Tenant Councils Elect Officers

On Oct. 11, a tenant management meeting was held at the Ernest Lyon Recreation Building for the election of officers of the newly formed Tenant Council. Walter Worrell was elected president; and Mrs. Bessie Roseborough, treasurer.

Plans were discussed for the formation of an activities' program to cover all age groups. Manager of the project, Frank R. Veney attended the National Housing Conference in Washington during the week of October 8.

Officers of the Tenant Council at Turner Homes were elected on Oct. 10, at a tenant, management meeting held in the Project Recreation Building. Officers are Julian Wilton, president; Mrs. Doris Claborn, vice president; Mrs. Thelma Street, secretary, and Mrs. Parker, treasurer.

The council immediately began making plans for a Halloween Party for pre-teenage children to be held at the Community Building. A meeting with YWCA. officials was held on Oct. 17.

At Sollers Homes

On Oct. 9, a tenant, management meeting was held at Sollers Homes Community Building. Charles Anderzon, assistant manager, presided informing those present of the administrative plans for the coming year.

Following this discussion Benja in Browne, management aide, discussed plans for developing community activities during the Winter and Spring.

Officers of the Tenant Council elected were: John Pool, president; Mrs. Rita Wallace, vice president; William Mangun, treasurer; and Mrs. Mary Gundy, secretary.

Business discussed by Charles Williams concerned the foundation of his Scout Troop, while Mrs. Cornelia Johnson talked relative to Cub Scouting and the Mothers club.

Baby Contest Sponsored by Nursery School Unit

The Interdenominational Nursery School Committee is sponsoring its annual baby contest Sunday, Nov. 4 at the Mount Olivet Christain Church, Fulton Avenue at Penrose Street. The affair gets under way at 4 p.m.

Bailey Goss, emcee of National Amateur Time, congratulates Daniel Comegys Jr, upon winning first prize in a Baltimore television amateur contest over a large field.

Daniel Comegys Jr., in Bid for Bright Musical Career

"Little man, with a big voice and bright future" describes Daniel Comegys Jr., 13-year-old talented tenor.

Daniel won first prize on Grand Finals night of National Amateur Time, a television amateur contest, sponsored by The National Brewing Co., and held Saturday, Oct. 6. He was selected by a representative of the original Amateur Hour.

Won $100 Bond

The youthful singer won the right to participate in the Grand Finals when he was unanimously voted a winner on a previous week telecast, receiving a $100 Savings Bond and other weekly prizes.

Bailey Goss, emcee of the program, announced that the Grand Final prizes included a guaranteed appearance in the near future on the Original Amateur Hour, conducted by Ted Mack on a coast-to-coast hookup, with an all expense trip to New York for two.

9B STUDENT AT BTW

Among other prizes will be a television set and a loving cup.

Daniel, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Comegys Sr., of 1701 Ashburton Ave., a 9B pupil at the Booker T. Washington Junior High School, is also currently studying voice at the Baltimore Institute of Musical Arts, Inc., under the tutelage of Frank Whitmore.

Debuted Two Years Ago

He has one other brother, Leroy. Mrs. Comegys, the former Miss Alice Pulliam, will accompany him on the trip. Mr. Comegys is a machine operator at the Western Electric Co.

Daniel made his first appearance with the Fa-Ho-Cha, a charity club, two years ago, and has since appeared on The Treasure Chest and High Time, TV programs.

With Eighth Army

Formerly with the "Old Deuce Four", the 24th Infantry Regiment, 25th Division, 1st Lieutenant William H. Finnie Jr., is now with the 1st Provincial Bn. Hq., 8th Army. He asked to be remembered to friends at Morgan State College, Baltimore.

Bids Granted for Morgan Projects

With ten construction companies competing for the jobs, bids were awarded this week for three improvement projects at Morgan State College.

The greenhouse and animal house for biology and zoology study will be constructed by the Cathedral Contractors which submitted a low bid of $49,888. The highest bid for this job was $65,513.

This same company won the job for construction of the garage and storage building with its low bid of $57,777. High bid was $83,373.

Areaway Planned

The job to provide the new areaway to Soper Hall was granted to Smith, Decorse and Christhilf Company with its bid of $9,826. High bid was $12,580.

The greenhouse will be erected on a plot behind Spencer Hall. The garage, for the campus lawnmowers, service trucks and cars will be erected on Arlington Ave. north of the heating plant. This will require that a 20-foot rocky ledge be blasted away.

Mrs. Mollie Moon to Address Local Urban League Guild

AT EBENEZER CHURCH

The annual Gospel Choir Day, will be observed at Ebenezer AME Church Sunday. Services will be at 11 a.m., 3 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

The Annual Sermon will be delivered at the 11 a.m. service by the pastor, Dr. William Taft Holland Sr. Theme: "The Holy Ghost."

Memorial services will take place at 1:15 p.m., with Mrs. Henrietta Whittington, directress, in charge. Remarks will also be made by Charles E. Buss, minister of music of Ebenezer Church, and Charles E. Butler, president.

Why do the big stars drink Schenley?

"THAT'S EASY," says Cab Calloway, king of heigh-de-ho. "Schenley is a finer, milder whiskey. It gives every drink a rich, mellow taste."

"YOU'RE SO RIGHT, CAB," agrees Lucky Millinder, popular band leader. "I always serve Schenley . . . and my guests expect it!" Why don't you try Schenley—the whiskey of the stars?
