THE HUB, MILLINGTON, MD.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

Past State Councilor W. F. Malin, of the Junior Order United American Mechanics, went to Frostburg last Friday to help initiate a class of 128 into the mysteries of the order.

Mrs. Jacob Shirley, on the Lofland farm, in the Fifth District, who was operated upon in a Baltimore hospital last week for appendicitis, is getting along well, we are glad to state.

Former Senator James H. Baker, one of the county's most prominent citizens, as quite sick during the week, was in town Wednesday able to mingle among his many f iends.

Mrs. Harrison W. Vickers and daughter, Miss Rose, have removed to her country home, Lauretum Place, near town, for the summer.

Mr. Clarence Gale, who is one of the resident engineers of the State Roads Commission, having charge of the State road in Talbot, Caroline and Queen Annes, has been promoted to B. ltimore, Anne Arundel and northern Prince George's territory. Mr. Gale is rapidly rising to the top in his profession.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Copper attended a meeting of the National Banking Commission, of which he is a member, at Hot Springs, Va., last week. Out of a total membership of 82 throughout the country, there were 72 members present at the convention.

Auctioneer John H. Greenwood has been visiting his sons in Philadelphia during the week.

Mr. John Hillyard, of Wilmington, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Webster McIntire.

Misses Fannie and Elizabeth Stuart entertained a number of friends on Saturday afternoon from four to six.

Mr. Wm. Embert severely cut several of his fingers last week while operating a new tobacco cutter.

Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes and daughter, Miss Eloise, visited friends in Philadelphia this week.

Mrs. Leonard Needles has gone to the State Sanitorium for the benefit of her health. We trust that Mrs. Needles will soon be restored to health.

Mrs. Ida Wright of Baltimore, is the guest of Mrs. P. J. Cooper.

Mr. Joseph Guest returned to Chestertown this week and visited his friends here and in Church Hill. Mr. Guest will spend the summer in Denver, Col.

Rev. Mr. McGinness, rector of St. Paul's, who was operated upon for appendicitis last week, is improving, we are glad to state.

Messrs. Eugene Gooding and Bernard P. Wess, of Baltimore, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Massey, in Queen Annes.

Mr. Allie Elliott, of Baltimore, spent the week-end a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Elliott. Mr. Elliott came from Tolchester on a handsome new "Flying Merkle" motorcycle and made the trip up from the Beach in sixteen minutes. The machine is a double-seated affair and Mr. Elliott took a number of our people for rides on the State road, who will testify that the machine can "go some".

Mr. Owen B. Crow returned home last week from the State Sanitorium looking well. His many friends were glad to see him.

Mrs. George W. Jones, of Galena, went to Baltimore on Monday to attend the funeral of her brother, who died on Saturday.

Mr. James Hicks, of Galena, and Miss Ethel Little, of Wilmington, were married last week. They will reside in Galena.

Mrs. Merritt Brice has returned to Millington after a visit to her mother, Mrs. T. Romie Strong, near Rock Hall.

Miss Eva Connelly returned home last Saturday from Baltimore, where she had been recuperating from an operation for appendicitis. Her many friends were glad to see her looking so well.

New Health Laws Broad.

On July 1 the new Board of Health laws passed by the recent General Assembly go into effect.

Dr. John S. Fulton, in addition to being secretary of the State Board of Health, will become the State Health officer. The State will be divided into 10 sanitary districts, each with a deputy health officer in charge, and the power and authority of the health officials will be so greatly enlarged as to put Maryland among the most progressive States in the Union so far as legislation for the benefit of the public health is concerned.

So sweeping are the powers conferred upon the State Board of Health and its officials that should these powers be used arbitrarily and unreasonably the general objection that might result would, in the opinion of some, cause a reaction and do much to defeat the object of the new laws.

SOME OF THE PROVISIONS.

There were three so-called health bills introduced by President Price in the Senate and passed by the Legislature late in the session. The first of these provides, among other things:

That the secretary of the State Board of Health shall be the State Health officer, with an increase of salary to $3,000 a year.

That the State shall be divided into ten sanitary districts, following county lines, each district to have a deputy health officer stationed therein, whose duty it shall be to represent the board and to have supervision and control of all sanitary and health matters in the district under instructions from the State Health officer and the board; and

That the board through its deputies and agents shall be granted additional powers, such as the right to enter upon and inspect private property and abate any nuisance found upon such property; the right to summon witnesses and administer oaths.

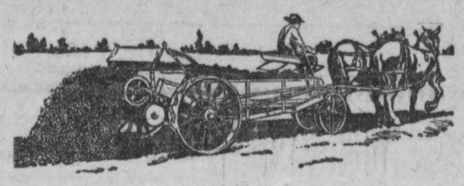

The deputies must be skilled in medicine, sanitary science and hygiene; they must not practice or engage in any other work, and they are to be paid not less than $1,200 nor more than $2,500 a year. They have supervision over all food supplies.

The board may order sanitary improvements in a town, or county, and may enforce the same, the law itself giving such town or county the authority to issue bonds for such purposes without further legislative sanction.

If the Board of Health can carry out all these new laws and enforce their provisions, then "good night."

PRay Turner, who has conducted the Arlington Hotel, Centerville, for some months has sold his interest in the business to the McKenney estate, owners of the building. Wm. C. McDaniel, former proprietor of the hostelry, is now in charge.

STEEL frame on steel wheels—that is the lasting basis on which International manure spreaders are built. All parts, including box, beater, spreading mechanism, apron, are built by experts, using best materials, from careful designs based on field tests.

Every detail is strong and durable, built for long life and ease of draft. Among the features that will interest you are these: Simple protected beater driving mechanism, all of steel; load carried on rear axle, insuring traction; reversible gear and worm; low, easily loaded box, with ample clearance underneath; end gate, preventing clogging of beater while driving to the field; etc.

All styles are in the I H C spreader line, high and low, endless and reverse apron, and various sizes for small and large farms. Our catalogues will tell you more. Write for them and let us tell you also where you may see I H C manure spreaders.

HOW CHILDREN GROW

Children grow by nourishment—not overloaded stomachs or rich foods but qualities that are readily converted into life-sustaining blood; too often their digestive powers cannot procure these qualities from ordinary foods which results in weakness, dullness and sickness.

If your children are under-size, underweight, catch cold easily, are languid, backward, pale or frail, give them Scott's Emulsion which is pure medicinal nourishment. It sharpens the appetite, builds healthy flesh, firm muscles and active brains. Scott's is growing-food for children. Refuse alcoholic substitutes.
