Broadcast Is Prelude To Miner Observance

WASHINGTON — Students of Miner Teachers' College will take an Saturday broadcast s tage, hale to their school's 100th anniversary, celebration, set for Dec. 8.

Six of the future teachers staged over Station WOOK, a dramatization of the conversation in which Miss Myrtilla Miner sought the aid of Frederick Douglass in founding the school.

The drama depicted Miss Miner appearing at Mr. Douglass's office and being told that he thought her idea was good, but not practical at the time.

Fresh from some bitter experience with his daughter, who had been turned down at a girls's seminary because of her color, Mr. Douglass termed Miss Miner's plan to set up such a school in Washington a "wicked" venture.

He was opposed to setting up a segregated school for colored girls.

Miss Miner had come to Rochester, N.Y., where Mr. Douglass was then living, from Mississippi, where she had been teaching plantation owners' children.

She had witnessed the deplorable way in which the slaves were treated, and had decided to do something about furthering their education.

She was a descendant of New Englanders, but a native of New York.

She started Miner on Dec. 6, six students, by dint of discouragements she had received from Mr. Douglass and others.

The cast consisted of Miss Jodella Johnson as narrator; Irving Washington as Mr. Douglass; Miss Jean Woody as Miss Miner; Maurice Watson as Joseph Holbrook; Doris Gladden as Phebe Hathaway, and Hosea Gowander as Arthur.

The broadcast lasted from 1:30 on 1 p.m. Dr. Paul Cooke instructed the students.

BALTIMORE After Dark

By THELMA ESTEP

A slight digression is in order this week, for instead of Baltimore I'm going to talk about New York—after Dark . . . It is possible that you may get a trip to the Big City for a Christmas present. If so, here are a few tips that will make your trip more enjoyable.

Make sure to write or call your favorite hotel early, for reservations . . . If you drive, do take the New Jersey Turnpike. Plan to have dinner at one of the Howard Johnson Restaurants, the food and service are superb. Try to travel in the daylight hours, keep awake and alert as there is much to be seen en route. The first night you arrive, REST. You'll be glad you did.

Don't Miss 'Sugar Hill'

After you've rested, plan your itinerary. Don't miss Larry Steele's show at the SUGAR HILL CLUB at 51st St. and 7th Ave. It is called "Smart Affairs at 1952" and the shows are 9, 12 and 2 o'clock. Make sure to call for reservations (Girls here's your chance to dress!)

Stop in at SUGAR RAY'S for celebrities and also Randolph's SHALIMAR. The "zang" really may be found at the THERESA BAR . . . For superb food and service try Frasier and Franks.

Do some WINDOW shopping on the immortal Fifth Avenue. While there visit the Museum and the Public Library . . . Be sure to visit the Statue of Liberty.

For the Ladies

Especially for the ladies, I noticed that . . . Skirts are noticeably shorter, a crinoline is a must, and if you're buying a coat for informal wear, get something voluminous, colorful and untrimmed. Bags are smaller, closed pumps are definitely in, and somewhere some how manage to get something in BLACK velvet, also get at least a scarf in DEEP purple.

For the gentlemen . . . Navy blue and gray seem to be THE thing. Fullness in the overcoat, rather than the conservative straightness is in order.

Sugar Ray is sporting the cutest goatee (?) Duke Ellington is sporting bags under the eyes, Sarah Vaughan has a new hairdo and Josephine Baker goes into the Apollo Theatre Dec. 19 for nine days . . . Al Bundy, who just closed a long time engagement at the Shalimar, may now be heard at our own CLUB 1017 nightly . . . Show business is definitly at a stand still in New York; everyone very discreetly sounds you out as to potential jobs in Baltimore.

Back to Comedy Club

FLASH! Those who desire to be chorus girls and have what it takes should apply to the Sugar Hill Club in New York City . . . The COMEDY CLUB has the Five Barons, while over at the CLUB Orleans the Concords hold forth nightly. The before - Christmas doldrums have hit the Layers in business.

Kingston Pye, former mixologist was seen doing the fun-spots this week . . . That radiant smile on the face of Lucille Diggs is 'cause Willie is back . . . The food in the CASINO is superb and for superb entertainment try GAMBY'S . . . Don't forget to nominate your favorite spot for Tavern of Our Town. By the way have you visited PHIL'S yet? . . . A special treat is being arranged for the barmaids and waitresses. More about it when I see Lena Horne.

Marie's Smiles Return

Marie Winfield of CLUB 900 is all smiles these days and there was a time when she thought she'd never smile again . . . Bill Parker is a familiar figure on the Avenue after dark, with special emphasis on the COMEDY CLUB . . . Down Myrtle Avenue and Saratoga Street way, BERNE and his efficient staff is ready, willing and anxious to help you spend a memorable evening.

Something should be attempted to get the customers out during the week nights. You miss the human interest angle when you wait until week-ends . . . Everyone is rushed, seating space is at a premium and in general the atmosphere is a bit strained.

