LOCAL MATTERS

Ladies' Town Improvement Association.—There will be an important meeting of The Ladies' Town Improvement Association at the home of Mrs. Hope H. Barroll on Wednesday afternoon next at 3 o'clock. All members and friends interested in town improvement matters are urged to be present.

Wedding Invitations.—Rev. and Mrs. John S. Bowers, of Baltimore, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Nannie Deborah, to Henry William Franz, on Wednesday morning, June 3d, at 11 o'clock in North Baltimore Methodist Protestant Church. The bride-to-be is a granddaughter of Mrs. A. M. Bowers, of this town, while the groom is a prominent young business man of Baltimore. They will be at home after July 1st, at 3405 Duvall Avenue, Walbrook, where the groom has recently purchased a fine home.

The Farmers Protest.—The farmers throughout the county, especially around Still Pond and Betterton, are protesting against the State Roads contractors employing local help to build the State Roads. They say the local men are needed on the farms, but will not work for the farmers if they can get jobs on the State Roads. The farmers will have urgent need for hands for the next four months, but will be unable to secure them if the State Roads men employ them in the building of the roads. The farmers state they give employment to these men practically all the year and don't think it is fair or right for the road contractors to employ them over their heads, especially during their busiest months.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker to Sail.—President J. Henry Baker, of the Board of Liquor License Commissioners, of Baltimore, will sail with Mrs. Baker and their son, John, on the Koenigin Louise, which leaves Baltimore June 8. They will travel through Germany, Austria, Italy, Switzerland, the Netherlands, Belgium, France and England. They will take a trip on the new Bavarian Highland Electric Railway, and will drive through Tyrol. They will make an automobile tour through the Shakespeare country and will have steamer trips on the Rhine, Lake Lucerne and on the Dutch canals. They will return to New York on the Laconia, of the Cunard Line, sailing from Liverpool August 8; arriving in Baltimore August 17.

Tempest Dramatic Company to Return.—The J. L. Tempest Dramatic Company, which received such a liberal patronage last winter, will be here for a return engagement commencing next Monday, May 25th. The company is bigger and better than ever, and will, no doubt, receive a cordial welcome. The following is the list of plays that will be acted: Monday night, "The Yankee Hustler," a comedy society drama; Tuesday night, "An Egyptian Romance," a musical comedy—a story of the far East; Wednesday night, "Lady Audrey's Secret," an interesting play; Thursday night, "A Waif's Devotion," a story of an outcast's love; Friday night, "East Lynne," familiar to everyone; Saturday matinee, "The Indian Girl;" Saturday night, "The Gambler's Wife," a story of thrills.

¶Mrs. Oppelander, one of the Chautauqua workers, was in town Friday and made an interesting address to the pupils of the Chestertown High School, telling them of the treat that was in store for them this summer. Mrs. Oppelander said it was her intention this summer, during Chautauqua week, to take the children long hikes through the country and explain different things about the woods and streams which most of them did not know.

BRIEF ITEMS OF INTEREST

¶Mr. Joseph Lambert has two pheasants in the Voshell House yard.

¶Several very desirable farms are advertised for rent in this issue.

¶Mr. J. F. Thompson has sold so far this season 28 Ford cars, and he has orders for more.

¶Mr. Owen C. Smith, the incubator man, hatched 84 fine chicks from 96 eggs this week. That is a fine hatch

¶Mr. George V. Byron had frogs, turtles, soft crabs and fish for sale last Friday.

¶A Chestertown lady bought eggs from the store and decided to set them. They hatched in "two" weeks.

¶Soft crabs have made their appearance in local markets, and while they are small, they find ready sale at good prices.

¶The Somers property in Rock Hall was sold at public sale on Saturday by John D. Urie, attorney, to Mrs. Emma M. Mariner for $425.

¶It is reported that fishing with hook and line for rock and trout has been good during the past week in Chester river off the Cliffs.

¶The paint and whitewash brushes are being used more freely than usual this spring, and old Chestertown is right in the height of fashion.

¶Work of remodeling the vacant room under the Lyceum Theatre, to be occupied by the postoffice about August 1, was begun yesterday morning.

