Presbyterians Discuss Human Rights; Honor Miss Anderson

By J. S. HARREN

NEW YORK—The 164th annual sessions of 164th General Assembly, Presbyterian Church in the United States were held at Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, May 20-28. Dr. John S. Bonnell is pastor of the host church which entertained and welcomed commissioners from more than 400 Presbyterian churches over the nation and several foreign countries.

Highlights of an interracial meeting on Sunday were the discussions on human rights and race relations and the awarding of a plaque to Miss Marian Anderson in recognition of her art and her dedication to the cause of freedom.

Speaking on human rights were Dr. Channing Tobias, U.S. delegate to the United Nations General Assembly; and Dr. O. Fred Nolde of Philadelphia official observer to the UN for the World Council of Churches.

The Presbyterian Assembly was advised to study the UN's proposed international covenants on human rights.

Declaring that there is no such thing as a "race problem," Dr. Tobias insisted that it is an American problem of some people in the U.S. insisting upon maintaining a double standard of citizens are concerned."

Dr. Nolde supporting the UN's human rights convenant, maintained that most of the criticisms against it have not foundation. He recommended a close study of it.

Miss Anderson in accepting her award said:

"There are few times when I have been more speechless; there are many others more worthy of this honor than I am." After paying tribute to her mother for laboring to give her the start that was destined to send her to world wide fame, Miss Anderson added: "Try to know a little bit more about the people about whom we are passing judgement before we make up our minds."

The opening day was given to pre-assembly discussions of evangelism and spiritual nuture of members and retiring moderator, Dr. Harrison R. Anderson's address. Group meetings were held at Broadway Tabernacle, Riverside Church and Carnegie Hall, where the premiere showing of the National Missions film, "And Now Tomorrow," was held Friday.

Women's meetings, featuring the theme: "From Strength to Strength," were held at Riverside Church with several prominent speak among whom were Mrs. W. Verne Buchanan, president National Council Presbyterian Women and Dr. James H. Robinson, pastor Church of the Master.

Arbutus Park To Allow Tombstones

In order to oblige clients who may already own tombstones, a special section for this purpose is being developed at the Arbutus Memorial Park.

Since the park was developed in 1936, tombstones have not been permitted. Bronze memorial plates were used instead.

Major John C. Robinson, 1500 block E. Monument St., was the first person to reserve a plot in the new section and move in deceased members of his family, and tombstones.

It's Wonderful the Way Chewing-Gum Laxative Acts Chiefly to REMOVE WASTE —NOT GOOD FOOD

● Here's the secret millions of folks have discovered about FEEN-A-MINT, the modern chewing-gum laxative. You have to why FEEN-A-MINT's action is so wonderfully different!

Doctors say that many other laxatives start their "business" before they reach right in the stomach where food is being digested. Thus, some such laxatives upset digestion, flush away nourishing food you need for health and energy. You feel weak, worn out.

But gentle FEEN-A-MINT, taken as recommended, works chiefly in the lower bowel where it removes mostly waste, not good food! You avoid that typical weak, tired, run-down feeling. Use FEEN-A-MINT regularly. Get relief from constipation. Avoid its ill effects. FEEN-A-MINT. No increase in price — still 25c, 50c or only 10c.

Hiram Walker's TEN HIGH returns to Maryland!
The bourbon that became America's best-selling whiskey
Introduced in 1934, Ten High became by 1938 America's favorite whiskey, according to records of independent package stores. During the war, no Ten High was made. But after the war, Ten High was back on the stills. Now it's here again, fully matured, to double your enjoyment!
2 good reasons why you'll double your enjoyment
1. Slow Barn makes it richer. Barn is the old-time name for whiskey mash. Hiram Walker slows the barn — keeps it cool — to give every drop of Ten High a robust, hearty richness.
2. High-Light Distilling makes it smoother. Hiram Walker specializes in light-bodied whiskeys. Ten High is distilled at the right proof to give each sip a smiling smoothness.

