a hearing in the Caucus Room of the Senate Office Building on Thursday that he is not now and never has been a member of the Communist party, a fellow traveler, or a Communist sympathizer.

John Bowhan Being Sought by Family

Efforts are being made to locate John Bowhan, 27, for whom a warrant has been issued for non-support of his wife, Mrs. Amy Bowhan, 420 E. Lanvale St. and their five year-old son. His wife said he left town in August after the court order payments. She has applied for welfare department assistance for which she cannot qualify until exhaustive efforts have been made to locate her husband.

John Bowhan

Dr. Tobias has been appointed Alternate Delegate to the Sixth General Assembly of the United Nations. He was appearing before the committee in answer to attacks made against his political affiliation.

Reads List of Groups

On direct questioning from Sen. John J. Sparkman, (Dem., Ala.) who read a long list of organizations submitted to his group by the Committee on Un-American Activities, Dr. Tobias stated,

"I do not deny having at one time either been affiliated with or had my name listed as the sponsor of now questionable organizations, but when I found out what their purposes were, withdrew my name and have had no further affiliation with them."

Dr. Tobias recently has been a target of columnist Westbrook Pegler who had charged him and other members of the President's Civil Rights Committee with being Communist sympathizers.

Prefers Not to Discuss Pegler

In referring to Pegler, Dr. Tobias stated that he hoped he would not be drawn into any "lengthy discussion of this gentleman."

He added, "I have a feeling that no committee would base any decision on quick scurrilous attacks as those made upon me by such an individual. It was a privilege to serve on the President's Civil Rights Committee.

"It pains me greatly to have the names of such distinguished members as Bishop Sherrill and Bishop Haas maligned. I owe no apologies to make for being a member of this group."

Names Connections

He declared that he is against communism because, "it is Godless and I am a Christian." He put into record his additional religious, civic, fraternal and other connections.

The venerable educator and director of the Phelps-Stokes Fund answered questions put by Sparkman on the organizations to which he has been allegedly affiliated as follows:

American League for Peace and Democracy, Council on African Affairs and Southern Conference on Human Welfare:

He said he polled out of these groups because they became dominated by persons who had leftist tendencies.

Rejected Resolution

He said he resigned from the Council on African Affairs when the body refused to pass a resolution which he proposed in 1945 stating that the group was not subversive nor had any leftist meetings.

About all of these groups, he states that he thought, as would numerous other prominent citizens whose names would read like a Who's Who in America, at first they had high ideals and would be of benefit to his people, but when he found out that they were smoke screens to foster Communism, he withdrew.

Specifies Organizations

The National Federation for Constitutional Liberties: He called this a name organization that he had not been actively associated with although his name might be listed as one of the sponsors.

Protestant and Protestant Digest: He protested the line this group was taking and asked that his name be dropped from its rolls. It was.

American Committee for Protection of the Foreign Born: Dr. Tobias said he did not know how his name became associated with this group, but was listed as sponsoring a dinner because he assumed the cause was a good one at the time.

In Dark About Motives

Whatever affiliation he might have had with the Win the Peace Conference, People Institute of Applied Religion, American Committee of Yugoslav Relief, New York State Conference on Racial Unity, American Committee to Save Refugees, United American Spanish Aid and Exile Writers Committee, were because he had no knowledge that they were Communist inspired or subversive.

He declared that he is not now affiliated with any of these groups.

"Whether or not I go to the United Nations as an alternate delegate is not too important.

"What is important is whether or not 15,000,000 loyal colored citizens get the impression as to whether its leadership can be maligned by diabolical attacks, inturidations and inuendoes to the point that there is doubt case on the integrity of these leaders. It will be tragic indeed." Dr. Tobias declared.
