Jersey City Cards Eye Stars' Streak

Redbirds Return To Westport After Rainout Of May 25th

Rained out on their previous trip to the city, the Jersey City Cardinals, themselves in the midst of a victory skein, come into Westport Stadium Sunday bent on snapping the five - game winning streak of the Yokley All Stars.

The two clubs are slated to clash in a double-header, beginning at 2 p.m., with Manager Bill Byrd shooting with the same two moundmen who turned back the Kokomo Clowns last Sunday.

Byrd has nominated Arthur Simmons and Avon Green to do the slab chores against the Redbirds' clever righthanders, Charley Bethea and Cliff Jackson. Simmons and Green took the measure of the Clowns, 10-2 and 5-1, respectively, in their essays last week end.

Won Last Seven

The Cardinals, who spend much of their time mixing with the fast competition to be found around the upstate New York and New England semi-pro leagues, have captured their last seven starts. They are, therefore, pitting their record against a club which has taken its last five in a row and which boasts a season record of seven wins and one loss.

One reason the locals are going with the same youthful pair which scored for them Sunday, is the fact that their big righthander, bespectacled Henry Miller, is not expected to be ready for action. Miller pulled a muscle in his throwing arm in the tiff with the Kokomos and had to retire after three innings.

The All-Star management is continuing its bus service to and from the stadium. These free buses leave the Madison and Dolphin intersection at 11:30 a.m., and run frequently throughout the day until game time. They take routes out Dolphin to Harlem Ave., to Carey St. to the park.

Hope To Halt All Stars

Charley Bethea, left, and Cliff Jackson, righthanded pitching aces of the Jersey City Cardinals, due in Westport Sunday for a double-header with the Yokley All Stars, local semi pro nine. The Cards, rained out on a previous trip to Westport, are seeking to halt the All Stars's five-game winning streak.

Weightlifters Show Here Sunday

The semi-final Olympic weightlifting tryouts, to be held Sunday at the Jewish Community Center, 305 W. Monument St., will feature two colored contestants in the heavyweight class.

Heading this class will be Olympic champion John Davis, representing the Bar Bell Club of York, Pa.

Also featured in this event will be Jim Bradford, a native of Washington, D.C., but now in the army and stationed in Fort Benning, Ga.

Seven Classes

Seven weight classes will be featured during the tryouts beginning at 2 p.m. The men who place 1-2 in each class become eligible for the finals to be held June 27-28 in New York.

Admission to the tryouts is $1.20 The proceeds are to aid the national A.A.U. team to the Helsinki, Finland this summer for the 1952 Olympics.

Stock Car Race Crowds Soaring

Promoter Ed Otto's stock car races at Westport Stadium have drawn twice as many fans this summer as they did during the same period last year, latest unofficial attendance figures reveal. And, judging from the continued increase such as last Saturday's throng of 6,000, the 1952 figures may treble last summer's inaugural campaign.

Altogether a total of more than 35,000 fans have witnessed the first eight thrill-packed shows at the local quarter mile clay oval compared to 15,000 at this stage last summer. And, last Saturday's turnout was the biggest of the season to date.

As usual the local stock car enthusiasts were treated to another sizzling show of innumerable spins, tangles and flip overs, and more of the same can be expected tomorrow (Saturday) night, when Otto presents his ninth program of the current campaign.

Eight events will comprise the card starting at 8:30 p.m., with three qualifying heats of ten laps each two 12 lap semifinals; a pair of 12 lap consolation tests for those pilots who fail to place in the preceding races, and the closing 25-lap feature.

CORRECTION

In Tuesday's Clean Block story, it was erroneously stated that the youngsters of the 800 block of Argyle Ave. were the first clean blockers to sign.

The first Clean Blockers to sign up were those of Sara Ann Street. The Clean Blockers of the 800 block Argyle Ave. were the first kids to sign up as a NEW UNIT.

In Memoriam

BUTLER — In loving memory of my beloved wife and our mother, Mrs. Ethel Butler WRIGHT, who passed away June 15, 1950.

Do not ask us if we miss her. There is such a vacant place. We miss her smile and see her smiling face. Days of sadness still come over us. Tears we hide within. Memory keeps her ever near us. Though she left us three years ago.

WONDERFUL husband, father and brother

If you only could come home.
Get out of our thoughts do wander
To your grave so far away
Where we laid you, Dearest Mother,
Seven years ago today.
