Plentiful Fall-Greens Aid Food Budgets

Low-Priced, Vitamin-Rich Greens Spark Fall Menus

By RUSSELL C. HAWES, Marketing Specialist

This is the season of vitamin-rich various types of fall greens.

These colorful greens include rape, kale, turnip tops, mustard escarole, broccoli, collards, and spinach. All f these fall-greens are in generous supply and low in cost.

Spinach is used by more people and is generally considered as the number 1 green. It is an old "standby," being used as a vegetable in 1551 and is thought to have originated in Persia. I's importance has increased since people have become vitamin and mineral conscious. Fall greens are rich in Vitamin A, have some B1, and niacin, and contain calcium, iron, and phosphorus.

Use in Salads

Besides being served cobked, fall greens are enjoyed by many in the raw—In a salad, as raw greens offer more nutritive value than cooked greens. Remember, any way you cook greens, use little or no water, cook a short time and serve them immediately. Nutritive values disappear rapidly after greens are cut, and especially if they are exposed to air very long. Fresh greens should be kept in the refrigerator, in a covered dish or bag. Leftover cooked greens also should be stored in a covered dish in the refrigerator.

Good Vegetable Buys

Other fresh vegetable economies this week include cabbage, celery, carrots, potatoes, and tomatoes. Tomato prices are lower due to liberal receipts from California. Cabbage from Pennsylvania and New York is in plentiful supply and low in cost. California celery and celery from nearby Pennsylvania, are in abundant supply and reasonable in price.

Although the white potato and cauliflower markets have strengthened, both items still are considered, in the list of fresh vegetables, reasonable in cost.

In fruits, apples continue to lead the parade. Several varieties are available, and all are low in cost. Florida oranges are now arriving in our markets. Grapefruit quality appears to be improving.

Pineapples are available and processed pineapple products recently have taken a drastic cut in price. Tokay grapes are in liberal supply, and low in cost. Cranberries are a November treat, and add color to many tables.

Pork and pork products, medium size eggs and chicken meat are reasonable in cost this week.

RECIPE

Carrot Molds

2 cups grated raw carrot
½ cup bread crumbs
2 eggs
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons melted fat
½ cup milk

Wash, scrape and grate the carrots, mix with the crumbs. Beat the eggs and add to them the salt, fat and milk. Add this mixture to the carrot and crumb mixture. Fill a greased ring mold or popover cups, set in a pan of hot water and bake in a slow oven (250-325 degrees F.) until firm.

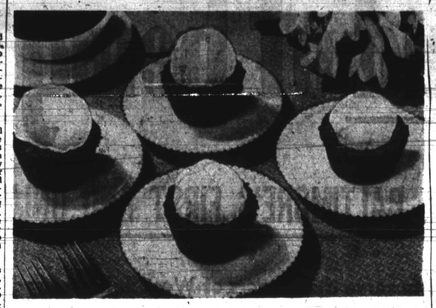
Easy to Prepare Macaroon Cups



Here is a quick, party-like dessert to serve your family. Baked chocolate macaroon cups made with sweetened condensed milk, coconut and chocolate can be prepared well ahead of time. Then at the last minute all you need do is spoon in ice cream you've bought at the drug or grocery store and pour on the rich mint - flavored chocolate sauce.

Acorn Squash with Rice

Tendy, fluffy rice is good anytime, but when paired with acorn squash and topped with a cheese sauce it is a combination which makes a delicious addition to any meal.

Served first as a main dish, again as a vegetable, this tasty recipe answers the question, "what can I have tonight?"

When left-over rice is used or when the stuffing is made ahead of time be sure to allow the squash to remain in the oven long enough to thoroughly heat the rice stuffing in addition to browning the crumb topping.

INGREDIENTS

1 large acorn squash
1 cup cooked rice
1 cup ground cooked ham
1 tablespoon minced onion
1 tablespoon parsley
½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
Dash of Tabasco sauce
1/3 cup milk
Fresh bread crumbs for topping
Butter or margarine for topping
Cheese sauce

PREPARING THE RICE

Put 1 cup of uncooked rice, 2 cups cold water and 1 teaspoon salt in a two-quart saucepan and cover with a tight fitting lid. Bring to a vigorous boil. Then reduce the heat as low as possible and steam for 14 minutes or until all the water is absorbed, leaving the separate rice grains with their full nutritional value. This makes very firm rice grains. (If you prefer more tender rice grains, add 1/3 cup more water and increase the slow cooking time 4 or 5 minutes).

