THE FAVORITE SONG OF THE FISHERMEN.

Don't talk to me of indoor songs
Made by the human voice,
Along a stream I'd rather wade,
If I could have my choice;
The great outdoors the theatre,
And life on even keel,
I like to listen to this song;
The song of the Whirring Reel.

Don't talk to me of great song birds,
Of opera's greatest star,
Of Kubelik, or Schumann-Heink,
I care not who they are.
I know a sweeter melody,
Its thrill you can't help feel;
It starts along about June first;
The song of the Whirring Reel.

BAR MEETING AT SEA SIDE
Maryland Association Will Gather July 1 to 3.

Arrangements are being perfected to make the annual meeting of the Maryland State Bar Association this year the most successful and most enjoyable of any ever held. It will take place July 1, 2 and 3 at the Hotel Cape May, N. J.

The program of the meeting has not been arranged, but it is understood that speakers of national reputation will make addresses, in addition to those by members of the association. The following officers nominated for next year will be voted for during the meeting:

President—Judge N. Charles Burke, Baltimore.

Vice-presidents—Judge Robley D. Jones, Snow Hill; Frederick T. Haines, Elkton; Judge Wm. H. Harlan, Belair; Ferdinand Williams, Cumberland; Daniel M. Murray, Ellicott City; Arthur D. Willard, Frederick; M. Hampton Magruder, Upper Marlboro; Alfred S. Niles, Baltimore, and Edward Guest Gibson, Baltimore.

Secretary—James W. Chapman, Jr., Baltimore.

Treasurer—R. Bennett Darnall, Baltimore.

Executive Council—Thomas H. Robinson, Belair; F. Brooke Whiting, Cumberland; Stuart S. Janney, Baltimore, and Randolph Barton, Jr., Baltimore.

Most Important Celebration of the Year.

To properly arrange for Baltimore's Star-Spangled Banner Centennial, which will be the most important national celebration of the year, the commission, appointed by Mayor James H. Preston, has just opened extensive headquarters for the working committees and forces of the event. These are 107 to 113 East Baltimore street, where the managing directors are holding daily meetings and where committees are constantly in session. Nearly a million dollars will be expended on decorations, illuminations and the industrial parade and electrical, historical pageant, which are to be two of the chief events. President Wilson will be present when the original Star-Spangled Banner is carried to Fort McHenry to the ramparts where it was seen on the dawn of the morning a hundred years ago when Francis Scott Key wrote the national anthem while detained aboard a British man-of-war. As a part of the dedicatory exercises the song will be sung by a chorus of ten thousand children of the public schools on enormous stands grouped as a human flag and accompanied by a massed band of 1,500 pieces. At night the old fort will be bombarded and the eighteen miles of water and harbor front will be constantly lighted with fireworks.

Ernest Butler, colored, was arrested Saturday, charged with shooting Albert Tilghman, also colored, in the hand, near Butlertown, Saturday evening. The trial was held Wednesday morning before Justice Wright. Several others were arrested for disorderly conduct. They were given a hearing before Justice Wright on Wednesday morning. Butler was sentenced to the House of Correction for a year; Albert Tilghman was fined $25 and costs for disorderly conduct, and his lawyer, S. Scott Beck, Esq., took an appeal; Leonard Lively was fined $2.50 and costs for disorderly conduct and paid, and Alonzo Dorsey was fined $5 and costs for same offence, and he paid.

A MISTAKEN IDEA
There are some people who still resort to drugged pills or alcoholic syrups to overcome colds, nervousness or general debility, and who know that the pure, unadulterated nourishment in Scott's Emulsion is eminently better, but refrain from taking it because they fear it may lead to excessive fat or obesity.

This is a mistaken idea, because Scott's Emulsion first strengthens the body before making flesh. Its blood-forming properties aid nature to throw off sickness by building health from its very source, and flesh is formed only by its continued use. Avoid alcoholic substitutes for SCOTT'S.

They transform any porch into a perfect resting place. The NO-WHIP ATTACHMENT with which these shades are equipped prevent flapping of the shade. The shades successfully keep out the hot rays of the sun and while they maintain the porch cool and comfortable, admit just the proper amount of light.

Call and see our display or a telephone call will bring the "Aerolux" man who will show you color samples and then if you wish, take the measurements of your porch.
