IN THE CHURCHES.

The anniversary of the Juvenile Home Missionary Society and the celebration of Easter will be jointly observed by Christ M. P. Sunday school to-morrow (Sunday) evening. Beautiful Easter carols will be sung by the school, accompanied by an orchestra, interspersed with interesting missionary exercises.

The members of the congregations and their friends generally, are glad to welcome Dr. Graham and Dr. Barrett to Chestertown for another year's pastorate. Pomona and Mowbray are also delighted at the return of their popular pastor, Rev. O. B. Rice, as is also St. James and Lynch, Still Pond and Betterton and Kennedyville with their popular pastors. Kent Farmers Buy Farms.

Judge of the Orphans' Court James Bramble, has purchased a fine farm near Wilmington, Del., containing about 165 acres. The purchase was made last week. Judge Bramble has simply made the purchase as an investment, and will remain a resident of Kent county. It will be remembered that the Judge's two sons, Matthew and Herman, removed from Kent to Delaware this year, and there is a third son living in Wilmington.

Still another of our prominent farmers whose name we are not at liberty to divulge, is dealing for a fine 70-acre farm in Harford county, Md., and he and his estimable family will move there next year, much to the regret of their many friends.

Mr. Hopkins Burgess has purchased a farm near Abingdon, Harford county, and has removed with his family from Kent. Mr. Burgess' farm in the Fifth District, we understand, is for sale.
