Ground Broken for New Southside Playground

After Mayor D'Alesandro broke ground, Wednesday for a playground at Hamburg and Plum Sts., the South Baltimore Playground Committee, Inc. which initiated the project presented $3,777.89 to the city for its development.

The check was presented to Harold S. Callowhill, recreation department director by Mrs. Violet Wright, principal of School No. 121.

To Cover Two Blocks

With additional neighboring houses to be torn down, the playground, when completed will cover about 2½ blocks in the area between Howard and Sharp Sts.

During the ground-breaking ceremonies, the significance of the occasion and thecommittee's efforts through the years to make the playground possible were cited by Mrs. Dollie R. Walker, visiting teacher in the Department of Education.

Others who took part on the program were Mrs. Lucy Hammond, mistress of ceremonies; pupils of School No. 121 provided music; the Rev. William T. Holland of Ebenezer AME Church, the Rev. Thomas B. Davis of Leadenhall Baptist Church, who handled the devotionals.

GEORGE WILEY ELECTED

KINGSTON, R.I. — George A. Wiley, 19, of 192 Chestnut St., Norwood, has been elected president of the junior class at the University of Rhode Island.

'Quads' Gaining Weight Rapidly

It won't be long now before the surviving three of quads born to Mrs. Susie Avance will be ready to leave City Hospitals.

Officials at the hospital reported this week that the three babies "eat like little pigs," and the weights of two have topped four pounds. The infants must stay in the hospital until each weighs five pounds.

Little Arnold now weighs three pounds, eight and a half ounces; Emerson and Virginia both weigh four pounds, three ounces. Their sister, Gloria, died shortly after birth.

Born prematurely on Sept. 14, the surviving triplets have made a gallant fight for their lives. Mrs. Avance, who lives at 1425 Tenpin Alley, has five other children.

Moving Men Win Injuries Claim

A Court of Common Pleas jury, Tuesday, decided that the State Industrial Accident Commission must rule on the claim of two moving men who were injured on a job last April 3.

The SIAC had refused to allow the claim of the two men on grounds that they were independent contractors, and not employees of the company handling the moving job.

Appealed SIAC Ruling

The workers, Roland Lee Ballard of the 400 block N. Eden St., and Oswald Davis of the 1900 block E. Chase St., appealed the SIAC ruling through Hyman Pressman, attorney.

Mr. Ballard suffered a fractured skull and Mr. Davis, broken ribs and a head injury when a porch collapsed and they fell to the ground while working on the job.

Funeral Held for Victim of Moonlight Boatride

Funeral services were held, Sunday for Mrs. Mattie S. Anderson, drowning victim, who was pushed or thrown overboard on Sept. 7.

The body of the 23-year-old matron was identified seven weeks after the tragedy by her mother, Mrs. Louise Stewart, who gathered clues that led to the arrest of a suspect last week.

Under charges of causing the young woman's death is Joseph Ross Jr., 23-year-old married stable boy. He is being held without bail pending a State's attorney's hearing.

Officer Troy Made Arrest

Ross was arrested by Officer Jerome Troy in H. Alley near Eden St. where the suspect's father operates a stable.

The funeral services were held at the Isac Brown Funeral Home, 108 W. Montgomery St., with the Rev. George Baynard, pator of Shiloh Community Church, officiating. Burial was in Mt. Calvary Cemetery.

Went on Moonlight Sail

Mrs. Anderson was last seen alive as a passenger on a moonlight pleasure cruise sponored by an East Baltimore Social club.

Her body was found floating in the harbor two days later, and although the AFRO carried a story describing the clothing of the victim, the mother did not recognize the description.

Mrs. Stewart of 651 Dover St., said she had thought her daughter was visiting relatives, but when stories continued to circulate about her death, she launched a neighborhood inquiry which led to the arrest of Ross.

Police Investigate Dolphin St. Shooting

Northwestern district police are investigating the murder of a 47-year-old man found lying in the hallway of a house in the 500 block Dolphin St., shortly after 2 a.m., Thursday.

Miss Julia Norman, 38, who lives in the house, went to the police station and reported a "shooting at my house."

Police found William Morgan, lying on the floor unconscious. The man was pronounced dead at Provident Hospital.

Police are holding the woman for further investigation.
