YOUNG WILKINS KILLED.

Rodgers Wilkins, aged 27 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilkins, formerly of this town, but now of Baltimore, was killed in a motorcycle, racing accident on Sunday on the Frederick turnpike, above Ellicott City. The tragedy occurred almost at the beginning of what was to have been the banner run of the Maryland Motorcycle Club, of which Mr. Wilkins was a leading member. Thirty or more members of the club were on their annual spring trip to Harper's Ferry, W. Va. When they struck the pike outside of Ellicott City, which had been greatly improved, Mr. Wilkins and Mr. Wm. F. McCauley, who had been friends for years, could not resist the temptation to exceed the speed limit of 21 miles and hour ordered only a few minutes before the accident by President Boyd, and shouting "goodbye" to the other members of the club, Young Wilkins and McCauley put on full speed and started at a breakneck pace up the pike. About a mile up the pike McCauley lost control of his machine and crashed into Wilkins, hurling the young man over the handle bars. He traveled through the air for a distance of nearly 50 feet. Before striking the ground his head came in contact with the girders of a bridge. When he struck the ground Wilkins was dead. McCauley was hurled along the road for some distance and landed in a ditch. His face was crushed and on his head was a deep gash. Physicians at St. Agnes' Hospital say if he lives, he may be blind for the rest of his life. Later reports say he may recover.

After going to Baltimore Young Wilkins attended the public schools, and later graduated from the Polytechnic Institute with honors. At the time of his death he was private secretary to Vice-president John J. Nelligan, of the Safe Deposit and Trust Company, of Baltimore. The young man is a cousin of Mr. Raymond Wilkins, bookkeeper in the Third National Bank, and of Mrs. Jesse Medders, and his parents have many friends here who sympathize with them in their great affliction. Funeral services were held from the residence of his parents, 4101 Kate avenue, Forest Park, conducted by Rev. D. P. Allison, rector's assistant of St. Michael's and All Angels' P. E. Church, on Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. The remains were brought to Chestertown via Tolchester on Tuesday evening, and interment was made in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were members of the Motorcycle Club. Services at the grave were conducted by Rev. Dr. H. B. Martin.

Thomas G. Hayes For U. S. Senator.

The Baltimore News of May 14th, holds forth the following pertinent suggestions as to a Democratic successor to Senator John Walter Smith:

"The Democratic party in this State has not a long time in which to decide whether it shall or shall not seek to continue John Walter Smith in service as one of its United State Senators. "The problem is not to find a man to beat Smith,' but to find a man who can unite the various anti-Smith factions throughout the State and who, were he elected, would make an able United States Senator.

"In the circumstances, the fact that gossip is now connecting the name of Thomas G. Hayes with the race ought to be of special interest to the party rank and file.

"Mr. Hayes' political campaigning and public service capabilities are too well known to require exposition. The man who would oust John Walter Smith from the saddle must be a fighting man. Mr. Hayes is that. The man who would unite the various anti-Smith independent and organization factions must be a man versed in practical politics, yet himself an independent. Mr. Hays is that. The man who would succeed Smith must have a knowledge of public affairs which would offset actual Senatorial experience. Mr. Hayes has that. He would make a good fight; if elected, he would make a better Senator.

"Mr. Hayes probably comes nearer to meeting that combination of requisites than does anyone who has yet been mentioned. It would well pay him and the anti-Smith elements to examine carefully into the question of his practical availability."

Organize Student Council.

At a special meeting of the student body of Washington College held in the auditorium of William Smith Hall on Wednesday, May 20th, 1914, the constitution establishing a student council was read and adopted. The framers of this constitution were: W. F. Moore, '14, W. G. Keller, '14, C. H. Lickle, '15, W. G. Mann, '15. These men deserve the congratulations of the whole student body for the vigorous manner in which they carried their duties to a successful end. Only by hard and considerable labor were they able to construct a workable constitution. The students express their gratitude to these students for the time they have spent in their behalf and hope they are proud of the honor of having an active part in starting one of the greatest institutions Washington College has ever known.
