CHAPTER 831.

AN ACT regulating the shipment, transportation, delivery, carrying, bringing into, handling and distributing of spirituous, vinous, fermented, malt or intoxicating liquors, or any mixture thereof containing alcohol, for beverage purposes, in Caroline, Queen Anne's, Talbot, Dorchester, Somerset, Worcester, Kent Cecil and Wicomico counties, except as herein provided, and providing penalties for the violation of the same.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be unlawful for any corporation, firm, partnership, club or association of individuals to have shipped into Caroline, Queen Anne's, Talbot, Dorchester, Somerset, Worcester, Kent and Wicomico counties any spirituous, vinous, fermented, malt or intoxicating liquors, or any mixture thereof containing alcohol for beverage purposes, in any quantity whatever; but it shall be lawful for any person or individual over the age of twenty-one years to have shipped or bring into any one of the said counties spirituous, vinous, or fermented liquors in any quantity not to exceed one gallon in any one calendar month, or any malt liquor in any quantity not to exceed six dozen pint bottles or one-eighth barrel in any one calendar month, such liquor to be for personal use only of such persons, but such persons shall not be allowed to have shipped or bring both the malt liquor and the spirituous, vinous or fermented liquor in the same calendar month. Any corporation, firm, partnership, club or association of persons receiving from any public or private carrier or carriers any of the above liquors in any quantity and any person or individual receiving from any public or private carrier or carriers more than the above mentioned quantity of spirituous, vinous, fermented, malt or intoxicating liquors in any one calendar month, or for any other purpose than the personal use of the consignee, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than ten dollars ($10) nor more than fifty dollars ($50) for the first offence, and for each and every additional offence not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) and be imprisoned in the Maryland House of Correction for a term not exceeding six months. The statement rendered the Sheriff and the Clerk of the Circuit Court for any of the said counties, as provided for in Section 2 of this Act by any and all public or private carriers of the delivery of more than one gallon of spirituous, vinous, fermented or intoxicating liquors, or any mixture thereof containing alcohol for beverage purposes, or more than six dozen pints of malt liquor or one-eighth of a barrel of malt liquor as hereinbefore provided in any one calendar month, or any copy of the statement filed with the said Clerk certified under the hand of the said Clerk with the seal of his office thereto attached, shall be prima facie evidence of the violation of this Act; provided that any person, firm or corporation who shall aid or abet in any manner or form any one in getting or obtaining more than the amount of the liquors hereinbefore described and permitted to be brought into and delivered in any of the aforesaid counties, shall be deemed to have violated the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be unlawful for any railroad company, steamboat company, express company or any private or common carrier or carriers to convey, transport or deliver to any depot, wharf, or any point or place in Caroline, Queen Anne's, Talbot, Dorchester, Somerset, Worcester, Kent and Wicomico counties, any spirituous, vinous, fermented, malt or intoxicating liquors, or any mixture thereof containing alcohol for beverage purposes, to any firm, corporation, club or association of individuals; provided, however, that it shall be lawful for any of the aforesaid public or private carriers to carry, transport, bring into and deliver to any individual over the age of twenty-one years spirituous, vinous, or fermented liquors in any quantity not exceeding one gallon in any one calendar month, or malt liquor not exceeding in quantity six dozen pint bottles or one-eighth of a barrel in any one calendar month, and it shall be unlawful for the aforesaid common carrier or carriers to deliver such liquors to any person other than the consignee thereof or to any person under the age of twenty one years, whether consigned to such minor or not. All such railroad companies, steamboat companies, express companies or common or private carriers doing business within the limits of any of the aforesaid counties are hereby required to keep a book in which shall be entered, immediately upon the receipt thereof, the name and address of every person to whom such liquors are shipped, the amount and kind received, the date when delivered, and by whom and to whom delivered, and the name of the firm, corporation or individual shipping such liquors, and the statement that such liquors are for personal use only. After such record shall be a blank space on which the consignee shall be required to sign his name and address in person to such record before the delivery of such liquors to such consignee, which book shall be open to the inspection of the public at any time during the business hours of the company. If the consignee shall be unable to write his name, he may sign by mark in the presence of a witness, and such witness shall sign his name on such record after the word "Witness." Such