Better Mail Facilities.

Some weeks ago Hope H. Barroll, Esq., and a number of large business interests circulated a petition to the Postoffice Department through Congressman J. Harry Covington asking for better mail facilities from Chestertown to Baltimore in the afternoon. Prior to Congressman Covington's efforts in this direction the afternoon mail for Baltimore was held in Philadelphia or Wilmington until the following morning causing great delay and inconvenience to the business interests here. On Thursday Mr. Barroll received the following letter from Congressman Covington :

HOPE H. BARROLL, ESQ.,
Chestertown, Md.

DEAR BARROLL :

I am glad to be able to inform you that I have just received a note from the Second Asst. Postmaster General, advising me that arrangements have been made whereby mails leaving Chestertown at 3.10 P. M., will be due to arrive at Baltimore on the train scheduled to reach that place at 7.35 P. M. He says that such a schedule will afford the people of Chestertown with the desired improvement in mail service. I am very glad indeed to have been of service in this matter. With kindest personal regards, I am,

Very truly yours,
J. HARRY COVINGTON.

A FINE DONATION.

Tendered Rev. Dr. Graham by The Members and Friends of His Church.

The members and friends of Christ M. P. Church gave their pastor, Dr. W. R. Graham, and his family a large and substantial donation at the parsonage on Wednesday evening. The pantry was filled to overflowing and good cheer filled the entire household. There was a larger attendance of the membership and friends of the congregation than for many years, and it was a most enjoyable occasion. Mr. Charles L. Dodd, president of the Board of Stewards of the church, made the following appropriate presentation speech :—

DR. GRAHAM, FAMILY AND FRIENDS—We have assembled here this evening, which is a most pleasant and agreeable occasion to all.

We have come to show forth in some small degree of appreciation our sincere devotion and fidelity to you and yours for your faithful services as pastor of this charge, and further beg to assure you that your return to us as pastor by the conference for another year is fully approved and welcomed by all.

In the days of our Saviour on his return to Jerusalem we are told that the multitude spread their garments in the way, others cut down branches from the trees and strewed them in the way and further declared by exclaiming, "Blessed is He That Cometh in the Name of the Lord."

And we, to-night, in welcoming your return to our beloved zion and city as the Ambassador of Christ greet you with our small offerings, hoping to express in some measure our love and gratitude for your past efforts that have been blessed with so much success, and beg further to assure you it is with just pride that we refer to the wonderful achievements of the past year. Our church finances never were raised easier or with less trouble, which is no exaggeration, as our experience of the past well fortifies me in saying, and fully indicates our church's condition which should be an inspiration to all for greater things this conference year. Feeling confident that the future will open up greater things and more glorious and greater still will be your achievements this conference year.

To doubt it would be to falter and forget the wonderful results accomplished in the past which inspires us and gives assurance that higher ground and greater heights can be obtained. And with that inspiration that comes with success to every true soldier we question not the future, and further assuring you of our determined and continued co-operation with you as our leader, we question not the result. Neither will we stumble while performing our duty if we but stand together shoulder to shoulder, being ever mindful of our Saviour's assurance—"All Things whatsoever Ye Shall Ask in Prayer Believing Ye Shall Receive."

Assuring you I am voicing the sentiment of the church, we again welcome you and yours to our beloved church and homes. Yea, thrice welcome to you!

The pastor responded graciously and with feeling. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Base Ball Notes.

Washington College won a game of base ball last Saturday from Mt. St. Mary's that was characterized by hard hitting and loose playing by both teams. At the outset of the game it looked as though Washington College would win the game hands down, but in the sixth inning the Mt. St. Mary's team put on their batting clothes, and they pounded Biddle's offerings all over the lot, one of which was the longest hit ever seen on Washington Field, and went for a home run. Biddle was taken out of the box and Bowen went in. He pulled himself out of a bad hole, by retiring the side with three men on bases. Washington College got busy in its half of the sixth inning and before the nightmare was over they had piled up six runs, tied the score and put the Mt. St. Mary's pitcher on the bench. The locals went on from that period and won the game by good batting, and at the close of the eighth inning when the game was called to enable the visitors to catch their boat at Tolchester, the score stood 11 to 9 in favor of Washington.

