Jon Massey Invades Song Writing Field

WASHINGTON, The latest news from Tin Pan Alley is that two record companies have accepted two original musical compositions or ditties by WBDC disc jockey Jon ($100) Massey and his collaborator, Charlie Baskerville, a Howard U. music student.

Columbia Records has accepted the tunes "I'll Follow You" and "Crazy in Love." According to Jon Massey, Columbia represents platter.

Jimmy Ray and Frankie Laine may record the Massey Baskerville originals.

Atlantic Records have accepted two other original tunes—"Let's Make Love Worth While" and "Too Little, Too Late"—for early recording sessions. Ruth Brown, noted song stylist, will cut the tunes for Atlantic.

His introduction into radio came after one of his original scripts was accepted for the Dr. Christian program.

Carr's Beach Headliners

Bull Moose Jackson, his Buffalo Bearcat Band, and Ella Fitzgerald will be the headline attractions Sunday at Carr's Beach, supported by Bill John Grier and the vocals of Anniston Allen.

On the AVENUE

By E. B. REA

HERE ARE JUST a few of the hot news morsels grabbed during the heat wave.

MOST OF THE GUYS along the Stroll taking the Ray Robinson defeat in stride as just one of those things over which no human has any control. They predict that Sugar Ray will K.O. Joey if he takes another shot at the light-heavy titleholder this fall. The Archie Moore-Clarence Henry shindig added nothing to the pride of the boys along Cauliflower Row.

JAMES SODEN wil observe his second year as barman at the Old Leland in July . . . Harriett Conway, former barmaid at the Old Wagon Wheel, now doing her chores in Atlantic City . . . Naomi Thomas doing night barmaid duty at the Pride of Baltimore Elks down Dolphin St. way, with Hester Jackson doing the serving. Eula M. Morison holds down the dayspot.

AL's TAVERN, 2700 block Pennsylvania Ave., now known as Club 2700, under new ownership with Phil Bechkes in the driver's seat. Celebrating here Sunday night were: Marian and Eugene Fisher, Margaret Graham, Edith Owens, Clifton Young, Clarence Roerts, Henry Conway Jr., Raymond Lee, Francis Hopkins, Ollie Williams, Raymond (Slim) Holmes, Paris Bagwell, Douglas Taylor.

ALSO TAGGED on the Stroll: Jesse Williams, Junior Kane, Walter Pinder, Harry Moten, Donald Moore-Clarence Henry, George Stokes, Bernard Carter, Rufus Webb, James Bowing.

Friends of that pert barmaid at Sapson Brooks Lodge are wondering what player on Yokley's All Star baseball team she's interested in?

COOL JA IN the evening will be the order of the day on Sunday at Sparrow's Beach with Tab Smith and his orchestra in person, while the Swallows will warble with the Tilters at Beachwood Park . . . Allied Benefit Clubs of D.C. sending a Washington-Baltimore excursion on a one-day trip to Atlantic City on Saturday (tomorrow).

THE CRACK DOWN on the "Red Light" gang has driven some members on the run. The name, however, is misleading since there is no red light within four blocks of where the gang exploded over Officer Leroy Moody . . . Walter Rouse is attracting many of the lower Avenue patrons to upper Avenue's 3400 block, Bowell's, where he's major domo . . . Phil Haris' P. and M., up North Avenue way, enjoying a top Tuesday night's crowd . . . William Marshal, King DICK, ADDED the Dixon's Comedy Club and the Melody Club to his rounds server did a bobby-soxer sequel on Saturday night. The femme ever she big boy.

THE BIG FOUR, Ella Fitzgerald, Bull Moose Jackson, Big John Grier and Anniston Allen, will bring a variety of le hot jazz and pulsating songs to Carr's Beach on Sunday. Ella, just back from Europe, will give out with some of the songs which made the Europeans shout "brava." . . . Outof town talent making the spots jump include: Al Bundy, Club 1017; Austin Michele, Club Casino; Camila Basmche, Comedy Club and Tiny Dixon, Melody Club. George Brooks Dorier is lining up another package of Melodeers for the Melody Club, this week end, which will have the whole town talking.

