THOMAS HAYES SCHOOL No. 102

The fourth grade class took a "trip" to the Sahara Desert through song and story after their study of this North African region.

Members of the class gave a special program centered about desert life and customs.

After a welcome by Roberta Johnson, Roland Jones pointed out the area of the map, explaining its geography to his classmates.

The class joined in singing "I Like to Ride On A Camel's Back." Edward Singleton and Blanche Dangerfield conducted a new words quiz.

Lantern Lectures

Dorothy Washington, Ada Fisher, Solomon Brown, Barbara Long, Melvin Weaver and Irene Yates gave brief talks with lantern slides serving as illustrations.

Dancers in the "Desert Dance" were Corlean Eggleston, Nancy Green, Ethel Cook, Ethel Jacobs, Barbara Wainwright and Elaine Brown.

Drum players were William Sewell, Richard Patterson and Willie Royster.

A playlet followed called the "Little Shepherds" in the cast were Carolyn Henson, June Gibson, Barbara Lucas, Clarence Thomas, Earl Driver, Wilhemina Robinson;

Fanny Black, Barbara Bollin, Norma Jackson and Virginia Curry.

Class members are:

Solomon Brown, Sherman Latimer, Willie Boyziee, Melvin Weaver, Willie Jackson, Barbara Bollin, Virginia Curry, Gertie Bishop, Nancy Green, Norma Jackson, Carolyn Long, Norma Robb, Donald Burley, Barbara Wainwright, William Sewell, Clarence Thomas, Fanny Black, Gloria Jackson, Corlean Eggleston, June Gibson, Carolyn Henson.

Roberta Johnson, Barbara Lucas, Hannah Shaw, Ann Roberts, Dorothy Washington;

Wendell Carter, Russell Crapper, Roland Jones, Eugene Woolford, Blanche Dangerfield, Irene Yates, Wilhemina Robinson;

Barbara Waterfield, Charles Coleman, Earl Drivers, Edward Singleton, Ethel Cook, Ethel Jacobs.

Parents present were Mesdames Armania Curry, Catherine Johnson, Goldie Wainwright, Susie Bisson, Dorothy Green and Gloria Jackson.

Mrs. Vera B. Glint is teacher of the class and Mrs. Anna L. Payne is principal.

JOSEPH C. BRISCOE VOCATIONAL SCHOOL No. 451

American Education Week (Nov. 11-17) will be observed at School No. 451 with a variety of activities, including a special assembly and open house.

Posters and displays of related and shop work of pupils will be on view in the classrooms and halls.

Open House will be held Nov. 14, 15 and 16 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. each of these days. Parents are invited to observe pupils and teachers at work.

Conferences with parents are scheduled for Friday, Nov. 16 from 3 to 4 p.m.

The assembly, featuring a radio skit "Our Schools Have Served Us Well," will be presented by the students on Thursday, Nov. 15 from 2:15 to 3 p.m.

The program is under the direction of Charles G. Lawson, assisted by Vincent Morris and Mrs. Vivian Moseley.

SCHOOL No. 138

Parents are invited to attend School No. 138's Open House on Nov. 14 from 7:30 to 9:15 p.m. and a special assembly on Friday, Nov. 16 at 1 p.m.

Both activities are part of the school's American Education Week observance.

Study of family life by classes of the school resulted in visits by parents of class members who described the types of work they are engaged in.

One such guest speaker was Albert T. Jackson, father of a first grader, who explained his work in the maritime service.

Worked on Steamer

Mr. Jackson told the classes that he worked on a trans steamer and that his job carried him all over the world. His position requires that he buy food for the voyages, enough to last the crew three months, the average length of time of his journeys.

While aboard ship, he sees that food is prepared and served adequately. He also supervises cleanliness of ship.

Mr. Jackson showed the children, mementos of his travels, including a Japanese music box, a toy rickshaw and milkman with wagon.

Among the first graders present were:

Frank Barrett, Joseph Dukes, Donald Fisher, Johnny Evans, James Griffith, Ryan Pillen, Lester Morris, George Hasson, Harold Williams, Ronald Bullock, Thomas Jackson, Lawrence Brown, Gerald Jones, Ronald Brown, John Mobley, Andrew Gray, Michael Wilson, Gerald Mitchell, Willie Thomas, Ernest Stokes, David Wickman, Carl Martin, Anderson, Joyce Brown, Sheila Christopher, John Kline, Ricky Green, Vandella Glover, Charlotte Kirkpatrick, Lillie Mae Jones, Patricia Lightner, Lee Johnson, Matthew Gamble, Yvonne Reid, Jeanette Hasson, Deborah Smith, Laurence Spicer, Doris Thornton, Vernon Thornton, Shirley Tillie, Joyce Wilson, Anthony Tent.

Mrs. Viola Moore is the teacher, Edward L. Murray is principal and Mrs. Lilly Stevenson is vice-principal.

FRANCIS WOOD SCHOOL No. 176

Parents and friends of the Wood school student body are invited by the faculty to visit the school during American Education Week. Open house will be held on Thursday, Nov. 15 from 12:30 to 3 p.m.

Mrs. Louise M. Dennis is principal.

SCHOOL No. 131

American Education Week activities are also planned at School No. 131. The pupil will present plays, the rhythm band is to perform and other programs are slated for visiting parents.

