Mrs. Alphin Guest On TV

TRENTON—Mrs. S. Roy Alphin of Allenawr Ave., this city, made a television appearance recently in Washington on Station WMAL, Channel 7.

A former supervisor of handicapped children's program in Washington, she presented the Ida E. Alphin award to the handicapped youth who made the greatest progress in spite of his disability.

The award was presented to Serena Shadd, a graduate of the 12th grade, who has been confined to a wheelchair since the third grade.

Mrs. Alphin is president of the Central Chapter of the New Jer-

What "Superior Quality and High Proof" in a gin MEANS to you!

Superior Quality means richer flavor—velvety smoothness. High Proof (94.4) means sustained flavor—drinks that never taste thin. Only in Gordon's do you get this advantage. Change to Gordon's and see the change in your gin drinks.

Matron, 80, Dies After Illness

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Funeral services were held at First Baptist Church, Wednesday, for Mrs. Jennie A. Green, 80-year old church, civic and fraternal worker who died after a long illness.

Mrs. Green of 1408 E. Chase St., lived in Baltimore since 1894 when she came here with her husband, the late Rohn C. green, from Omha, Neb.

She was a member of First Baptist Church for 54 years, and once served as recording secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Maryland Baptist Convention.

The mother of Mrs. Janet Spence, teacher at School No. 105, Mrs. Green was a member of Harper Temple of Elks, the First Baptist Relief Association, Eureka Chapter of Eastern Star; and Bethel Court No. 5 of which she was past worthy counsellor.

The Rev. V. T. Williams, pastor of First Baptist Church, conducted the funeral. Burial was in Baltimore National Cemetery.

Mrs. Green also is survived by a son-in-law, William T. Spence of Baltimore, and other relatives in California.

Gold Star Mother Dies In Hospital

Mrs. Clara A. Brown, 71-year-old Gold Star Mother who was invited to World War II memorial services in England last year, died at Provident Hospital, Tuesday, after a sudden illness.

The mother of five sons who served in the last war, Mrs. Brown was to have been a guest at the memorial services overseas last July. One son, Morris Alexander, was killed in action. An illness however, prevented her from making the trip.

Living Children

Mrs. Brown of 1844 N. Monroe St., was the widow of John M. Brown. Funeral services were held today (Friday) at Unity Christian Community Church with burial in Mt. Auburn Cemetery.

A native Baltimorean, Mrs. Brown's other children are Albert, George, Lawrence and William Brown, and Misses Myrtle, Barbara and Catherine Brown, all of Baltimore.

ACHIEVEMENT AWARD GOES TO SOCIAL WORKER

NEW YORK (ANP) — A $500 award for advancement of the interracial work of the Friendship House on 135th St. near Lenox Ave. was presented last week to its director, Miss Anne Foley. She also received the Schaefer Achievement Award of the Schaefer Brewing Co.