MRS. TOM WILSON (Idella), cashier at the Alhambra, has a charming teen-age daughter in Bennie Morris, who dropped in with her pal, Ruth Morris (no relation), to see momma a hot minute . . . Leroy Curtis, of Atlantic City, renewing old acquaintances on the Avenue . . . The attractive package goods department at Rector's supervised by Reba Fox—one of the proprietors, and Lorraine Strickland, both of whom have pleasing personalities.

MRS. GEORGIANA JACKSON foster mother of the late John Kirby, shocked over not being officially advised of his sudden death in Los Angeles . . . Tom Delaney, the songwriter, telling me that the Les Paul recording of his "Jazz Me Blues," the best interpretation since the 25-year-old blues number was written . . . East Baltimore's Las Vegas Quinoet has a bid from Savoy Records to wax eight of their original numbers. Managed by Cleveland Scott, the one-year-old combo is going great guns . . . Following an engagement at Bamiton, Pa., the group will move into the Showboat at Glen Burnie, Md., July 11-15.

HERE'S A SCOOP — Lionel Hampton and his entire show will be the July 4th attraction at Carr's Beach . . . And, while on the subject of outings, the Benefit Clubs are running a train-box excursion to the Shore, Atlantic City, on Aug. 10 . . . Now that the miling long twin tunnels for the harbor have been approved, the engineers could learn a lot by drafting Joseph (Tunnel Joe) Holmes, Maryland's most expert tunnel-digger, who knows much about the underground world.

DON'T CROUCH NOW, but the Baltimore Trashit Company will eventually get that 20 cents fare raise . . . The top screen offering in local theatres seem to be "Chained for Life," at the Royal, action.

Ellington In 50th Indianapolis Show

INDIANAPOLIS — Duke Ellington played a long and one half hour concert here at the Murat Theater to a large audience of old and new fans.

The Sunday evening concert performed with all the grace and generosity of Duke's Carnegie Hall recital, marked the fiftieth odd appearance in Indianapolis of the nation's top showman.

Said Henry Butler, old time music critic for a local daily:

"Mr. Ellington, as a tactful and generous emcee, is one of my top favorite showman. Duke and his outfit have developed a rare sense of tone and balance in their arrangements. . .He searing in Sunday's program was extraordinarily beautiful."

Vocalist for the first part of the program was Betty Roche, who did a fine performance of "What Are the Blues?" and "Please Send That Woman's Husband Back to Me."

Miss Roche in voice and gesture gives a highly refined version of implishness.

Instrumental soloists included Jimmy Hamilton, on clarinet; Paul Gonsalves, tenor sax; Louis Bellson, drums; Ray Nance, Ken Anderson and Clark Terry on trumpet, and Juan Tizon, trombone.

The Ellington band is now in its thirtieth year.

Ravens Sued

NEW YORK — National Sounds Corporation has filed a breach of contract suit against the Ravens quartet seeking $100,000 in damages.

The suit, filed in New York Supreme Court, charges that the group failed to show up for a recording session.

'Safe' Summer

WASHINGTON

Dr. Roland B. Scott, pediatrician, gives such a talk before the River Terrace Civic Association on June 19. He discussed poliomyelitis, accident prevention and other measures designed to make the summer season safe for children.

Dr. Scott emphasized the need to start the safety program at home by each parent making a thorough search of the home and yard to remove any thing that may be a menace to injurious materials and gadgets, poisons, lye, chlorox and other hazards from the immediate environment of children.

Brass Rail Fight Stymied

Attorney Indicates No Further Action

WASHINGTON

The fight to obtain a liquor license for the controversial Brass Rail restaurant will probably be abandoned, George E. C. Hayes, attorney for the corporation, indicated on Monday.

Mr. Hayes said that he had not made up his mind on whether or not to challenge the ABC Board's recent ruling, which denied a license to the tavern.

However, he added, no further action would probably be taken.

License Denied

The Brass Rail's license was denied on Feb. 1, by the ABC Board as an outgrowth of testimony during the Senate District Crime Sub-Committee's hearings.

After the license was denied, a court suit was filed seeking to compel the board to issue a new liquor permit or hold hearings on the license application.

The board held a hearing during May, after taking a series of depositions during March.

Simkins' Interest Noted

During the taking of affidavits, witnesses stated that Roger (Whitetop) Simkins, noted sportsman, was frequently seen around the tavern that was reportedly operated by his wife, Yvonne.