book shall constitute prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated and be admissable as evidence in any court or tribunal having jurisdiction or in any manner empowered with the enforcement of the provisions of this Act. On the last day of each month such railroad company steamboat company, express company, common or private carriers shall file with the Clerks of the Circuit Court and the Sheriffs of the respective counties aforesaid in which any such liquor has been shipped a transcript of the records of said book for that calendar month, which transcript shall be filed and preserved by the aforesaid Sheriffs and Clerks as a public document. No package, parcel or container of spirituous, vinous, fermented, malt or intoxicating liquors, or any mixture thereof containing alcohol for beverage purposes, shall be delivered by any common or private carrier to any person in any of the aforesaid counties unless there shall be plainly and visibly labeled or stenciled thereupon the following: the name and address of the consignor, the name and address of the consignee, the kind and quantity of the liquors contained therein, and that the liquors are only for the personal use of the consignee. And any employee or agent of any express company, railroad company, steamboat company, or any common or private carrier, failing or refusing to comply with any of the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) for the first offense, and any subsequent offense shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) and not more than five hundred dollars ($500) or by imprisonment in the Maryland House of Correction for a term not exceeding six months, or by both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the Court. Provided, that if the said carrier, or its agent, does not know the identity of the person who may call for the said liquors, the said carrier or its agent shall use reasonable precaution to be assured of the identity of such person before delivery.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to carry, bring or have brought into Caroline, Queen Anne's, Talbot, Dorchester, Somerset, Worcester, Kent and Wicomico counties any spirituous, vinous, fermented, malt or in toxicating liquors, or any mixture thereof, containing alcohol for beverage purposes, except as hereinbefore provided, and any delivery by any carrier or its agent or any receipt by any person, other than is provided for in this Act, shall be deemed to have been done with intent to violate the law of said counties relating to or prohibiting the sale of such liquors. Any person, firm or corporation who violate the provisions of this Section upon trial and conviction therefor shall be subject to the fines and penalties hereinbefore provided in Section 2 of this Act.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall be construed to apply to the shipment or delivery to duly licensed pharmacists or druggists to be used in compliance with existence laws and to hospitals in said counties, of spirituous or vinous liquors and alcohol; nor to the delivery to churches or proper officers thereof of wine in unbroken packages for sacramental purposes; provided, that nothing in this Section No. 4 shall apply to Worcester county.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That all prosecutions for violations of the provisions of the preceding Sections of this Act, which are hereby declared to be criminal offenses, may be either upon presentment and indictment, or by trial before a Justice of the Peace in the county in which the offense is committed, and jurisdiction original and concurrent with the Circuit Courts for the aforesaid counties is hereby given in such cases to the Justices of the Peace in and for the aforesaid counties respectively, in which the said offense is committed and the said Justices of the Peace shall have power to issue all process and do all acts which may be necessary for the exercise of said jurisdiction and may try and determine all such cases and may pronounce judgment and sentence therein to the same extent as the Circuit Court for such county could do in such cases, if such cases were tried before said Court without a jury; provided, however, that if any person when brought before any such Justice having jurisdiction in the case shall, before trial for the alleged offense, pray a jury trial, or if the State's Attorney for the county shall, before trial of such alleged offense, pray a jury trial on the part of the State, it shall be the duty of such Justice to commit such alleged offender for trial, or to hold him to bail to appear for trial in the Circuit Court for said county at its then or next session and to return said commitment or recognizance, with the names and residences of the witnesses for the prosecution endorsed thereon, forthwith to the Clerk of the said Court; and the Justice of the Peace before whom the accused is brought for trial shall, prior to the beginning of the trial, inform him of his right to demand a trial by jury. If after trial before a Justice of the Peace, either party shall feel aggrieved by the judgment of such Justice of the Peace, there shall be a right of appeal within ten days to the Circuit Court for said count in which such Justice resides.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the First day of May, n the year nineteen hundred and fourteen.