Huckster Gets Long Term In Carton Caper

Willie P. Freeman, the 22-year-old huckster who police found hiding in a paper carton in the storehouse of a jewelry company on May 16 received an 8-year sentence in the penitentiary Tuesday morning — 11 days after he was caught.

Judge Herman M. Moser sentenced Freeman to the Maryland Penitentiary after finding him guilty of burglary in the Reliable Stores at 200 W. Lexington St.

Caught in Storeroom

Freeman was caught in the third floor storeroom of the Castleberg Jewelry Co. in the 900 block of N. Broadway. Police had been dispatched to the scene when late workers heard someone walking on roofs of adjoining buildings.

While the officers searched, someone tripped the burglary alarm at the Castleberg store and when the officers heard boxes moving on the third floor they hastened there.

It was there they found Willie, hiding in one of the paper boxes.

Be Happy-Go Lucky!
In a cigarette, taste makes the difference—and Luckies taste better!
The difference between "just smoking" and really enjoying your smoke is the taste of a cigarette.
You can taste the difference in the smoother, mellower, more enjoyable taste of a Lucky . . . and for two important reasons.
First, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco . . . fine, mild tobacco that tastes better. There's no substitute for fine tobacco, and don't let anybody tell you different.
Second, Luckies are made to taste better. A month-after-month cigarette comparison, measuring those important factors of workmanship that affect the taste of cigarettes, proves Lucky Strike is the best-made of all five principal brands!
LUCKY STRIKE
That's a fact—established in The Research Laboratory of The American Tobacco Company—and verified by leading independent laboratory consultants.
So reach for a Lucky. Enjoy the better taste of truly fine tobacco in a great cigarette —Lucky Strike! Be Happy—Go Lucky!

Miss Mattie B. Callis Dies Suddenly; Funeral Set

A prominent local school teacher, Miss Mattie C. Callis, 68, died suddenly Wednesday afternoon in her home at 2204 Madison Ave.

Miss Callis had been suffering from high blood pressure. Wednesday morning she felt ill so called her physician, Dr. H. P. Hughes.

When Dr. Hughes arrived at her home, the veteran school teacher was already near collapse. She died shortly after 3 p.m.

Brother Hurries To Bedside

Her brother, J. A. B. Callis, Douglas High teacher, hurried to his sister's bedside on learning of her collapse. Visibly shaken by his sister's death, Mr. Callis said he last saw her on Sunday at the Madison Ave. Presbyterian Church, where they are both members.

Just two weeks ago, Miss Callis attended the testimonial banquet at the Mayor Hotel for retiring Dr. George B. Murphy, a long-term associate.

Members of the banquet committee revealed that she was instrumental in securing a reserved table for Dr. Murphy's former associates at School No. 112.

Learns Through AFRO

Dr. Murphy first learned of Miss Callis's death when called by the AFRO. At first he couldn't rally from the news, but finally said: "I am indeed shocked."

"She was a grand person, and one of the finest teachers I had in my 55 years at School No. 112," he declared.

Miss Callis entered the Baltimore school system in 1905. She spent most of those years at School No. 112, but was later transferred to School No. 131.

Placed On Sick Leave

Recently ill for an illness, she was placed on a year's sick leave at the beginning of the present school year.

Survivors include Mr. Callis, his brother, Clabe Callis, retired school teacher; and Ulysses S. Callis, a cousin. Ulysses Callis is a local realtor who ran for city councilman from the 4th District in 1939.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday, May 31, at Madison Ave. Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Mr. A. J. Daniels officiating. Burial will be in Mt. Auburn Cemetery.

Cripple Absolved Of Murder Charge

James L. Dixon, 22-year-old cripple went free Wednesday morning after Judge E. Paul McKaig found him not guilty of assault to murder.

Dixon had been held in the stabbing of John W. Haskins on March 1 in the 700 block of N. Fulton Ave. Haskins was wounded in the abdomen and lost the vision of his left eye as a result of a beating.

2 Men Involved

Before releasing Dixon the court observed that three other men were involved in the assault on Haskins and all of them have since fled the state.

"I'm not sure who stabbed Haskins," Judge Mason said, "so I find this man not guilty."