Try coming out earlier in the week, you'll like it . . . Gosh, it gives you a good feeling to see role in the picture, "Detective Story."

Charlie Burns of CLUB 1017 says he is willing to take a chance on whether we want a decent dining spot or not . . . Is there a story connected with the Ernice Rogers-"Stu" Crawford gadabouting?

By the way, let me know about your favorite Tavern of Our Town. I'm on page 154 of the Telephone Directory.

Nipsey Russell Spins On WLIB

NEW YORK — Nipsey Russell, who conducts WLIB's Uptown Coffee Club program, which has been a week, started out in showbusiness at the age of twelve as a song and dance impersonator.

Nipsey, whose sobriquet is "Harlem's Son of Fun," played with the South's foremost Traveling show "Silas Green from New Orleans" for two years.

"Silas Green" is a tradition in the South that has been running continuously for over 50 years. Such great stars as Bert Williams, Johnny Hudgins, and the Gaines Bros. are alumni of the famed road show.

Native of Atlanta

Born in Atlanta 38 years ago, Nipsey was taught to dance almost as soon as he learned to walk. His mother, also in show business, wanted Nipsey to start his training for the footlights early. Andy Fairchild, an old friend, discovered that Nipsey was not only a born dancer, but also has a marvelous sense of timing and started Russell on the road toward becoming a comedian.

Nipsey has played most of the leading vodvil theatres across the country, including an engagement last year at New York's famed Palace Theatre.

Made M.Y. Debut in 1946

Nipsey came to New York in 1946 after a five-year period of service in the U.S. Army where he compiled a war record of eight battlefield stars and a battlefield commission.

Once established in New York, his talents became eagerly sought after. He became emcee of the famed weekly Amateur Night at the Apollo Theatre, and recently was signed to a long-term contract as emcee of one of Harlem's top night spots, the Baby Grand.

Russell made his TV debut last year with several guest appearances on top network shows as the Ken Murray and Robert Q. Lewis programs.

THE RAINS CAME!

A small crowd of entertainment lovers braved the Tuesday night's deluge to witness the George D. Tyler Night at the Star Arena.

THE ENTERTAINERS were not stopped, however. They turned out en masse to pay tribute to a former booster, and did they carry on!

'TWAS PLENTY OF variety. The music was of the best the combos could give. The vocalists did themselves proud.

CITY-WIDE NIGHTERIES co-operated 100 per cent in allowing their featured artists to appear.

THE FEW IN attendance got a real kick when Don Barksdale mounted the bandstand and gave out in his own inimitable way.

Redd Foxx, well - known along the Stroll, and partner, of Melvin White, made a "sneak" appearance.

THIS COLUMN'S THANKS go out of those who lent their talents and services in any way. Especial thanks to The Special Police Associates of Baltimore, headed by Wendell P. Miller.

PERSONNEL OF THE group, in addition to Mr. Miller, included: Joseph C. Hall, Harry Manley, Francis Johnson, David Solomon and Joseph Parker, who were alert.

DEBORAH KESSLER and part in keeping order in the Arena, of the Orioles dropped in to look over the affair. The boys have a few days off for a breathing spell.

ON THE AVENUE — Officer Milton Gardner has been assigned to a post along the Avenue. . . While Dizzy Davis looks like his old self. . . Many of the former "pick-up" boys have taken short jobs.

THE TEX NEWBY-Eddie Marshall 11-round bout at the Coliseum on January night should prove something since it's a rubber match. "Eleven rounds," that's right.

SHIRLEY CHARLTON, nee Whitlee, behind the counter at the Town Store. Her mother, Delores, long time at the Casino, now at Little Willie's up Sugar Hill way.

AS IF YOU didn't know, P.M., that's a Northwest spot, has changed its license to a ten seater.

TANK AND HIS "Yellow Cat" breezing and purring along the Avenue with the greatest of ease . . . Lionel Hampton due at the Coliseum soon. Watch for "Magic Face" coming to the Royal. It's a factual story about Hitler.

MEETING ATTENDING the Chesapeake's open house still raving over the beauty of the place . . . Fatz and Slats, long time at the Olde Mill, pull up stakes this week to travel on.

THE FIVE BARONS at the Comedy Club a too bad opinion. . . John Dennis, pianist, made a mid-week jaunt to Big Town.

AL LIBOWITZ, injured in a wreck this week in which two others died, and his little daughter was critically hurt, formerly operated the Starlite Arena. Before it changed to Star Arena.

BOB-M'EWEN, Sir John Schenley man, doing the spots and making many friends among the sip boys, and snapping a few pictures.

SWINGIN' THE TUNES—While the Bass Davis combo switches to the Olde Mill, replacing Fatz and Slats, the Torch Blazers move into Lionel Lanvale St. bistro to keep the rhythm aglowing at both ends.

AND, THAT'S AS FAR as we got On and Off the Avenue this week.

Rain 'Kills' Benefit But Widow To Get $334 Purse

Local entertainers and musicians lived up to show businesses' tradition, Tuesday night, that the "Show Must Go On."

