Todd Duncan to Sing for College

JACKSON, Miss (ANP) — Todd Duncan, baritone who created the role of Porgy in the play "Porgy and Bess," will appear Sunday, Oct. 21, in the initial concert of the 1951 school year at Jackson College here.

Duncan has been soloist for the New York Philharmonic-Symphony Orchestra directed by Arthur Rodzinski; toured Latin America for Columbia Artists with success in 11 countries; and he has performed in New York's Stadium concerts.

He also was engaged by the New York Opera Co. fo sing 12 performances of two important roles, Toria in "Pagliacci" and the Toredor Escamill in "Carmen."

A national magazine recently listed his voice among "the best in the U.S. or any country," and said that he was the first to sing a white role with a white cast.

Jo Baker to Make Her First Balto. Appearance, Oct. 25

Josephine Baker, one of the all-time greats in show business, is scheduled to make her first appearance in Baltimore at the Coliseum on Thursday, Oct. 25.

The American chanteuse, born in St. Louis 45 years ago, has been the top star of the world-famous "Folies Bergere" in Paris for a quarter of a century.

Miss Baker returned to this country on October 6, this year, after a five-week stay in France, opening Oct. 10 at the Roxy Theatre in New York for a two-week engagement.

Her appearance in Baltimore on the 25th will be the second stop on her nation-wide tour.

During her recent stay in France, Miss Baker spent sometime in Paris making additions to her fabulous wardrobe, conferring with designers who have created some of her new gowns, which she will show to Baltimore audiences, a collection with an estimated value of $250,000 which spills over into 12 trunks and 50 other pieces of luggage.

Miss Baker first came into the limelight in 1924 in the Broadway revue, "Shuffle Along." In 1925, she went to Paris, as a member of a touring revue, and conquered that wise and sophisticated metropolis with a sensational performance in "Revue Negre."

Appearing with Miss Baker here will be her own 15-piece orchestra accompaniment, and a Variety Show of stars. One of the standouts will be that versatile TV comedian, Pat Henning.

Stork Club Iggs Jo Baker, Party

NEW YORK—Militant Josephine Baker, singing star of two continents, Thursday charged that Sherman Billingsley's Stork Club had discriminated against her because of her race.

Miss Baker says that she was one of the guests in a party given by Roger Rico and his wife, who along with her were also refused service on Tuesday night.

Mrs. Rico said she would protest to the French Consul.

Miss Baker also plans further action. "Not for Josephine Baker," she said: "I'm doing it for America."

Boys' Choir, Choraliers to Merge for Wide Tour

The Baltimore Boys' Choir, Inc., will soon open its 11th concert season here and in Washington, with the young men's group known as the Baltimore Youth Choraliers merging with the choir, because the war draft has cut deeply into its ranks.

Both groups were founded by William M. H. Birche Jr., conductor. Last year the singers and their conductor received many citations and awards from civic organizations here in the East.

Many new choral compositions will be introduced this season as Mr. Birche has just returned from studies with Dr. Henry Williams, conductor of the Kansas City Symphony, and the Hall Johnson of New York.

A new suite written for the boys by Mr. Johnson, "Sing Out America," and "Doodle As You Dawdle" by Henry Cowell and new arrangements by Dr. James Allan Dash, Fred Waring, Christiansen, Noah Ryder and Eve Jeelye are among the numbers to be performed.

Soloists announced for this season include:

Leroy Dorsey, basso, from Washington; Helen M. Armstrong, soprano; Raymond I. Johnson, organist from Delaware State College; Ann Wallace, soprano; Kate Hall, dramatic soprano, New York, and Mr. Birche, pianist.

Cities visited by the youthful singing aggregation in addition to Baltimore and Washington, will be Alexandria, Va.; Philadelphia and Chester, Pa.; Dover and Wilmington, Del.; New York, Newark, Atlantic City and Trenton, N.J.