¶Graham & Thomas will have an auction sale of seasonable goods, begining at 2 o'clock this afternoon. There are many good offerings in the lot.

¶The Chestertown Bank of Maryland on Wednesday elected Messrs. Curtis E. Crane and Merrick Clements delegates to the Banker's Convention which meets in Cape May in June.

¶Contractor Wm. E. Duyer is erecting for Mr. Benjamin E. Rust on his lot purchased from John G. Usilton recently near the old depot, a neat two-story frame dwelling.

¶Mr. Robert J. McWhorter is the proud owner of a Star Bingen colt out of a mare whose dam was Grace Hammond, 2.04. The colt was dropped on Monday morning and he is a "peach".

¶Messrs. Robert Robinson and Oscar Ray have purchased beautiful new Harley-Davidson motorcycles. Mr Ray received his Sunday, while Mr. Robinson received his on Wednesday.

¶Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard has purchased a fine Lozier touring car. He made his first trip in it to Centreville last Saturday evening to attend the Shearer—Holton wedding.

¶Mr. Wm. W. Clayton, of Rock Hall, will remove to Chestertown the first of next week and open a meat and provision store in the store room on High street formerly occupied by Mr. Chas. W. Copper.

¶It is reported that Mr. J. D. Foster is negotiating for the sale of his fine property in Queen Annes on beautiful Chester river at a profitable figure. This is an ideal place for a country home, and the house is one of the most conveniently arranged in this section.

¶The United States Senate on Wednesday agreed to the James amendment to the Agricultural appropriation bill, calling for an additional $50,000 for farm demonstration work. If the amendment remains in the bill, Maryland will be given a total of $40,000 for demonstration work.

¶Mr. A. W. Carmine lost Tuesday night a valuable brown and white pointer female dog. She jumped out of a second story back window at Mr. Carmine's home on High street. She was found at Worton Station yesterday morning.

¶A Mr. Carter from Fredricksburg, Va., has been in the town during the week prospecting for the location of a manufacturing industry. He may remove his family here, and is looking for a house. Mr. Carter states that this is as beautiful a section of country as one would want to see.

¶The street sprinkler has been doing splendid service during the week in keeping down the dust, and Mr. Charles Miller, the town man, has not missed a dry spot. Mr. Miller is proving himself to be one of the best men the town ever employed.

¶The Public Service Commission has granted the request of the Tolchester Steamboat Company for an increase of 100 per cent. in the freight charges on liquor shipments over its lines. It is likely that other lines will ask the same privilege.

¶The residence of the late Mrs. Mary Morris, together with stable property, on Queen street, was sold at public sale on Tuesday by the executors, Messrs. Walter T. and J. Elwood Morris, to Mr. Thomas G. Wroth for $2,315. It was advertised for sale in the TRANSCRIPT.

¶The Chestertown milk station, superintendent, Mr. Horn, has been receiving more milk during the past week than it could handle, and the surplus had to be carried to the Worton Station. Milk has been bringing $1.35 per hundred and up, during the past month.

¶The Washington College first team defeated the Chestertown team on Wednesday afternoon. Score 9 to 2. Bowen had the Chestertown Kids at his mercy all the way, while Brown the town pitcher was touched up pretty lively by the College sluggers.

¶Mr. Henry Rasin, son of Mr. Perry B. Rasin, has rented the Hurlock farm near Melitota, now occupied by Mr. Charles D. Wood. Mr. Wood goes to Mr. Walter U. Lusby's Tolchester farm, as heretofore announced in the TRANSCRIPT.

¶Blackway Bros. Bottling Works is a busy place these days. They are turning out large quantities of first-class soft drinks; put up in a sanitary way. They have secured their own crown, cork and seal from the Baltimore concern and it makes the drinks absolutely sanitary.

¶The Chestertown Choral Society, under the direction of Mr. Wm. Walter Chapman, and the Dramatic Club, under the direction of Dr. Edward J. Clarke, will give fine entertainments in the Lyceum Theatre June 10 and 11. These entertainments will be worth going miles to hear.

