Beverlyville School Principal Honored

BEVERLYVILLE, Va. — Two dinners—one given by teachers of Beverlyville School and the other by the PTA—honored Miss Dudley, school last week in honor of G. L. K. Cowling, principal, who has resigned to accept a position in the State Department of Education in Richmond.

The Rev. H. M. Ruffin presided at the PTA banquet and speakers included Lucy Nelson, Page Lewis, C. H. Lindsey, William Lewis, M. Parks, H. Dudley, Mesdames D. C. Cowling, G. V. Taylor, L. W. Hunkerson and Miss Jean Hooper. Presentations were made by Mrs. L. Cheatham Taylor, Miss M. Queen, Mr. Taylor and William Curry.

Pennsylvania Avenue

LEST WE FORGET! The talk of the town is the George D. Tyler Night to be held at the Star Arena, 1634 Pennsylvania Ave., Tuesday, Dec. 4.

THAT WILL be the night when the stars of the clubs and musicals pay tribute to the late columnist by contributing their services for the benefit being given for his widow.

NOTHING COULD be finer than the spirit and co-operation shown thus far by the people George D. helped to make, or offered ever assistance to, the command, that they might help themselves.

THE CAUSE is a needy one.

THIS COLUMN appears brief this week due to the fact that extra efforts have been put forth by the writer to complete all details for your comfort and enjoyment on the night of December 4.

I HOPE TO Bee-Ceeing you there.

JAMES P. MOORE, well-known along the Stroll and around the Alhambra, will have a tall story to relate when he arrives from his present trip to the war zone where his ship was in collision with, and sank another.

LAST WEEK this column said that firing of civilian personnel at a nearby Army post would begin within two weeks. My spy, not with the FBI, reports that the order was countermanded this week. At least for the present.

"THE LORD GIVETH and Harry S Truman taketh away," reads a card handed me by Clarence (Coffee) Heath of the Maryland School of Printing.

THE AUTUMN Sports Special excursion to Big Town last Sunday carried many Baltimore-bna and Washingtonians. Among the Baltimoreans were:

WALTER DAVENPORT, Mrs. Margaret Foreman, the Merlin Clarks, the Chanels, Mathiney, L. S. Fords, Herman L. Coleman, Leonard Lyleess, Mrs. Ruby Gross, Mrs. Onedia Williams, John Johnson, Harry Jackson.

ALSO JOHN JOHNSON, Mrs. Stella Boyd, Frank Brown, Robert Hughes, E. B. Ross, Wilfred Berry, Anthony Powell, James H. Shelton, Marguerite Anderson and Clarence F. Powell, director of transportation.

EDWARD RIDGELY, 1816 Eutaw St. doing the spots on Tuesday night in preparation of leaving for Paris Island, S.C., on the 26th to do a hitch with the Marines.

MAYBE YOU haven't heard that Club 1017 is scheduled to change hands any day now. It will be an affiliate of the Alhambra Grill. The Burneses will take over Duke's Restaurant and Bar on the Upper Stroll. I only heard. Exchange figures are in the five digit bracket.

ISADOR B. OGLESBY, tenor, appears in concert at St. John AME Church, Carrollton Ave., Wednesday evening, Dec. 5.

BENNIE GREEN, the top dancer, is being asked to get in touch with the writer of this column.

"DETECTIVE STORY" at the Regent should be a "must see." "The Mob," at the Royal, and "The Racket," at the Met, all speak against organized, crime. Don't miss Louis Armstrong in "The Strip," now at the Hareem.

LOCAL UNDERWORLD worried over the report that Judge Sherbow's successor will be a teacher guy than he (Sherbow) is. "How can he?" one guy quipped.

LLOYD HART, Juanita Boone and Peggy among the Turkey Night celebrants at the Star Arena.

To Play at Tyler Benefit

Fats (Bob Bell), left, and Slats (Amos Baughns), one of the country's top twosome now in their fourth week at the Golden Mill after eight months down-town, will be among the featured attractions on the George D. Tyler Night at the Star Arena, Tuesday night, Dec. 4, giving out with their latest pop and what have you.

Also the two Marions, Washington and Bryan; Shirley Scott, Ameena Haffey, Alma Ashley, Shirley Hall, Lois Deers, and Dolores Smith.

ON THE STROLL—Lolise Jackson, John W. Smart and Clift Styles; Garnett (Tank) Budd, and Marion, Kenneth Barnes, "Butter-cup," and Sarah Johnson. Tiny Tilghman, the dancer, leaving for NYC on Dec. 6.

THE FIVE BARONS and John Dennis, pianist, opening Monday at the Comedy Club, replacing the Ray-O-Vacs.

AND, THAT'S AS FAR as we go. On and Off the Avenue next week, except to say it's more comfortable to be around the guy who "takes a number," than the guy who "takes a life."

Fats 'n' Slats, Tanfeet to Guest Tyler Benefit

Other Features Set for Gala Show
Set for Star Arena on December 4

The Internationally - famous vocal-instrumental duo of Fats and slats will be among featured artists to participate in the George Tyler Night, Tuesday, Dec. 4, at the Star Arena.

Fresh from Canada, and a record breaking stint at a downtown nightery, the popular duo is currently playing at the Olde Mill.

Among the starring combos to grace the bandstand during the night will be Flink Johnson's quintet from the Avenue, and Earl Hines's rhythm-combo from Club 811, plus guest stints by "name" groups from Gamby's and the Comedy Club.

H.U. Players Offer Dec. Play

WASHINGTON

The Howard Players will present "An Inspector Calls" by J. B. Priestley from Tuesday, Dec. 4, through Saturday, Dec. 8 at 8:00 p.m. in Spaulding Hall.