Recently, the board ruled that Simkins was the "real" owner and that Mrs. Simkins was not of "fit moral character" to hold a liquor license.

Mr. Hayes, at the time the ruling was made, said he would confer with his clients about future action.

Choral Society Set To Open Season

WASHINGTON

The Little Choral Society, Philip Lesser, director, will open its second summer season with auditions and a first rehearsal at 8 P.M. Monday in the music room of Cardozo High School, 13th and Clifton Sts., NW.

Mr. Lesser has planned a repertoire for the summer which will include Palestrina's "Stabat Mater," an extended work by Monteverdi, which will be sung in its entirety.

Singers who can sight - read, have some musical background and experience, and are interested in devoting some time to intensive choral ensemble work are being invited to participate.

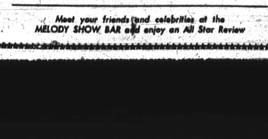
In Memoriam

IN MEMORIAM



BOSTON—In laying memory of my dear wife, Roberta Boston, who passed away, two years ago, June 25, 1950:

Do not ask me if I miss her,
There's such a vacant place.
Oft I think I hear her footsteps
And see her smiling face.
Days of sadness still come over me,
Tears in silence often flow;
Memory keeps her ever near me;
Though she left me two years ago.

Loving husband,
DORSEY BOSTON,
and FAMILY.

In Memoriam

CLEMMONS—In loving memory of my husband, BENTON, who passed away June 28, 1950:

Sweetness and sunshine
Graying our journey for you
Wishing the other would come
Just for a glimpse of you.
With a broken heart, I watched you:

For three years have passed since dear mother left us
The best prayer I could make, dear mother
Is that God will give you the strength and power of all the days
That I, her heiress of you
Will need to bear heart
The loved you most sincere
That never, never, never
Are you, dear mother.

Your loving daughter,
ESTHER THOMPSON and family

GILBERT — In loving memory of my dear husband, and our father, HARRY E. GILBERT, who died June 26, 1945:

Sometimes it's hard to understand
Why some things have to be
Why a life so full of wishes,
Dreams, filled with planned
Purposes, our powers to see,
Can be ended, leaving
Us always, as a sudding star
Fall from the Gods
Gone, But not forgotten
Never Lost
LOVING WIFE AND CHILDREN

IN MEMORIAM

McLILLY—In loving remembrance of my dear husband, Rev. Joseph McLilly, Jr., who passed away four years ago, July 5, 1948.

A light is from our household gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled!
Some may think you are forgotten
Though on earth you are no more,
But in memory you are with us
As you always were before.

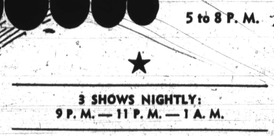
Wife ILIA MAE McLILLY
and FAMILY.

MITCHELL—In loving memory of our dear mother, LAURA MITCHELL, who passed away, June 28, 1950:

When our mother's vacant has departed,
And you sit alone and broken-hearted,
There's something in a kindred mind
That always leaves a sense behind.
Of true companionship we know
The pain it was to see you go.
Yet memory soothes everything
Since God in victory—death its sting.
We who loved you, sadly miss you;
We who love you very dear;
And in lonely hours of thinking
Often feel your presence near.
Though God has taken you away
You are with us every day.

Your Friends,
LOUISE HAYNIE and GERTRUDE BROOKS.

SMALLWOOD — In memory of our dear mother, MRS. ROSA SMALLWOOD, who passed away June 28, 1951:



You know your mother's been missing out. And wondering why I don't shout. And yet you had a lot of sense and the faith to know, So trying but they knew it was. And they would deceive faith. A faithful excuse for a mother. Oh! I know it was, and like a soldier great
Your faith you proved and prepared to face your final fate.
You told us not to cry, or feel forever blue
Because you should not question what God did unto you.
And though there were no final words you ever chose to lay
You left an inspiration deep for every youth today.

FAMILY

TRAVERS — In loving memory of our mother and Grandmother, BERTHA E., who passed away one year ago, June 26, 1951:

You are always with our thoughts, No matter where we go,
Always in our hearts, Dear Mother
Because we love you so.

Loving CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN.