WHY SHAD ARE SCARCE.
U. S. Boat Finds Nets 1½ Miles Long in the Bay.

It was learned on Monday that when the steamer, Sentinel, of the United States Engineer's office, Baltimore, inspected Saturday the pound nets in the bay the engineer, John F. Doyle, found that practically every stationary net was violating the national law in regard to length, which is 800 yards from shore. Many of the nets are more than one and one-half miles long. The longest is below the York river, and is more than eight miles long.

As late as October last year the small mesh nets were taking out of the middle of the Chesapeake Bay small shad going to their winter home and shipping them to fertilizer factories in Virginia.

Capt. Herman Spencer gave figures Monday showing the decline of shad since the installation of staked and purse nets. He has fished the Susquehanna for 50 years. His books show the catches of shad since 1878 as follows:

In 1878 his hauling seine landed 19,000 shad; 1879, 20,000; 1883, 15,000; 1895, 2,000; 1900, 1,500; 1908, 1,700, and 1914, 800. Such information as this will undoubtedly force the federal government to protect the fishing industry in the Chesapeake Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell Entertain.

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. James Caldwell of near Galena entertained in honor of their son, Herbert, of Washington College, the occasion being his twenty-first birthday.

A large company gathered and the hours slipped by all too soon. Mr. Caldwell received many beautiful and useful gifts. Among them a gold watch from his parents and signet ring from some of his brothers and sisters. Among those present were: Messrs. Herbert Caldwell, his chum and roommate, of Washington College, Mr. Sam'l Caldwell, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Caldwell, of Galena, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Price, Mrs. Sallie Norris, Mrs. Carl Norris, Misses Jennie Bowers, Catherine Price and Mr. Stewart Price, of Still Pond, Miss Belle Murphy, of Philadelphia, Miss Willamina and Selena King of Wilmington, Miss Anna Heavelow, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conrey and little daughter, Chesapeake, Mrs. Willard Dodson and Rev. Mr. Owens, of Queen Anne, Mrs. Wm. C. Dempsey, of Baltimore, Messrs. Hanson and Sam'l King, of Warwick, Misses Martha Caldwell, Carrie Dempsey, Anne Caldwell, Emily Caldwell. Mary Caldwell, Marian Caldwell, Bertie Brockson, Grace Merchant and Eva Merchant. Messrs. Sam'l Caldwell, Henry Caldwell, Edward Caldwell, Clifton Sutton and Henry Merchant, of Galena.

Worton Grange Notes.

Although our farmers have been very busy the past three weeks, yet they have not lost interest in our meetings. While of course it has been impossible for all to attend every meeting, yet a fair average has turned out every Monday night, for they know they are going to learn something beneficial. Last Monday night among other good things, we had an open discussion on American wire vs. barbed wire fencing. But I think the American wire won the day.

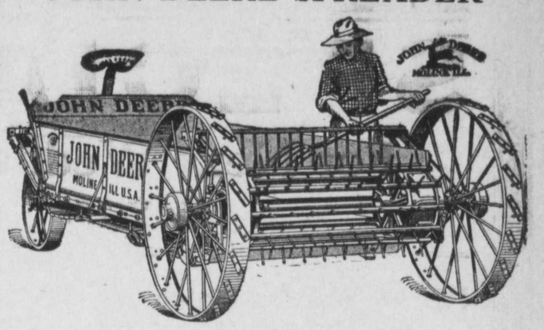

The better babies movement was brought up, and it was decided to leave all arrangements in the hands of the committee of four ladies named at a previous meeting—Mrs. Carroll Loller, chairman; Mrs. A. S Turner, Mrs. G. N. Cooper and Mrs. Samuel Loller.

Next Monday night be sure to be on hand with some helpful hints on how you farm, and saving device, either on the farm or in the home. A full attendance is desired, as business of importance is on hand.