Remove the lid, permit the rice to steam dry to the desired consistency and the grains will be separate and fluffy. Never stir rice, lift gently with a fork. Keep left over rice in a covered bowl in the refrigerator. Makes 3 generous cups fluffy rice.

METHOD

Cut the squash in halves or thirds depending on what size servings are desired. Cook in boiling water or pressure saucepan until tender. Mix the rice, ham, onion, parsley, Worcestershire sauce, Tabasco sauce and milk. Fill the centers of the squash with the mixture. Top with the bread crumbs and dot with butter or margarine. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until lightly browned. Serve with your favorite cheese sauce.

This recipe makes 2 or 3 generous servings, depending upon the way the squash is cut.

EGG AND OLIVES FOR POPULAR SANDWICH

Egg and olive sandwiches are popular and easy to do now that you can buy chopped ripe olives! If you're in a big hurry, hard poach the egg instead of cooking it in the shell. Then use your pastry blender to chop it. Add mayonnaise and seasonings to taste to the egg and olive mixture.

Elegant Dessert for Sunday Night

For Sunday night supper, the family is usually happy with a simple sandwich—provided there's an elegant dessert. Cherry waffle shortcake will be pronounced "absolutely wonderful."

To serve four, bake two golden waffles. Spread a thickened cherry filling over first waffle and cover with whipped cream. Place another waffle on top, cover with more cherry filling and whipped cream.

Cut in four sections and the family will do the rest. Waffle shortcakes are also excellent with fresh sweetened strawberries and fresh or canned peaches.

USE WAFFLE IRON FOR FRENCH TOAST

French toast is delicious when baked in a waffle iron. Serve with canned cling peach slices heated in maple syrup with a bit of butter added to it, too, for extra flavor.

Had High Time With Goblins and Witches

These were the guests at a Halloween party given by Allen Hinton and Charlene Carter.

One More Look — It's Empty

Gadabouting

from Mexico and served a Mexican supper.

Thereabouts for this party were Mr. and Mrs. T. Randolph Waters, Mr. and Mrs. John Fortune, Miss Temra Rodrigues and Wendell McNeil, in addition to the group at the first party.

REIDS HONORED

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Reid of Suffolk, Va. (he's national president of the Sportsmen), here for the Saturday affairs, were guests of honor at the dinner party given by his brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Albert O. Reid.

Later the Baltimore club entertained them at a closed party for Frontiersmen and their wives in the Adams' clubroom.

GOLFERS' BANQUET

Despite the rain and high water, some 80 guests waded to the Blue Room of the York Hotel, Friday evening, to share the banquet of the Monumental Golf Club, and found their efforts well paid for.

There was much speech making, a review of the golf case, and meeting the new officers, including:

Samuel Stewart, president; Vernon Terry, Aberdeen, vice president; Thomas Martin, Aberdeen, secretary; Walter Thomas, treasurer; Mrs. Morphelia Winston, financial secretary.

There were a number of out-of-towners to share the dinner, among them Mr. and Mrs. William Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Reece Reddick, and Mr. and Mrs. Columbus Hall of Havre de Grace, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Martin of Aberdeen.

And there was, of course, the trophy awarding.

The banquet was arranged by a committee headed by Mrs. Winston, who was assisted by Mesdames Margaret Brown and Marie Murphy.

With The Clubs

MONDAY EVENING SOCIAL LITES—met, this week, in the home of Mrs. Arlethea Thompson, 1340 Woodyear St.

Members present were:

Mrs. Nellie Harris, president; Mrs. Inez Tucker, treasurer; Mrs. Mary Willie, secretary; Mrs. Claudia Clark, Mrs. Jessie Johnson; Mrs. Hilda Hall, Mrs. Ethel Page, Mrs. Mary Wynn; Mrs. Willie Mae Edwards; Mrs. Rosa Whittington and Mrs. Edna Thomas. Plans were made for a Christmas party.

ATOMIC TWELVE — Members were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Jenkins, 2406 Barclay St., at this week's session. Prizes at pokeno went to Mrs. Eva Queen, first; Mrs. Evelyn Hudgins, second; and Norman Hudgins, the booby.

Howard Carter is president of the group and Mrs. Ethel Valentine is business manager.

