It comes but once in a life-time. It means so much. It should be perfect, flawless chaste.

There's much uncertainty about diamonds except to the expert. They should be chosen at a store in which you have implicit confidence. We strive earnestly to merit such confidence.

Diamonds are like gold when wisely bought. They are worth their cost anywhere on earth and are constantly increasing in value. Our gems will bring their price anywhere any time, and we guarantee them positively.

Examine our rings—not only solitaires but all styles for all needs.

LOCAL MATTERS

New Professor at College.—Dr. Kingman, of Brooklyn, has been elected professor of German and French by the Board of Visitors and Governors of Washington College for the remainder of the term to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Prof. Hacker.

A Paying Proposition.—The Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Kent county, in settling with the executors of the late Alday Clements, paid them $810 37 that amount being the balance due the estate on the policies in the company. A saving as well as an Insurance Company.

Conference Appointments. — The Southern Methodist Conference which had been in session in St. Paul's Church, Baltimore, for a week, closed Monday evening with the reading of the appointments by Bishop Denney. Rev. A. E Owens is returned to Kent charge; E A. Lambert goes to Church Hill, and J. A. Rood, a former popular pastor, of Kent charge, goes to Trappe, Talbot county.

Church Sold.—J. Waters Russell, real estate broker, has sold for the congregation of Bethel A. M. E. Church, the Church and lot corner Calvert and Kent streets, to one of our prominent business men, who will remove the building and improve the lot. The price is private, but it is understood that the money received will help greatly to pay for the cost of the erection of the new church on College avenue, the foundation for which has been laid over two years.

Millington Boy Found in Wilmington.—Walter Wood, aged 16 years, of Millington, was taken into custody by the Wilmington police Tuesday afternoon at the request of his father, who claims that the boy ran away from home. Walter was located at the French street station Tuesday afternoon. When he left home his father said he had $51. When the police searched him they found $29. Walter claims he was just out for a good time. His father took him home Wednesday.

Buys Fine Farm.—Mr. Samuel Merritt, of Swarthmore, Pa., son of the late Rev. J. B. Merritt, of this county has purchased of Dr. Black, of New Castle, Del., the fine farm in Shrewsbury Neck, now tenanted by Mr. Barney McGrugan, and containing between 300 and 400 acres. The price paid is said to be $25,000. The well-known firm of Stavely & Bowers, of Lynch, has been awarded the contract for remodeling the outbuildings and also to erect a fine bungalow on the property for the use of Mr. Merritt and his family.

Westcott Property Sold.—James W. Chapman, Jr., Esq., of Baltimore, administrator of the estate of the late Charles T. Westcott, has sold to Messrs. A. M. Culp and George Bell, the property on Queen street formerly occupied by Mr. George B. Westcott and family. We understand that Mr. Bell takes the lot facing on Queen street and running back to within four feet of the residence, while Mr. Culp takes the residence and the vacant lot between the residence and the TRANSCRIPT building. We understand that Mr. Bell contemplates erecting a new home on a part of the lot.

Mr. Elmer Batchelor, a sailor of this town, got his right hand caught in a rope last week, during a heavy wind in the bay, which nearly tore off several of his fingers. So bad was the injury, that Captain Batchelor was compelled to go about and set sail for Baltimore again, where his son was taken to the Marine Hospital for treatment. The boat was enroute to Chestertown at the time.

BRIEF ITEMS OF INTEREST

The musk rat season closed Tuesday. We understand it has not been as profitable a season as formerly.

Mr. Frank Lambert stuck a large splinter in his right hand Thursday and has been suffering considerably since.

March didn't know whether to go out like a lion or like a lamb, and it just went betwixt and between.

A Chinese laundryman has been in town during the week looking for a place in which to locate a laundry.

Mrs. Whittier C. Copper has a box of beautiful tulips in full bloom in her front window on Park Row. They are shaded white and pink.

Mr. John D. McCabe has been made agent at the Kennedyville station in place of Mr. Frank Passwaters, who comes to Chestertown.

Mr. Wm. H. Lambert caught five bunches of fine rock in his nets just below Chester bridge on Monday morning, besides a quantity of fine cull perch.

Mr. John Hudson has accepted a position as solicitor with the Prudential Life Insurance Company under Superintendent George W. French.

One of our farmers shipped a number of spring lambs to Philadelphia market this week and received from $5.25 to $5.50 a piece for them.

The TRANSCRIPT suggests that the Board of Town Commissioners designate Friday, May 1st, as "Clean Town Day," and see that everybody cleans his yards and premises thoroughly.

Mr. Wm. Lusby Loller, brother of Mrs. J. Elwood Morris, and Miss Minnie Greisamer, were married in East Greenville, Pa., March 22nd.

The Pomona Grange will meet in Fairlee Grange Hall April 16th. An effort is being made to make this one of the most enjoyable and profitable meetings of the year.

Mr. Harry Fowler, of Worton, has rented the house on Cannon street advertised for rent in the TRANSCRIPT by Herbert E. Perkins, Esq. He and his family will remove to town.

James Saunders, colored, nearly lost his left hand last week at the basket factory. Saunders was working around a circular saw when the accident occurred. Three fingers and thumb were nearly severed.

Mr. Baldwin, proprietor of the cannery at the old depot, is offering $7.75 per ton for tomatoes, and says he expects to can only about one-half of the tomatoes he put up last year. He will contract for 175 acres.

