The Transcript

TEDDY has come home from the Brazilian wilds, and the Bull Moosers have taken on a new lease of life.

REV. THOMAS HARE, the new superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Maryland, delivered a splendid address to the people of Kent in the court house in temperance meeting assembled on Tuesday evening. He created a most favorable impression, and impressed his audience with his sincerity.

THE country of Ireland has at last won its long fight for self-government, and there is not an Irishman in this country who will fail to honor the name and memory of John Redmond, the "Grand Old Man" of Ireland, who has given the best efforts of his life in the cause of freedom for his people.

FORMER Mayor Thomas G. Hayes has declined to be a candidate for United States Senator against Senator John Walter Smith. A strong effort had been made by the friends of the former mayor throughout the city and State to induce him to make the fight, but he declined on account of his age, and the extent of his law practice.

FORMER President Roosevelt has announced that he will make his next political fight as a Progressive. This is a keen disappointment to the standpat Republicans of the Penrose stripe, who have been making a strenuous effort to discredit the Progressive element during the absence of Teddy in the Brazilian jungles. This announcement means that there is very little hope for a united Republican party in the near future.

GOV. GOLDSBOROUGH has appointed the members of the commission which will conduct the educational survey of the State as follows: B. Howell Griswold, Jr., of Baltimore; Judge James A. Pearce, of Chestertown, and Dr. J. McPherson Scott, of Hagerstown. The commission will probably have either the Rockfeller Foundation or the Carnegie Foundation to undertake the actual work of investigating the State's educational system.

THE UNKINDEST CUT OF ALL.

"When you find the fates are against you getting what you want, just get indignant and make up your mind you would not have it even tho' it was offered."

The above is an editorial from the Kent News of last Saturday. We had no idea that they would be so insinuating about their candidates for office. Capt. Curtis E. Crane was an applicant for membership on the State Roads Commission at a salary of $2000 a year. He made a stiff fight to land the job, and had the backing of John D. Urie and William W. Beck, and it was presumed that he had the support of the News. But possibly the News thought that so long as they had been handed a $5000 job that it was going it just a little stiff to want a $2000 job. And so the News' statement accounts for the "bluff" that was put up by Capt. Crane's friends here to land the job on the State Roads Commission.

THE BANEFUL EFFECTS OF HAZING.

The shooting of young Bowlus, of the Junfor class of St. John's College, Annapolis, supposedly by a member of the Freshmen class, the other night, places the college and its authorities in a most embarrassing position. We know how prone college boys are to indulge in pranks of a more or less questionable character during their college career, but this thing of making slaves of under-classmen and resorting to means to assert authority which is assumed, is calculated to arouse the spirit of resentment in any man. Young gentlemen do not attend college to be made slaves of, and to run down town and get a Junior or a Senior a plug of tobacco or tote his dress suit case from the train. Such exactions are beneath the dignity of young gentlemen of college age and dignity, and we do not censure the under-classmen in the least for resenting such unjust exactions. College men in every class should understand that it is just as much a part of their business to uphold the honor and dignity of their college as it is to endeavor to receive a diploma from that college. The acme of college spirit is college dignity, and hazing of the character which provoked the attack at St. John's College, and which are by no means infrequent in other institutions of learning, is, or at least should be, beneath the dignity of any college student. The shooting of young Bowlus is a serious reflection upon St. John's College, and unless the authorities of every college co-operate to enforce the discipline of the college to the fullest extent, the cause of education may suffer through the ofttimes lawless pranks of thoughtless students. Young Bowlus died Thursday.

THE STILL POND POSTOFFICE.

Mr. Carl Norris has been reappointed postmaster at Still Pond. Mr. Norris is a Republican, and he was indorsed by Congressman Covington, we understand, at the request of the Democratic State Committee and the Organization Democratic leaders of Kent, including Messrs. Wm. W. Beck and Howard Turner. The two other names submitted to the Postmaster-General were Messrs. W. H. Parr and John Schofield, both Democrats, who have supported the Democratic ticket in season and out of season, and yet the Organization Democrats, through the influence of John D. Urie, preferred the appointment of a Republican to either of the two good Democrats. It looks like the Organization forces are compelled to ignore the Democrats in order to pay political debts for past favors. We do not blame Mr. Urie in the least. Mr. Urie knows the Organization forces could do absolutely nothing in a Democratic primary except for the assistance rendered by Mr. Urie, and Mr. Urie has got the Democratic Organization just exactly where he wants it, in view of the plight of the Republican party. The censure for such a condition should be attached to the Democrats whose predicament is such that they must submit to the dictation of a Republican in order to hold their political heads above water. Meantime what must the rank and file of the Organization Democrats think when they see a Republican securing jobs to which good Democrats might have been appointed. So far as Mr. Urie is concerned, he does not care whether the Republican party lives or dies so long as he holds the Organization Democrats in the hollow of his had, and can make them do as he desires.

THE Board of County Commissioners have received a numbers of applicants for the position of tax assessor under the new Tax Reform law, but they will not make any recommendations to the commission which makes the appointment for several weeks.

PAIGE

You never have to make excuses for the Paige car. Place it in any automobile assemblage—

Measure it by the standard of cars of double its price.

The only excuses you will hear will be the attempts of the other fellow to justify himself for paying more.

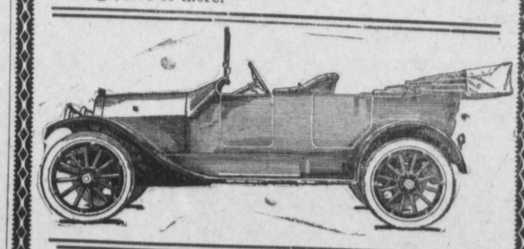

The Paige is the car of super-quality simply because all the money goes into the car itself.

The Paige-Detroit Company has no bonded indebtedness to eat up a large proportion of its income in interest—it has no excessive capitalization on which it must earn dividends—and it has ample resources to enable it to buy at lowest cash prices.

The Paige price represents actual car value.

Every Paige owner knows this already.

Every prospective owner will recognize it immediately when he checks up the Paige point for point with cars costing $2000 or more.