THRIFTY — The savings club was entertained by Mrs. Pearl Pemberton, this week.

Members attending were:

Mesdames Mary P. Davis, Dorothy Ward, Viola Lee, Madeline Perry, Maize Wiggins, Marie Whaley, Gertrude Blackwell, Mary Black, Loraine Garrett, Melissa Neal;

Mr. and Mrs. James Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. Thelmon Browns, Stephen Mathis, and Selmon Brown.

The next meeting will be with Mr. and Mrs. Brown, 920 Russell St.

VELVETEEN — Met with Miss Arlethea Thompson, 1310 N. Woodyear St., this week, and discussed plans for a Christmas party.

Attending the meeting were Ruth Smith, Ruth Whytehead, Joan Johnson, Adelaide Watts, Mary Livers and Cordelia Carter.

The next meeting will be at 1340 N. Stricker St.

Our Army has them. Philadelphia has them. New York has them. Washington has them. Why can't Baltimore have colored firsts?

Hinton-Carter Party Gay

Allen Hinton and Charlene Carter were honorees at a Halloween party in the 2210 W. North Avenue club basement of their sister and aunt respectively, Mrs. Carol G. Fax.

Those who attended in bright costumes of every design and who participated in the hilarity were:

Charlene Carter, Allen Hinton, Frederick Barrack, Bernard Carter, Connie Hill, Doris Hill, Joseph Hinton, Arnold Horne, Gwendolyn Carter, Joan Carter, Linda Carter;

Patricia Carter, Ronald Carter, Sandra Carter, Ronald Dett, Patricia Dorsey;

Charles Fox, Ronald Franklin, Albert Gillis, Marsha Gillis, Hazel Horne, Wanda Lewis, Ober Malory Jr.;

The children were entertained by games, contests and stunts, the most exciting one being bobbing for doughnuts suspended from the ceiling.

Miss Minnie Dorsey, Mrs. Callie Hinton, Mrs. Bernice Carter, Mrs. Edith Shorter, Mrs. Lois Lewis, Mrs. Letitia Gillis and Miss Sallie Horne were the adult hostesses.

Urban League Guild Set for Women's Conference

Mrs. Lillian Hatcher of Detroit and Alexander J. Allen of Pittsburgh head the galaxy of speakers which will spark the program of the One-Day Conference for Women in Industry, to be held here, Saturday.

The conference will be held at the Madison Avenue Branch YWCA.

Registration will be held from 11:30 a.m. to Noon. Luncheon and a fashion show will be held from 12 to 1 p.m.

Panel Scheduled

The panel on "Toward A Cooperative Tomorrow" will begin at 1:30 p.m. Mrs. Hatcher will serve as moderator at this session, and speakers will include Mrs. Hilda Jones, who will discuss "My Job, My Responsibility;" John Hart, "Problems of Management" and Fred C. Nichols, "Pioneering New Horizons."

Consultants Listed

Mr. Allen will give the closing address, which is to be followed by a question period.

Consultants for the latter include Dr. Jutta Schaller of Munich, Germany, economist and lawyer, who is an exchange student under the Department of Labor; Mrs. Angela Bambace, Edwin Abbott, W. Albert Menchine, Louis Armstrong and Joe Neal.

The conference is being arranged by a committee of the Urban League Guild, headed by Mrs. Samona Nixon. Mrs. Clarence Monroe is president of the Guild and Furman L. Templeton is executive director of the League.

She Is "Fussy" About Clothes!

MRS. NETTIE BROWN

"I suppose you'd call me 'fussy' when it comes to choosing my clothes. Well, perhaps I am! When I buy a coat or a dress or even a blouse— I want it to be distinctive — and I don't want it to be expensive! That's why HENDIN'S is the store for me—and for many of my friends."

HENDIN'S specializes in pleasing women like Mrs. Brown of 2638 Guilford Avenue, who are "fussy" about their clothes! That's why HENDIN'S has established the policy of featuring styles that are EXCLUSIVE — ORIGINAL Hollywood and Paris creations — in Coats, Suits, Dresses and Accessories which you can buy ONLY AT HENDIN'S in Baltimore! They are styles that are truly distinctive —yet never expensive.

Someday, you too will visit HENDIN'S for the first time—and discover why HENDIN'S is Baltimore's foremost fashion shop for so many thousands of particular women.