¶Mr. James W. Chapman has rented his Finnimore farm near Lynch, which has been occupied for the past 31 years by Mr. Samuel Mann, to Mr. Sewell J. Lee, now on the Fisher farm in Morgnec. Mr. Lee is one of the county's progressive and wide-awake young farmers, and he comes from the stock that knows how to till the soil.

¶Thomas Tollinger, who keeps a house on Philosopher's Terrace, and Charles Lindsey, colored, the well-known oyster vender, were arrested by the town authorities on Sunday charged with selling liquor. They were given a hearing on Monday evening and fined, but took an appeal.

¶Mr. Rumsey Anthony had the first strawberries from his fine patch for dinner on Thursday. He will be supplying local markets next week, but fears the crop will be short unless there is a copious rain shortly. Mr. Anthony's patch is one of the prettiest seen in this section for many a year.

¶There is a movement among the business interests to induce the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to change the afternoon schedule of the local train so as to enable the afternoon train to arrive here at six o'clock instead of at seven as at present. This would facilitate business greatly and it is hoped that the company will be able to make the change.

¶The Board of Town Commissioners made a survey of the entire town last Friday, noted the condition of the streets and ditches, and made arrangements to make some needed improvements to same. They have had a force of workmen cleaning out the ditch in the ravine during the week. That ditch should either be tiled or provided with cement sides.

¶Messrs. Wm. R. Maul and Milton Baker have attractive bird boxes in their yards which are inhabited every spring by black martins. These beautiful birds return to the boxes every spring, and while at one time they were very plentiful here, like every other rare bird, they have been driven off by the pestiferous sparrows. There are also several pairs of Orioles building in the trees about town.

¶One of our lady residents bought a turkey hen sometime ago for the purpose of cooking. The turkey laid the day after she came to town and laid five eggs before she was killed. The lady set the eggs under one of her dungle hens and every egg hatched, and she is now the proud owner of a flock of healthy young turkeys, with visions of Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners before her.

¶Mr. W. Bradford Copper, cashier of the Third National Bank, was one of the electors to the conference held in Richmond, Va., on Monday, relative to the incorporation of and the nomination of directors for the Regional Bank for the Fifth District, created by the new Currency Act. The Third National will be a member of the Regional Bank system, which becomes effective June 1.

¶Mr. Earle Gitt drove his Indian motorcycle to Wilmington and back last Sunday. He was accompanied by Mr. Gambril, pharmacist in Stam's Drug Store, who was thrown from the machine near Sassafras on the trip up and injured his right foot severely. He "stuck", however, and came back with Mr. Gitt, although his foot was swollen to twice its normal size. Mr. Gambril left for his home in Baltimore, where he will spend several days.

Mr. James G. Beck has sold his old Maxwell runabout, which is almost as good as new, to Rural Route Carrier James Weer, of Kennedyville, and has purchased one of those 1914 model Maxwell touring cars from Agent J. H. Sides, of which the TRANSCRIPT spoke in a two page advertisement last week. Mr. Sides has sold several of these cars during the week, and they are pronounced by those who have examined them to be one of the best cars on the market for the money. Mr. Sides states that he is hearing from the big adv. in the TRANSCRIPT from all parts of the county and Queen Annes.

¶Becoming frightened at an approaching train on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad at Mount Winans Wednesday afternoon, a horse owned by Charles Barber, of Baltimore, ran down the tracks about a quarter of a mile to a bridge known as the Blue Top, where it fell between the tracks. After a gang of track hands tried to get the horse on its feet, it reared and fell over the bridge, a distance of 20 feet. Its right foreleg was broken. The horse had been sold and delivered to Mr. Barber on Wednesday by Mr. John Moffett, of Hanesville, for $250.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

JAMES I. COLEMAN.

James I. Coleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. James U. Coleman, formerly of this town, was killed while jumping on a freight train Thursday afternoon, April 30th. He was engaged as a section hand on a railroad in East Westmoreland, N. H., and was killed doing his work. He was 19 years old. He slipped when he jumped and fell beneath the train, both legs being cut off. The train was stopped and he was put aboard and taken to a hospital, where he was given the best surgical attention, but it was of no avail. The deceased was well-known here and at Rock Hall, where he visited his aunt, Mrs. Millard Glenn, quite often. His remains were interred at East Westmoreland, N. H.

