NOTHING
BUT MADE-TO-MEASURE CLOTHES.

No ready-made, consequently, no stock to carry; no large upkeep, and, consequently, we are making clothes to order. Fit, quality and workmanship fully guaranteed. Same quality for less money than you can buy ready-mades. The large line comprising 500 styles of all wool suitings for Spring and Summer is ready for inspection—$12.60 the suit, gradually leading up to the finest imported fabrics. Ask some of the large number we clothed last year about this service and the price.

Respectfully,

W. E. MOODY, Chestertown, Md.,
Special Representative of the International Tailoring Co., of New York, Chicago and London.
Office under the Voshell House, next to Robert McWhorther's.

Senator Foxwell's Will.

The will of the late Senator Garrett Foxwell was probated in the Orphan's Court on Tuesday. It distributes an estate valued at about $40,000. The will creates a trust with Hope H. Barroll, Esq., as the trustee. The net income of the entire estate is left to his widow during her life. At her death the sum of $5,000 is left in trust for Mrs. Eva Foxwell Smith, who will receive the income of the same during her life time. Upon the death of Mrs. Foxwell the entire estate with the exception of the $5,000 left in trust for Mrs. Smith, is bequeathed to the Board of Visitors and Governors of Washington College to be used in the erection of a suitable building, either a library, domitory or any other suitable building which shall be known as the Garrett Foxwell Memorial Hall, and also to create five free scholarships for the benefit of worthy young men in Kent county. After the death of Mrs. Smith, the $5,000 held in trust for her is also to become a part of the bequest to Washington College. The Board of Visitors and Governors of the college are required by the will to accept the bequest in a suitable resolution within six months from the day of the testator's death. In the event that the Board of Visitors and Governors of the college fail to accept the bequest upon the terms and conditions prescribed in the will, within the time specified, then the entire estate is bequeathed to the Board of Visitors and Governors of St. John's College in Annapolis, upon the same terms and conditions as apply to the Board of Visitors and Governors of Washington College. And finally in the event that St. John's fails to accept the bequest within the time prescribed by the will, the entire estate is bequeathed to the trustee, Hope H. Barroll. In the event of the death of the trustee, pending the final settlement of the estate, provision is made in the will that the trustee's son, L. Wethered Barroll, Esq., shall succeed to the trusteeship. The will was dated September 8th, 1908, and was witnessed by Messrs. W. B. Copper and W. Robert Huey.

The total net receipts from the Relief Bazaar held last week in Firemen's Hall for the benefit of the Emergency Hospital and Old People's Home, amount to $605. The Country Store had the honor of having the largest receipts, the proceeds being over $160. The Relief Society now has to its credit in bank nearly $1,000, a snug nucleus around which to create a fund for the establishment of an institution in which everyone in this town and county should be greatly interested, because of the good it will do.