James W. Butcher, a drama department faculty member, will direct the play, a sphyrological melodrama of the conscience. It concerns a well-to-do family of 1912 which was incriminated by a shrewd police inspector for the death of a young woman.

The cast will include Edward Washington, Edward Jenkins, Ernest Downing, Roxie Roker, Mary Nelson, Ed Hall, Ted Lowe, Frances Thornton, Lillian Good, Edmere Winfield, T. Westly, and Betty Shad.

Owen Dodson and William Brown, also of the drama department, will design the set and work with the technical problems.

Lighting will be done by Gloria Foote; Martha Carr will design the costumes.

Reservations can be made by calling the Little Theatre box office, Du. 6100, ext. 517.

KRAMER FILMS

Composer Dmitri Tiomkin has checked in at Columbia for his assignment under a new three-picture-a-year contract with the Kramer Company.

Bureau of Music Concert Dec. 7, Free to Public

A number of persons interested December 7 by the Bureau of Music have asked what the admission charge will be. This comes the past, are free of charge, accert to other concerts given in conding to Earl F. Furnas, superintendent.

The concert, to be given in the auditorium of the Douglass High School at 8:30 pm.,

The Baltimore City Orchestra and Baltimore City Chorus will be conducted by Harrison M. Dodd one of Baltimore's outstanding musicians and directors.

Featured Selections

Included in the program will be: "March of the Meistersingers," "Blessed Are They," "Emperor Waltz;" "Sinper, Please Don't Let This Harvest Pass Over," ture to Die Fledermaus," "My Mother's Bed Time Song;" and many other outstanding musical selections.

Mr. Wilson will sing among other selections; "The Lord's Prayer," "M'appari Tutt Amor," and other familiar songs.

This concert will close the 1951 chorus. Rehearsals for the 1952 season will begin in January in preparation for the spring concert. A whole new concert and program will be presented with an outstanding cast.

This organization is one of the oldest groups of its type in the U.S. having started back in 1932 and has been presenting excellent musical programs for Baltimoreans since that time.

Bergman Horsey Buried in Oxford

OXFORD, Md.—A rally at Waters Church netted $118.35 Justinian Jay. The Rev. A. L. Scribe, recently returned from a two week vacation in Atlantic City and New York, delivered the service.

Bergman Horsey's funeral services were held at Waters Church Sunday.

Choir to Sing in Boston Church

BOSTON — The Bethune-Cookman College choir will be presented in a concert here, Monday evening, Dec. 3, at the Union Methodist Church.

The group is under the direction of Standard Cole, a native Bostonian.

The concert is being sponsored by the Inter-Alumni Council of the United College Fund of Boston.

In Memoriam

ARMSTRONG — In loving memory of my dear mother, MARGARET E., who passed away, November 21, 1941.

God made lots of beautiful things, Sunset and Roses and trees, Birch and starlight and loyal friends.

And after he made all these, He gave to the earth a gift more rare.

More loving and more true, Of all God's gifts the one most rare—

A Mother as dear as you.

Devoted daughter, ANNA KENLY.

BELL — In loving memory of my dear husband, JOSEPH E., who passed away one year ago, November 21, 1950.

Though I wept into the life above, The path we once loghther trod, I walk with angels hand in hand, For each leads nearer to you and God.

Devoted wife, MAE BELL.

BROOKS — In remembrance of our dear husband and father, LLOYD A., who passed away, November 22, 1946.

Five long years have passed since that sad day,

When the one we loved was called to pay

God took him, it was His will But in our hearts, he liveth still.

Loving wife and daughters, LOUISE, BROOKS, BERNICE TAFT and DOROTHY MILDROW.

CAVE — In sad but loving remembrance of my beloved son, DECATUR P. CAVE, who passed away seven years ago, November 22, in India in the service of his country.

I do forget, I can never,
It is vain for me to try,
I will miss you dear forever
I will meet you home on high.

His loving mother (MRS.) GRACE M. CAVE

HARRIS — In memory of my dear husband, DANIEL HARRIS Sr., who departed this life four years ago, November 22, 1947.

Those whom we love go out of sight But never out of mind.

They are always cherished in the hearts

Of those they leave behind.

Devoted wife MARY E. HARRIS

JONES — In loving memory of my dearest Mother, FLORENCE, who passed away, November 26, 1945.

Dearest Mother, you are not forgotten

Though on earth you are no more, Still in memory you are with us, As you always were before.

Devoted daughter and son-in-law, ANNETTA MAE and WILLIAM AV. DERSON.

REWELL — In memory of my dear husband, and our father, LEVI REWELL, who departed and passed away November 22, 1947.

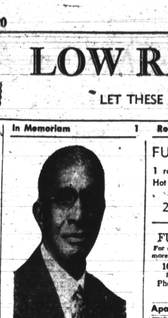
Keep him Jesus, in Thy keeping, Till we reach the Heavenly shore, Then O Master, let us have him, To love and keep him as before.

HIS LOVING WIFE AND CHILDREN.

SCOTT — In loving memory of GERALDINE SCOTT, who departed this life, November 25, 1950:

Sad and sudden was the call, Of one so dearly loved by all, A little grief, a short sad pain, We see her no more, but God sees her, often sit and think of you, And speak of how you died, To think you could not say good-bye, Before you closed your eyes. For all of us you did your best, Oh, God grant you eternal rest.

THE FAMILY and BRETHREN HALL.



WINSTON — In loving memory of the blessed life of REV. WILLIS J. WINSTON, who passed into his eternal rest, November 20, 1949. His unselfish life, human understanding, deep affection, will ever inspire and guide us.

The world may change from year to year
And friends from day to day,
But never will the one we love
From memory pass away.

His devoted wife, BERTHA WINSTON;
Nieces, BEATRICE WALKER, ANNA BEASLEY, and FAMILY.