JOHN MENCH.

Mr. John Mench died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John G. Schauber, on Reservoir Hill, on Sunday, in the 84th year of his age. The deceased came to this country from Germany sometime ago to make his home with his daughter. Funeral services were held on Tuesday, conducted by Father Urner, of Sacred Heart Church. Interment was made in Church Hill cemetery. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MRS. JULIA WARREN.

Mrs. Julia E. Warren died at Catonsville, near Baltimore, Wednesday, May 20, of Bright's disease, aged 79 years. Interment was made yesterday afternoon, Friday, at 2 P. M., Rev. F. X. Moore, officiating, and Wm. H. Krusen undertaker. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. George W. Covington, J. B. Crowding, E. M. Bonwell, Joshua Jarrell, Wm. G. Rasin and C. B. Krusen.

CHARLES F. LEHMAN.

Charles F. Lehman, a prominent business man of Galena, died at his residence in that town Monday, May 18, aged 60 years. He leaves a widow and seven children. Funeral services were held Thursday, May 21, in the P. E Church, Galena, conducted by Rev. Mr. Stauffer. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Joseph and Edward Woodall, John Mullen, B. J. McCauley, Edward Walters and Thomas Caldwell. Wm. T. Hicks undertaker in charge.

IN THE CHURCHES.

Chestertown M. E. Church.—Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., Pastor.—Services next Sunday, May 24th, as follows: 10.30 A. M., preaching by the pastor, subject, "Not What But Who"; 2.15 P. M., Sabbath School and Pastor's Bible class; 7 P. M., Epworth League song service, 7.30 P. M., preaching by the pastor. Prayer service every Wednesday evening at 7.30. All invited.

Sunday night was the anniversary of the Epworth League and the following program was rendered at the M. E. Church: Singing, congregation; prayer, Prof. Smyth; singing, congregation; anthem, the choir; address, Mr. Norman Jefferson; singing, congregation; violin solo, Mr. T. Kemp Bordley; remarks by the president; installation of officers; remarks by pastor; collection; singing by congregation; benediction.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Dr. W. R. Graham, pastor. Services on Sunday, May 24th, and preaching by the pastor at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. Morning subject: "Supplies For Emergencies". Evening subject: "Good Beginnings That Lead to Bad Endings." Sabbath School 2.30 P. M.; Christian Endeavor service 6.45 P. M.; Mid-week service Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

Mr. Deweese, an expert plumber, met the members of the quarterly conference of Christ M. P. Church on Tuesday evening and discussed contemplated improvements to the church heating system. Mr. Deweese made a thorough examination of the present system and informed the Board that more radiation is needed, and a new boiler installed. He laid before the conference two plans—one providing for one furnace, additional radiation and a readjustment of the pipes, and the other, two furnaces with the above changes in the system. The one furnace plan will cost $500 and the two furnace plan, which is designed to heat one portion of the church at a time, with a corresponding economy in fuel, will cost $550. With either system be guaranteed to heat the church to 70 degrees in zero weather on two pounds of steam. The matter has been referred to the Board of Stewards.

Horse Notes.

All the horses in training at Radcliffe Park, and there are some forty or fifty, are working finely, and the matinee to be held next Saturday afternoon—Decoration Day—promises to be the best ever held at the park. The track is in fine shape, and the park looks very attractive in its dress of white and green.

Charles W. Rathell, the veteran Easton trainer, has some mighty good bets in training at Idlewild Park. Two of his promising ones are Dr. Valman, 2.16¼; Little May, who was second last year in 16¼, and several promising three-year-olds by Star Bingen, Jockey Boy and Andrew M. Most of Mr. Rathell's string will be entered in the races at Radcliffe Park during the fair in July.

Dan Leary, the well-known West Chester, Pa., trainer, has 33 in training in his stables from which he will select his campaigners for the Maryland and Virginia Circuit. Among them are Sara Ann Patch, 2.06¼, and Joe Boy, 2.06¼.