More than 50 dared the extremely rainy night to appear on the George D. Tyler benefit at the Star Arena, which was "washed out" as far as patrons' attendance was concerned.

Including advance sale of tickets and a $50 cash contribution on Tuesday by the Arena, the widow of Mr. Tyler will benefit to the extent of $334, thus far with further ticket reports due.

The AFRO-AMERICAN underwrote the expenses of $125 for Arena rental.

Franklin Handled Show

Bill Franklin, of radio station WSID emceed the affair.

An all - girls skating revue opened the show. Featured were: Essie and Alice Johnson, Gloria Bridges, Shirley Armstrong, Delores Divers, Doris Worsley, Byrdie Simon, Florence Bazzle, Dorothy Johnson, Catherine Thomas, Delores Smith, Shirley Hall and Ameena Hafeez, with Sammy Samuelson, Sonny Johnson and David Solomon, of the Arena supervising the floor.

Performing Entertainers

Among the entertainers and musicians appearing were:

Flink Johnson's combo, from the Avenue Cafe; Fatz and Slats, Olde Mille, Five Barons, Comedy Club, Cecelia Cox, Tan Feet Hines's combo, Club 51, Tony, interpretative dancer; Bennie Green, tapper; Bobby Boyd, strip-tease; Redd Foxx, of the comedy team of Foxx and White.

The Varitones, Phil's cocktail lounge; Jimmy Carter, vocalist, Club Zanzibar; Norman Edmonds, featured on the Bailey Goss show (WMAR-TV); Parthena Butler, vocalist;

Don Barksdale Event

Among the guest stars were: Hot Rod, radio station WITH; Johnny Reed, bass player of the Orioles, and Don Barksdale, of the Baltimore Bullets.

Also contributing their services were seven members of the Special Police Associates of Baltimore, headed by Wendell P. Miller.

Other members were: Joseph C. Hall, Harry Manley, Charles Lawson, Francis Johnson, David Solomon and Joseph Parker, the latter manager of the Arena.

Two Contributes Cash

Cash contributions of $10 came from Bertie Brooks, Mt. Winan, and Theophilus Jones, 1724 W. Lanvale St. Other contributions by taverns and night clubs were the purchase or sale of tickets and the lending of talent.

The bulk of the proceeds will be applied to mortgage on the home of the widow after a cash donation to her.

HOLLYWOOD — (ANP) — It made me very happy to hear a newscaster say: "Dorothy Dandridge made her debut at the exclusive Black Hawk Hotel in San Francisco, with the greatest success that has ever been seen there.

"Critics, on the morning papers are already predicting that the beautiful Miss Dandridge will surpass Lena Horne in fame and popularity with the American public."

Many Films Rolling

"Red Ball Express" at Universal-International, "The I Don't Care Girl" at 20th Century-Fox, the "Korean Story" at RKO-Pathe, "Tarzan's Savage Fury" by Sol Lesser productions, and some retakes and added scenes in MGM's "skirts Ahoy," are the principal films in which tan stars have been working as bit players or atmosphere players.

Kick-off For WUST Christmas Drive

Radio Station WUST's drive for food, clothing and toys to help make Christmas merrier for needy Washington families got a big send-off, Wednesday night, at the opening of its booth in front of the station's studio in the Republic Theatre.At left is Michael Graham, director of the drive, looking on as Band Leader Buddy Johnson presents the first $5 contribution to WUST Disc Jockey Harold Jackson (right). Also shown is entertainer Dusty Fletcher.

Orchestra, Chorus Concert Tonight at Douglass High

The long awaited winter concert of the Bureau of Music will be presented this evening (Friday) in the auditorium of the Douglass High School at 8:30.

Conducted by Harrison M. Dodd, the Baltimore City Orchestra and Chorus will present to the public a most interesting and delightful program.

The guest soloist for the evening will be the young Baltimore tenor, Robert Wilson, possessor of one of the finest voices ever to come to the attention of the Bureau of Music.

This concert is open to the public and all are invited to attend.

With this concert the Baltimore City Orchestra and Chorus will close their 1951 season. Rehearsals for next year will begin after January 1.

You Can Win A $10,000 Note

How would you like to win a $10,000 bill?

Columbia Pictures is offering that amount if you can disprove, of the character in the film, "The authentically, the impersonation "Magic Face," to be shown soon at the Royal Theatre.

"Magic Face" is the story of Hitler during World War II as told to William (Bill) Shier, newsman by Eva Braun, Hitler's sweetheart.

Luther Adler is the star of the picture, which includes scenes inside the German Command and behind the Iron Curtain in Russia.

Dave Lustin, Columbia representative, is in town this week displaying the $10,000 note which was obtained from the Maryland Trust Co. here.

In making his rounds of the theatres and the AFRO, Mr. Lustig was accompanied by A. A. Anderson, uniformed, armed member of the Kooney Dectective Agency, as bodyguard, and Malcolm Bishop, spiritualist, who proves the authenticity of the big denomination bill.