"A Good Record"

A graduate of Douglass High School in 1938, Mrs. Watson attended State Teachers College at Bowie for three years. She was appointed as a substitute teacher in February of 1942.

School officials said she has a good record as a teacher and that she taught last Tuesday before attending the police court hearing.

Reached by the AFRO, Mrs. Watson declined to comment on the case, except to say that it was "wrong." She referred all questions to her attorney.

Barbers and Beauticians to Hear Federal Agent

Benjamin Foreman of the Baltimore Social Security office, will speak to beauticians and barbers concerning the new law affecting their income at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday.

The meeting, sponsored by the Master Beauticians Association, will be held at the Beauticians Center on Madison Ave. Miss Mamye Tilghman is president of the association. Miss Minnie Mills, former local beautician and now a NYC nurse, will be a guest.

Apartments Over Church Spell Woe for Pastor

Charity, it was brought out in Housing Court on Nov. 6, does not always begin at home—or church, either.

Because the trustees of the Charity Baptist Church, 520 Aisquith St., had not improved unsanitary conditions in four apartments above the church, they were summoned into Housing Court to explain why.

Policeman John Reynolds had brought in the church members before on the same charges. At the first trial, a $50 fine was imposed by Magistrate Helene Elizabeth Brown.

Same Charges

This time, Magistrate Brown heard the same charges by Officer Reynolds. The church-apartment building, the policeman testified, has rotted flooring, uncemented yard, defective wiring.

The three story brick structure also has weak walls and faulty spouting.

Tenants are in danger of tumbling through the floors, said Officer Reynolds, and rain comes in a broken window in the rear.

Pastor was Defendant

The Rev. James Wilkins, pastor of the church and a week-day barrel factory worker, was defendant in the case as he managed the property for the church trustees.

He promised to correct conditions as quickly as possible, as did the trustees who appeared as witnesses. Magistrate Brown withheld verdict and gave Rev. Mr. Wilkins a warning to get it done right away.

Boys' Town Choir Agrees to Drop Epithet in Song

TAKES BALTIMOREAN'S ADVICE:

During a backstage discussion with the Boys' Town Choir, Wednesday night, members of the Baltimore Boys' Choir expressed concern that the epithet "d—y" had been used in the Boys' Town concert.

As Father Francis P. Schmitt, director of the interracial visiting group and William Meredith H. Birche Jr., director of the Baltimore choir conversed, Father Schmitt said that he didn't realize that the epithet was an insult, but he assured Mr. Birche that it will not be repeated.

Old Version Sung

The epithet was used in the old version of "Ol' Man River" as the Boys' Town Choir appeared in concert at the Lyric Theatre.

Afterwards, they received the 20 members of the Baltimore choir backstage and the two groups compared notes. The boys swapped souvenir programs, pictures and autographs and enjoyed the fraternization.

The Baltimore group included George Taylor, president of the choir; Thomas Chester, Earl Spicer, Calvin and Charles Breece, Austin Bennett, Melvin Parker, Clarence Byrd, Theodore Wilson, John Lewis, James Robinson, Charles S. Diggs and others.

This choir, which marked its tenth anniversary last year, will open the new season with a program December 16 at Douglas Christian Community Church.

Housed at Aberdeen

The Boys Town choir, now on tour in this area is traveling with 55 members, six of whom are colored.

Fearing difficulty in finding a place for the boys to stay together during their concerts in Baltimore and Washington, Father Schmitt had them housed at Aberdeen Proving Ground on Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

Woman Pleads Innocent in Flim-Flamming Case

Involved in the case of two detective charged with protecting confidence game operators, Mrs. Juanita Hemphill of Cleveland, Ohio, pleaded innocent, Wednesday, when arraigned on a flim-flam count.

The woman is among 10 persons with whom the two detectives were said to have conspired to permit flim-flam artists to operate in Baltimore.

The flim-flam charge against Mrs. Hemphill has been pending since December, 1950 when, it was said, she could not be located.

Sherry "Could Not Find Her"

Significantly, one of the officers listed as a "prosecuting witness" in her case was Lt. Henry Sherry who is one of the accused officers.

He is co-charged with former Lt. Joseph Bucher, now retired. Together, they are accused of taking over $5,000 in bribes from flim-flammers.

Mrs. Hemphill was extradicted from New York three weeks ago, and the 1950 case against her was re-opened. Judge Joseph Sherbow said he would appoint counsel to defend her.

$2,000 Swindle Claimed

She is charged with the $2,700 swindle of an elderly Catonsville woman on March 15, 1950.

Flim-flam artists usually work upon victims who believe the fast-talking strangers have found a purse loaded with money, and who hope to share in the "find" by putting up money of their own. In most instances, the victim is left with a pocketbook stuffed with paper.

Property Owners Get Increased Tax Rate

Property owners will be faced, next year, with higher taxes in view of the adoption, this week, of a $2.75 property tax rate.

The present rate is $2.62 for every $100 of the assessed value of property. The new rate, adopted Wednesday by the Board of Estimates, is a hundred higher.

Officials stressed the fact that the new rate will raise nearly half of the $110,559,508 to be appropriated in the 1952 general funds budget for the city.