Mr. Thomas Tolson, of Quaker Neck, has sold his fast colt, Robinette, to a private party, reported to be Mr. Wm. H. Cacy, of Massey, for $500. This mare trotted a mile over Radcliffe Park track on Thursday in 2.22 without a day's training, and it is believed that she is one of the speediest young mares on the peninsula. She is now in Mr. John Mallalieu's stable. Mr. Mallalieu now has 14 horses including J. K., Mr. Peter Brice's fine gelding, which arrived on Thursday.

Mr. Powell Peacock, the well-known trainer, has offered $50 in gold to any horse on the Maryland-Delaware peninsula which will beat Rowdy Boy over Radcliffe Park track at the Decoration Day Matinee. The horse, which it is believed will contest with Rowdy Boy, arrived at the track on Thursday evening in charge of a colored groom. Just who is the owner of this horse and what is her name had not been learned at the hour of going to press. She is from around Kirkwood, Del. It is reported that her name is The Jew, and she is owned by a Mr. Warren.

The new Racing Commission, appointed by Governor Goldsborough by authority of an act passed at the last General Assembly, has lifted the ban on book-making at races held in Maryland and the pari-mutuel system has been abandoned. Any racing association may hold a five days' meet with books under the order, and it is believed that Prospect and Gentlemens Driving Parks, Baltimore, which have been closed for two years, will start up again and each will have a five days' harness meet.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

KIRK—TOLSON.

Mrs. Mamie Phillips Tolson, of 212 Broadway, Camden, N. J., and W. J. Kirk, residing at the Y. M. C. A., Camden, N. J., were united in marriage on Monday evening, May 18th, at 7.30 o'clock in the presence of a few friends. Mr. and Mrs. H. Mockett were best man and matron of honor. Rev. Holmes F. Gravatt, of the First M. E. Church, officiated at the ceremony. The bride formerly resided at Millington, Kent county, and Mr. Kirk at Troy, New York. Immediately after the ceremony they left for a wedding tour through New York State. Upon their return they will reside at Chestnut Hill, Pa., Those who attended the wedding were: Harry P. M. Toulson, son of the bride, Philadelphia; Elizabeth Flecker, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Bythrow, of West Philadelphia; Lola Jones, West Philadelphia; Mrs. Elizabeth Ireton, Camden; Helen Grenenger, of West Philadelphia.

Relief Society Meeting.

A meeting was held at the home of Mrs. H. B. Rote on the evening of the 19th last for the discussion of a desirable location for and the financial abilities of building an Old People's Home and Hospital. It was found that about $1,050 had been raised by the following means: At the bazaar held last December in Firemen's Hall $200 were cleared, $60 were made by an entertainment given by Miss Mayme Thompson, $50 by the matinee given by the ladies of the Town Relief, and $275 have been raised by subscriptions. Lastly, through the last bazaar $565 were cleared.

It was also decided that a public meeting be held in Firemen's Hall on Monday, May 25th, at 3.30 P. M. for the further discussion of all important business matters. As this will be the last meeting of the kind held, all those who are interested in the work are earnestly requested to be present.

MRS. H. B. ROTE, Pres.;
MRS P. CLARK, Vice-Pres.;
MRS. W. B. COPPER, Treas.,
Committee.

MARRIED.

At the M. E. Parsonage, Chestertown, Md. Tuesday May 19, 1914, by Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D. Vernon B. Hamewell and Miss Charlotte G. Kohler, both of Philadelphia.

Your Own Porch Better than a Country Cottage

You need not go into the country during the hot summer months if you have your porch equipped with

AEROLUX
NO-WHIP
PORCH SHADES

These water-proof shades come in a great variety of colors. They admit just the proper amount of good fresh air yet maintain perfect seclusion to those upon the porch.

They transform any porch into a perfect resting place. The NO-WHIP ATTACHMENT with which these shades are equipped prevent flapping of the shade. The shades successfully keep out the hot rays of the sun and while they maintain the porch cool and comfortable, admit just the proper amount of light.

Call and see our display or a telephone call will bring the "Aerolux" man who will show you color samples and then if you wish, take the measurements of your porch.