Mr. Thomas W. Eliason, Jr.'s automobile struck a rut in the road to Tolchester last Saturday, causing it to turn turtle. Mr. Eliason was not injured, and strange to say there was no injury to the car except a broken fender.

The early potato growers will make a second effort to grow a paying crop of potatoes this season. They have purchased their seed potatoes and fertilizer, and as the weather will permit they are preparing their ground. Kent's potato district is confined to Worton.

Messrs. H. F. Jefferson & Bro. are improving the front of their pretty store with a new dress of paint. Mr. M. E. Baker and force are doing the work. Mr. A. W. Carmine is also having the front of his store beautified by the painter's brush.

Under the efficient superintendency of Miss Anna Copper, the young ladies of the graduating class of Chestertown High School, are making their own graduating dresses. This idea is being carried out in other towns which have this department connected with their schools.

Last week we made mention of a very large egg laid by one of Mr. Owen C. Smith's hens. Mr. William B. Willis, Kent's bronze turkey king and a breeder of Barred Plymouth Rocks, read the squib, and on Tuesday he presented us with a Plymouth Rock egg that measures 7¾ inches in lengthwise circumference, and weighs 3½ ounces. Mr. Smith's egg weighed the same, but was a quarter of an inch shorter in circumference.

Mr. Walter U. Lusby has awarded to Mr. Azariah M. Kendall, the well-known Fairlee contractor and builder, the contract for the erection of two new bungalows on his Tolchester bay front "Bungalow Boulevard", and Mr. Lusby is thinking very seriously of erecting a third one before the summer season begins. Mr. Lusby has five cosy bungalows now at the Beach, and there is an active demand for them during the summer.

Different prices are being offered tomato growers in different sections of the county for contracts. In the vicinity of Beck's wharf $7.80 per ton is being offered, at Black's, Swing is offering $8; Numsen & Son are contracting for $7.20, and Mr. Baldwin, of the Baldwin cannery, Chestertown, is offering $7.75 for a small acreage. Mr. A. S. Turner, the Worton grain buyer, has advised Mr. Carr, the Worton canner, not to open his cannery unless he can offer the growers $8.

The timely discovery by Mr. Charles Keithley, the baker, of a fire in an occupied room over Robinson's restaurant, on High street, on Saturday evening at shortly after six o'clock, prevented what might have been a serious blaze. The fire is supposed to have started from a pipe which smouldered for some time, finally breaking into a blaze. Mr. Keithley, who discovered the fire, ran up the stairs and threw out the mattress which had ignited. No alarm was sounded as Mr. Keithley had put out the fire before it had been generally known that there was a fire.

The schooner "Blankford," of Baltimore, owned by Capt. T. F. Judd, of that city, was thought to be in the hands of a modern "pirate" crew last week when she disappeared from her mooring in Baltimore and was not heard of for several days. When Capt. Judd found his vessel, after several days' search, she was lying in Rock Hall harbor in charge of a colored deckhand, discharging a cargo of lumber from Mr. J. P. Ahern's big lumber yard in Millington. The deckhand stated at a hearing before a magistrate that while the vessel's owner was racing around looking for his boat, he was making money for the captain, and nothing was done with the considerate deckhand.

No Raise In Rates.

At a meeting of the Interstate Commerce Commission held in Washington, D. C., on March 20, an order was issued suspending until October 14, 1914, the operation of the schedule of the Pennsylvinia Railroad company for the freight rate of 15 cents per ton on stone for road building purposes on the Eastern Shore. This increase of freight rates would have meant an additional cost of about $600 per mile on each mile of State road to be built on the Eastern Shore. The State Roads Commission last December protests against this increase by counsel before the Interstate Commerce Commission, and it was first deferred until April 14, and now until October 14 next. The favorable action already secured will mean a large saving to the State on our road building operations on the Eastern shore during the coming season. The State Roads commission will continue to use its best efforts to have this increased schedule of rates entirely denied, or indefinitely deferred, by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Bazaar to be Great.

The various committees of the Town Relief Bazaar to be held in Firemen's Hall, April 14, 15 and 16, for the benefit of the Emergency Hospital and Old People's Home are meeting with fine success in the way of donations. The country store, apron booth and fancy booth will be full to overflowing with splendid articles which have been profusely donated, and the supper committee is receiving an unusually large number of donations. More next week.

Improving Poultry Stock.

Mr. Thomas D. Bowers has recently added to his poultry yard two pure-bred prize winning Buff Rock cockerels from the well-known poultry breeder, W. A. Eberly & Son, of Pennsylvania. This firm's birds won first prize at York, Red Lion, Dallastown and Baltimore, both for individual birds as well as for pens, and they are as handsome birds as you want to look at. Mr. Charles H. Skirven has also added a prize winning Buff Rock cockerel of beautiful shape and color to his yards from the same breeder, and both Mr. Skirven and Mr. Bowers, who are offering eggs from their best hens to the country trade at $1 per 15 for the month of April, in the TRANSCRIPT, will have some fine young stock for sale in the fall, and they offer the trade a chance to get some of the finest layers in the county from their present fine stock eggs. The three cockerels were bred by a rooster that sold for $35 at the great poultry show held in the Fifth Regiment Armory, Baltimore, last January.

New Telephone Line.

Mr. C. C. Brown, of Quaker Neck, will soon start work on a new telephone line, known as Cliff Telephone Company, which will run from Chestertown to Cliff's wharf and vicinity.