Washington College crossed bats with Rock Hill College yesterday afternoon at Ellicott city, and today they play their old rival, St. John's, at Annopolis.

Frank Jarman, the crack Washington College pitcher, who has been with the Baltimore International League team for two years, has been "farmed" to the Wilmington Tri state League team. Manager Dunn decided that Jarman is not quite right for the Interational.

The Chestertown High School team and the second team of Washington College will cross bats on Washington field this afternoon.

William Smith's team defeated the Pomona "Kids" last Saturday 9 to 5. Mananger Smith is a hustler and he says his team must practice and learn team work or some body will lose his job.

Chestertown High School defeated Kennedyville at the latter place last Saturday, score 5 to 4.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

DENNIS—VALUE.

The marriage of Miss Mary Foote Value, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Burnside Value, of Worcester county, Md., formerly of Elizabeth, N. J., and Alfred Pearce Dennis, of Princess Anne, took place at 7 o'clock on Thursday evening of last week at Christ Protestant Episcopal Church, Baltimore. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Roland Cotton Smith, rector of St. John's Church, Washington, D. C., and the rector, Rev. Edwin Barnes Niver. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin trimmed with old lace and pearls, her tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of lillies-of-the-valley. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Betty Value, of New York, as maid of honor. Samuel K. Dennis, of Baltimore, was best man. The ushers were : James U. Dennis, of Baltimore; Philip C. Dennis, of Pocomoke, Md.; Burnside R. Value, of Sandwich, Mass.; John Dennis McMaster, of Jersey City, N. J. After the ceremony a family reception was given at the apartments of Miss Aimee Toler, a cousin of the bride, at the Mount Royal, Baltimore. The bride and bridegroom sailed from New York on the Arcadian for Bermuda and after June 1 will be at home to their friends at their residence in Princess Anne. Among the large number of out-of-town guests were Judge and Mrs. James Alfred Pearce, of Chestestown, relatives of the groom.

George Erskine, one year House of Correction, selling whiskey.

Jervis Lively, one year House of Correction, selling whiskey.

Oscar Warwick, one year House of Correction, illegal use of team.

Arthur Coleman, six months in Penintentiary.

George Williams, one year House of Correction, stealing meat.

Sam O'Neil, four months House of Correction, vagrancy.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

THOMAS FRANK YATES.

Mr. Thomas Frank Yates died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harry R. Graham, on Front street, at 9 20 o'clock on Thursday evening of paralysis, aged 70 years. The deceased was a native of Leonardtown, St. Mary's county. At the age of 18 years he engaged in the printing business, and for forty years he was associated with the late Frank King and his son in the proprietorship of the St. Mary's Beacon, one of the strongest Democratic papers published in Southern Maryland. At the outbreak of the Civil War, Mr. Yates enlisted with Company K of the First Virginia Cavalry, commanded by Gen. J. E. B. Stuart, of the Confederate army, and he saw active service during the Civil War in the Confederate army and came home with scarcely a scar. Ten years ago Mr. Yates retired from business and came to Chestertown where he had made his home with his son-in-law, Mr. Harry R. Graham. He never failed, however, to spend a part of the year with his sons in Baltimore and his daughter in Washington.

The deceased was a splendid gentleman. His genial manner and typical southern cordiality made him very popular with a host of friends here as well as in his native town. During his residence here he had kept in touch with his vocation by assisting in the TRANSCRIPT composing room, and his knowledge of the art of printing was extensive. We esteemed him as one of our friends; we shall miss him because of his willing assistance. He is survived by two daughters—Mrs. Harry R. Graham, of Chestertown, and Mrs. Edward Cryer, of Washington, D. C.; and two sons, Messrs. J. Ford Yates and Benedict F. Yates, of Baltimore. The remains will be taken to Leonardtown this morning by way of Tolchester, where interment will be made in the family burying ground of Our Lady's Chapel, in Medley's Neck on Sunday afternoon. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson will have charge of the funeral arrangements.

MRS. FANNIE HODGES.

Mrs. Fannie Hodges, a well-known lady of Piney Neck, died at her home on Thursday of last week. The deceased had been a sufferer for many years, but she bore her suffering with patience. A sad remembrance in connection with the death of Mrs. Hodges is recalled in the harrowing drowning accident which happened to both her husband and son at the same time some eight years ago. It is believed that the terrible shock was the cause of Mrs. Hodges' long illness. She leaves an aged mother, Mrs. Maria Shriver, one daughter, Mrs. J. Crouch, and two brothers, Henry Jones and Carroll Shriver; also one sister, Mrs. Mary Collier of Rock Hall. Funeral services were held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of her daughter, conducted by Rev. J. W. Prettyman. The pall-bearers were : Messrs. L. A. Crouch, Romie Crouch, John and Wm. Frazier, Harry Hudson, and Wm. Hyland. Undertaker Casey Bros. had charge of the funeral arrangements.

REV. GEORGE W. BURKE.

The Rev. George W. Burke, aged 80, a retired minister of the Wilmington Methodist Episcopal Conference, died in Smyrna, Del., last week. He was admitted to the Wilmington Conference in 1865. He had filled charges at Berlin, Kent Island, Marydel, Hillsboro, Millington and St. Michaels, Md., Onancock, Virginia. Mr. Burke is survived by a widow, two sons, the Rev. E. W. Burke, Reading, Pa., and George W. Burke, of South Bend, Ind., and two daughters, one of whom is the wife of Mr. Edward Lambert, of Easton, formerly of this town.

MRS. WILLIMINA CHAMBERS.

Mrs. Willmina Chambers, wife of Rev. J. Taylor Chambers, died in Baltimore May 6, aged 63 years. Her remains were brought to Kennedyville yesterday morning and buried at Shrewsbury, the rector of Shrewsbury Church, officiated. The pall-bearers were : Messrs. John M. Comegys, George Sutton, Wm. T. Crow, John H. Clendaniel, Robert Kennedy and Wm. Janvier. Charles L. Dodd funeral director. Mrs. Chambers resided at Shrewsbury with her husband who was rector there about twenty years ago.

MRS. ADELAIDE H. HEPBRON.

Mrs. Adelaide H. Hepbron, widow of George W. Hepbron, died at her home in Wilmington, Del., on Monday, aged 76 years. Funeral services were held from her late residence, 803 Bennett street, on Tuesday evening at 7.30 o'clock, and interment was made in Still Pond cemetery on Wednesday. The deceased was well-known to the people of Kent, her husband having been related to the Hepbron family, one of our oldest and most highly esteemed families.

MRS. MARY J. MEREDITH.

Mrs. Mary J. Meredith died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Richard Haggerty, Kennedyville, on Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock, aged 74 years. The funeral will take place to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Frank S. Cain officiating. Interment in M. P. church yard. Undertaker Wm. H. Krusen in charge.

Prize Flag Contest With P. O. S. of A.

The State Executive Committee of the Maryland Patriotic Order Sons of America is a body of energetic workers. No time is wasted nor is an opportunity allowed to pass unimproved. Circulars have been distributed which give notice that a splendid prize flag will be given the camp on the Eastern Shore that initiates the most members by July 1st next.

Camp 34 will enter into this contest with energy, and we presume other camps will do the same. Camp 34 has a membership of 180 and with only about five who are not in good standing. This camp is in splendid financial condition, and is proud of the excellent work it has done in this community, and, which it continues to do. It has over $600.00 in the treasury and has met all claims promptly. She expects EVERY member to bring in a good citizen for membership. Do it now.

J. FRANK WHEATLEY, Sec.

IN MEMORIAM.

In fond remembrance of our father, C. A. Little, who departed this life April 29, 1911.

Fairer scenes and brighter hopings,
Weans us from the world to-day,
To a land of pure delighting,
Where our dear father has gone to stay;
To the home of the immortal,
Far above the silent tomb,
Where the pleasures are eternal
And the roses ever bloom.

—Sadly missed by daughter and son,
EMMA AND CHRIS VOSHELL.
